Building Healthy Individuals, Families, and Communities Ted N. Strader, David A.
 Collins, Tim D. Noe, 2012-12-06 Youth have nearly always exhibited behaviors that frustrate adults It can be difficult to understand why young people engage in risky or destructive behavior and it is challenging to develop strategies to encourage more healthy and responsible behavior among our youth However it is helpful to realize that despite the fact that large numbers of youth engage in frightful and destructive behaviors for periods of time during adolescence and early adulthood a large proportion of youth find a way not only to survive but also to bounce back and contribute significantly to the furtherance of human development We are not the first generation of adults to experience the pain fear and frustration of dealing with our youth More important we recognize that we are not helpless when faced with the problems youth experience While it is true that adolescents have always exhibited problem behaviors a number of effective tools and approaches have always been at our disposal to assist with appropriate youth development Of course the most effective approaches require a tremendous amount of focused time and energy

Early Adolescence Aleta L. Meyer, Albert Farrell, Wendy Northup, Eva Kung, Laura Plybon, 2012-12-06 In preparation for role play during a RIPP class 6th grade students consider the following conflict situation Sharon and Josie who are good friends tryout for the basketball team Josie makes the team but Sharon does not The week after tryouts Sharon tries to pick a fight with Josie calling her a cheater and some one the coach felt sorry for Josie is in a bind she wants to remain friends with Sharon but she is really angry with Sharon for treating her so badly What can Josie do in this situation What type of self talk will help her work out this problem with Sharon and keep the friendship During the role play Sharon calls Josie a cheater Then before Josie responds two students representing her positive and negative sides take turns whispering into her ear Negative self talk Boy is she a loser What if everyone believes her and thinks that I cheated to get on the team Positive self talk I know I worked hard to get on the team Sharon must really be hurt that she didn't make it I can talk to her later when she's cooled down and maybe we can do something together after practice Josie listens to the two voices and decides that the best approach is to ignore Sharon's comments for now and to call her later that day to see if they can do something together This description of students dealing with everyday conflicts is quite real Mentoring Across Generations Andrea S.

Taylor, Jeanette Bressler, 2012-12-06 Currently blame for the difficulties facing youth is too often laid on one particular segment of the community whether parents school personnel or the children themselves However the problems of today's young people are problems for all generations In response the past decade has seen unparalleled proliferation of planned mentoring initiatives Across Ages the multi faceted and multigenerational intervention described in this volume uses older adult volunteers as mentors for young people By acting as advocates challengers nurturers role models and friends older mentors help children develop the awareness self confidence and skills they need to overcome overwhelming obstacles Across Ages is cost effective and feasible even where resources are fairly limited Although designed as a school based model this program can easily be adopted to other settings Each of the four major program components mentoring community service life skills instruction and family support is described in step by step detail Reducing the Risks for Substance Abuse Raymond P. Daugherty, 2013-03-08 Authors Raymond P Daugherty and Carl Leukefeld argue for replacing the youth

Introduction to Results Mapping Barry M. Kibel,1999-05-31 This volume presents the first comprehensive introduction to Results Mapping an innovative story based approach for assessing the worth of social health and educational programs Unlike most forms of evaluation that are number driven results mapping is story based Program staff are challenged to relate their most successful work with clients in structured formats that in turn are translated into outcome scores and related program measures An invaluable tool for professionals researchers and students who need to demonstrate outcomes for complex and difficult to evaluate programs Successful Aging Martin Bloom,Waldo C. Klein,2013-12-01 There is a near universal folk saying that everyone wishes to live a good long life but no one wishes for old age More contemporarily the rock and roll band Little Feat sang You know that you re over the hill when your mind s making promises your body can t fill This book is about the good long life It is a book about primary prevention strategies in the aging process it is not about preventing that process It is not about being old Instead it is about the things that individuals and the helping professionals who provide them with counsel and assistance can do to prevent the preventable problems of advancing age and to better manage those changes in functioning that cannot be prevented In short it is about extending all our capacities to the fullest so that we can better keep all those promises that we make to ourselves and others Aging is a life long process We focus here on the changes that are taking place in our selves and in our society as we age In particular we focus on what we can do to affect these changes by the choices we make and how we live This book offers primary prevention strategies for mature and older adults with the recognition that mature adulthood starts as soon as we are old enough to truly appreciate our active role in our own aging processes Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 American Journal of Public Health ,1997
