Big Vision, Small Business Jamie S. Walters, 2001 While most of the business world glorifies growth Big Vision Small Business celebrates the art and power of thinking small Based on more than 70 interviews with small business owners and on the author's own experience as a small business entrepreneur this book demonstrates that a company doesn't have to be big to make a significant impact According to the author a new kind of business owner is emerging Defining business success qualitatively as well as quantitatively these individuals ensure that their bottom line balances personal priorities and social responsibilities The book discusses four areas integral to big vision small business ownership engaging in inspired planning knowing which model of growth to follow maintaining successful employee and customer relationships and seeking balance and integrity

Psychology of Personality Amber Haque, Yasien Mohamed, 2009 Psychology of Personality Islamic Perspectives is the first edited volume of selected papers on human nature and personality from an Islamic perspective It is a modest attempt at clarifying the conceptual confusion that resulted in keeping psychology separate from religion separate from a soul The authors have incorporated religious and transcendental concepts that shape human personality which are based on the Qur'an and the works of early Muslim scholars It is not a book on psychotherapy however the views on human nature are important for the development of an Islamic approach to therapy The text is timely due to the increased attention to Islam and its significance in the lives of more than one billion adherents and also because modern psychology is demonstrating a new interest in indigenous and alternative perspectives of psychology It is hoped that this work will stimulate further research on the psychology of personality based on the Islamic assumptions of human nature This book is targeted for students undertaking psychology course with emphasis on Islamic perspective It is also suitable for researchers and scholars whose works are related to the Islamic psychology of personality
