Two Women Same Place Same Man:

Two Women Christene Browne, 2013-09-13 Bernice Archer has raised her blind twin daughters Eva and Ava in the relative isolation of their low income downtown neighborhood Every night Bernice tells her daughters the same bedtime stories stories that are sometimes magical and often cautionary about the dangers of the world outside the walls of their small apartment Eva and Ava now middle aged still wait for their mother s stories with a combination of excitement and suspicion knowing that there is much they haven t been told They are particularly mistrustful of Bernice s warnings of the dangers of the opposite sex and want to know more about the story of their own origins As loving as she is loud and as full of secrets as she is of stories Bernice is the centre of the universe for Eva and Ava even as they yearn for freedom and experiences of their own When Bernice notices two new neighbours in their building she is inspired to tell a new story And so begins the saga of Violet and Rose Bernice believes that these two women were born at the exact same moment hemispheres apart and that they share the same soul Like Eva and Ava the reader is swept along in the wake of Bernice s stories not knowing what is real and what is fantasy but believing none the less Folk-dances from Old Homelands Elizabeth

Konstan, 2022-06-21 It is now recognized that emotions have a history In this book eleven scholars examine a variety of emotions in ancient China and classical Greece in their historical and social context A general introduction presents the major issues in the analysis of emotions across cultures and over time in a given tradition Subsequent chapters consider how specific emotions evolve and change For example whereas for early Chinese thinkers worry was a moral defect it was later celebrated as a sign that one took responsibility for things In ancient Greece hope did not always focus on a positive outcome and in this respect differed from what we call hope Daring not to do or undaring was itself an emotional value in early China

While Aristotle regarded the inability to feel anger as servile the Roman Stoic Seneca rejected anger entirely Hatred and revenge were encouraged at one moment in China and repressed at another Ancient Greek responses to tragedy do not map directly onto modern emotional registers and yet are similar to classical Chinese and Indian descriptions There are differences in the very way emotions are conceived This book will speak to anyone interested in the many ways that human beings feel

A thrilling narrative investigation into the National Socialist Underground NSU a German terror organization that targeted immigrants and how a government failed to stop it Not long after the Berlin Wall fell three teenagers became friends in the East German town of Jena It was a time of excitement but also of deep uncertainty some four million East Germans found themselves out of work The friends began attending far right rallies with people who called themselves National Socialists Nazis And like the Hitler led Nazis before them they blamed minorities for their ills From 2000 to 2011 they embarked on the most horrific string of white nationalist killings since the Holocaust Their target immigrants Look Away follows Beate Zsch pe and her two accomplices and sometimes lovers as they became radicalized within Germany s far right scene escaped into hiding and carried out their terrorist spree Unable to believe that the brutal killings and bombings were being carried out by white Germans police blamed and sometimes framed the immigrants instead Readers meet Gamze Kuba k whose family emigrated from Turkey to seek safety only to find themselves in the terrorists sights It also tracks Katharina K nig an Antifa punk who would help expose the NSU and their accomplices to the world A masterwork of reporting and storytelling Look Away reveals how a group of young Germans carried out a shocking spree of white supremacist violence and how a nation and its government ignored them until it was too late Ainslee's ,1906
