Material Cultures in Canada Thomas Allen, Jennifer Blair, 2015-06-18 Material Cultures in Canada presents the vibrant and diverse field of material culture studies in Canadian literary artistic and political contexts today The first of its kind this collection features sixteen essays by leading scholars in Canada each of whom examines a different object of study including the beaver geraniums comics water a musical playlist and the human body The book's three sections focus in turn on objects that are persistently material on things whose materiality blends into the immaterial and on the materials of spaces Contributors highlight some of the most exciting new developments in the field such as the emergence of new materialism affect theory globalization studies and environmental criticism Although the book has a Canadian centre the majority of its contributors consider objects that cross borders or otherwise resist national affiliation This collection will be valuable to readers within and outside of Canada who are interested in material culture studies and in addition will appeal to anyone interested in the central debates taking place in Canadian political and cultural life today such as climate change citizenship shifts in urban and small town life and the persistence of imperialism Catalog of Reprints in Series, 1955

Reflections on the Classical Canon in Economics Evelyn L. Forget, Sandra Peart, 2000-09-28 In this discipline defining volume some of the leading international scholars in the history of economic thought re-examine the concepts of classical economics and the canon illuminating the roots and evolution of the contemporary discipline Into Print Leah L. Chang, 2009 Printers were powerful figures in the creation of early modern books they determined the physical appearance of books changed content and even altered or eliminated the name of the author to suit their own commercial and cultural interests These interventions encouraged the birth of modern notions of authorship for they compelled writers editors and printers to confront questions of textual ownership and authority In the publication of female authors however book producers had to grapple with new concerns about authority and value since female authors were few and far between and their appeal was far from guaranteed Certainly the novelty of female authors could represent both an economic and cultural niche for the enterprising printer but that same novelty in a culture unaccustomed to women's literary production was also a risky investment Classical, Renaissance, and Postmodernist Acts of the Imagination Arthur F. Kinney, 1996 This sharply focused collection of essays on poetics and poetry with special attention to Shakespeare includes the work of some of the nation's best known and most respected scholars and authors All of them are former colleagues of O B Hardison Jr and their major new essays written especially for this collection center on his interests Aristotle and classical poetics Petrarch and Italian poetics the English Renaissance especially Shakespeare and Milton and postmodernist work in theory literature and science BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Postcolonial Readings of Music in World Literature Cameron Fae Bushnell, 2013 This book reads representations of Western music in literary texts to reveal the ways in which artifacts of imperial culture function within contemporary world literature Bushnell argues that Western music's conventions for performance composition and listening established during the colonial period persist in postcolonial thought and practice Music from the Baroque Classical and Romantic periods Bach through Brahms coincides with the rise of colonialism and Western music contains imperial attitudes and values embedded within its conventions standards and rules The book focuses on the culture of classical music as reflected in the worlds of characters and texts and contends that its effects outlast the historical significance of the real composers pieces styles and forms Through examples by authors such as McEwan Vikram Seth Bernard MacLaverty Chang rae Lee and J M Coetzee the book demonstrates how Western music enters narrative as both acts of history and as structures of analogy that suggest subject positions human relations and political activity that in turn describes a postcolonial condition The uses to which Western music is put in each literary text reveals how European art music of the seventeenth through the nineteenth centuries is read and misread by postcolonial generations exposing mostly hidden cultural structures that influence our contemporary understandings of social relations and hierarchies norms for resolution and for assigning significance and standards of propriety The book presents strategies for thinking anew about the persistence of cultural imperialism reading Western music simultaneously as representative of imperial cultural dominance and as suggestive of resistant structures forms and practices that challenge the imperial hegemony

The Annotated Bibliography of Canada's Major Authors: Morley Callaghan, Mavis Gallant, Hugh Hood, Alice Munro, Ethel Wilson Robert Lecker, Jack David, 1979 If God Meant to Interfere Christopher Douglas, 2016-04-21 The rise of the Christian Right took many writers and literary critics by surprise trained as we were to think that religions waned as societies became modern In If God Meant to Interfere Christopher Douglas shows that American writers struggled to understand and respond to this new social and political force Religiously inflected literature since the 1970s must be understood in the context of this unforeseen resurgence of conservative Christianity he argues a resurgence that realigned the literary and cultural fields Among the writers Douglas considers are Marilynne Robinson Barbara Kingsolver Cormac McCarthy Thomas Pynchon Ishmael Reed N Scott Momaday Gloria Anzald a Philip Roth Carl Sagan and Dan Brown Their fictions engaged a wide range of topics religious conspiracies faith and wonder slavery and imperialism evolution and extraterrestrial contact alternate histories and ancestral spiritualities But this is only part of the story Liberal leaning literary writers responding to the resurgence were sometimes confused by the Christian Right's strange entanglement with the contemporary paradigms of multiculturalism and postmodernism leading to complex emergent phenomena that Douglas terms Christian multiculturalism and Christian postmodernism Ultimately If God Meant to Interfere shows the value of listening to our literature for its sometimes subterranean attention to the religious and social upheavals going on around it

Here for the first time in one volume are all the extant writings focusing on rhetoric that were composed before the fall of Rome. This unique anthology of primary texts in classical rhetoric contains the work of 24 ancient writers from Homer through St. Augustine, including Herodotus, Thucydides, Plato, Aristotle, Cicero, Quintilian, Tacitus, and Longinus. Along with many widely recognized translations, special features include the first English translations of works by Theon and Nicolaus, as well as new translations of two works by important sophists: Gorgias' encomium on Helen and Alcidas' essay on composition. The writers are grouped chronologically into historical periods, allowing the reader to understand the scope and significance of rhetoric in antiquity. Introductions are included to each period as well as to each writer, with writers' biographies, major works, and salient features of excerpts. The Canadian Monthly and National Review Graeme Mercer Adam, George Stewart, 1875. The Great Tradition Richard M. Gamble, 2009-01-15. An anthology of classic writings on education. Ghostly Figures Ann Keniston, 2015-10-01. From Sylvia Plath's depictions of the Holocaust as a group of noncohering bits to AIDS elegies asserting that the dead posthumously persist in ghostly form and Susan Howe's insistence that the past can be conveyed only through juxtaposed scraps, the condition of being too late is one that haunts post-World War II American poetry. This is a poetry saturated with temporal delay, partial recollection of the past, and the revelation that memory itself is accessible only in obstructed and manipulated ways. These postwar poems do not merely describe the condition of lateness; they enact it literally and figuratively by distorting chronology, boundary, and syntax by referring to events indirectly and by binding the condition of lateness to the impossibility of verifying the past. The speakers of these poems often indicate that they are too late by repetitively chronicling distorted events refusing closure or resolution and forging ghosts out of what once was tangible Ghostly Figures contends that this poetics of belatedness along with the way it is bound to questions of poetic making is a central if critically neglected force in postwar American poetry Discussing works by Sylvia Plath Adrienne Rich Jorie Graham Susan Howe and a group of poets responding to the AIDS epidemic Ann Keniston draws on and critically assesses trauma theory and psychoanalysis as well as earlier discussions of witness elegy lyric trope and figure postmodernism allusion and performance to define the ghosts that clearly dramatize poetics of belatedness throughout the diverse poetry of post World War II America

The Routledge Companion to Inter-American Studies Wilfried Raussert, 2017-01-06 An essential overview of this blossoming field The Routledge Companion to Inter American Studies is the first collection to draw together the diverse approaches and perspectives on the field highlighting the importance of Inter American Studies as it is practiced today Including contributions from canonical figures in the field as well as a younger generation of scholars reflecting the foundation and emergence of the field and establishing links between older and newer methodologies this Companion covers Theoretical reflections Colonial and historical perspectives Cultural and political intersections Border discourses Sites and mobilities Literary and linguistic perspectives Area studies global studies and postnational studies Phenomena of transfer interconnectedness power asymmetry and transversality within the Americas
