Dorfman, Rose Cappelli, 2007 Shows teachers how to help students become confident accomplished writers using literature as their foundation The book is organised around the characteristics of good writing focus content organisation style and conventions The Complete Home Learning Sourcebook Rebecca Rupp, 1998 Lists all the resources needed to create a balanced curriculum for homeschooling from preschool to high school level Decolonizing Middle Level Literacy Instruction Michael Domínguez, Robyn Seglem, 2023-06-30 This text offers pre service and in service teachers pragmatic strategies for teaching middle grades literacy in culturally proactive and sustaining ways By demystifying big ideas and complex concepts Domínguez and Seglem provide clear pathways and lessons for illuminating and engaging with race ethnicity culture and identity in the middle grade English Language Arts classroom While addressing social justice equity diversity and liberation can seem intimidating or unrelated to classroom practice the authors demonstrate how weaving such questions into instruction benefits students development The guidance strategies and lessons in this book provide an answer to the question What does decolonial literacy teaching look like Concrete but not prescriptive the authors encourage us to reconsider accepted logics of schooling so that we can better support adolescents as they navigate complex identity landscapes Bringing together disparate conversations around reading writing identity and decolonial thinking and specifically tailored to the middle grades this book serves as a comprehensive toolkit for praxis and covers such topics as cultural change community connections and racial literacy Each chapter features tips on reading and writing instruction Teacher Spotlights Planning Questions and Additional Resources to make it easy for educators to apply the strategies to their own contexts An accessible entry to addressing challenging questions around identity in the classroom this book is essential reading in courses and professional development on ELA and literacy methods as well as teaching culturally and linguistically diverse students For teachers looking to push toward equity and reshape literacy education so that it serves all middle grade students Dom nguez and Seglem offer plenty of accessible and motivating places to start Teaching Science in Elementary Schools S. Kay Gandy,Harmony Hendrick,Jessica Roberts,2023-07-31 This book provides teachers with 50 dynamic activities to teach science through music food games literature community environment and everyday objects The authors share tried and tested ideas from their collective 75 years of teaching experiences For the busy teacher with little time to plan lessons resources are provided that include guided worksheets for activities pre post and during ideas to accompany activities and vocabulary and literature connections With this book in hand teachers can create opportunities for students to see science in application and to think logically as they ask questions test ideas and solve problems I Can Learn Social Skills! Benjamin Farrey-Latz,2020-02-13 Playful easy to remember poetry for teaching social skills in a lighthearted simple way Make teaching social skills fun with this lively collection of poems on skills such as greetings eye contact playing competing managing emotions apologizing and more Rhyming poems are always appealing they are fun to read aloud and easy to remember These easy to understand poems are perfect for teaching social skills I Can Learn Social Skills helps children communicate their wants and needs in simple relatable ways and teaches friendship basics making them feel validated and empowered Eye popping graphics and fun photos showing diverse kids accompany the book s playful humorous language and draw children into the work Activities and lessons at the back of the book help parents caregivers and other adults with teaching social skills Non-Linear Perspectives on Teacher Development Kathryn J. Strom,Tammy Mills,Linda Abrams,2023-03-21 Despite the multifaceted complexity of teaching dominant perspectives conceptualize teacher development in linear dualistic transactional human centric ways The authors in this book offer non linear alternatives by drawing on a continuum of complex perspectives including CHAT complexity theory actor network theory indigenous studies rhizomatics and posthuman neomaterialisms The chapters included here illuminate how different ways of thinking can help us better examine how teachers learn relationally with human material and discursive elements and offer ways to understand the entangled nature of the relationship between that learning and what emerges in classroom instructional practice They also present situated illustrations of what those entanglements or assemblages look like in the preservice induction and inservice phases from early childhood to secondary settings and across multiple continents Authors provide evidence that research on teacher development should focus on process as much if not more than product and show that complexity perspectives can support forward thinking assets based pedagogies Methodologically the chapters encourage conceptual creativity and expansion and support an argument for blurring theory method and normalising methodological hybridity Ultimately this book provides conceptual theoretical and methodological tools to understand current educational conditions in late capitalism and imagine otherwise It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Professional Development in Education Poetry Aloud Here! Sylvia M. Vardell,2006-02-20 From choosing a poem and developing presentations that will keep the audience captivated to using promotional displays and materials Poetry Aloud Here takes the reader through all the steps of introducing poetry for children Poetry People Sylvia M.
