Hubka, 2022-12-07 A classic work on farm buildings made by nineteenth century New Englanders refreshed with a new introduction Big House Little House Back House Barn portrays the four essential components of the stately and beautiful connected farm buildings made by nineteenth century New Englanders that stand today as a living expression of a rural culture offering insights into the people who made them and their agricultural way of life A visual delight as well as an engaging tribute to our nineteenth century forebears this book first published nearly forty years ago has become one of the standard works on regional farmsteads in America This new edition features a new preface by the author 1997 Summer Library Program Manual Jane A. Roeber, 1997 Yuma Mesa Homesteaders 1948 and 1952 Debra Conrad, 2007-03 Historical documentation of 1948 and 1952 rural life on the Mesa in Yuma Arizona Homesteads won by war veterans were not a gift but earned with sweat hard labor and years of hardships These memories and historical documents preserve a picture of life as it was lived by the individuals concerned This in depth history is both a testament and a legacy to those who follow today Don't let their history be forgotten Home Richard Reitz, 2004-12 Home is the story of growing and growing up in a place where human beings made a hard land home a place of profound trust and security space and responsibility It celebrates family the family of father and mother the extended family of uncles and aunts and grandparents the larger family of community molded by the land and weather and time yet never reduced by necessity into confusing making a living with making a life Home is about living in an agrarian world of the 30's and 40's with all the usual uncertainties connected with crops and animal husbandry and all the certainties of decent persons sharing a common endeavor living close to the land and animals and each other The story is related quietly respectfully with no pretense of romantic or narrative embellishment A common denominator is hard physical labor handled with the competence and grace of necessity and opportunity rather than the demands of hardship handled so well that good times and leisure seem part of a seamless whole no one nothing left out all things part of the scheme so that no other environment ever seems so complete and secure no other place so reliable as to be called home Widescreen Dreams Patrick E. Horrigan, 1999-04-20 In 1973 a sweet tempered ferociously imaginative ten year old boy named Patrick Horrigan saw the TV premiere of the film version of Hello Dolly starring Barbra Streisand His life would never be the same Widescreen Dreams Growing Up Gay at the Movies traces Horrigan's development from childhood to gay male adulthood through a series of visceral encounters with an unexpected handful of Hollywood movies

from the 1960s and 1970s Hello Dolly The Sound of Music The Poseidon Adventure Dog Day Afternoon and The Wiz
