Woman On The Terrace Korean Voices:

Woman on the Terrace Chŏng-hŭi Mun, 2007 Moon Chung hee is a poet of wild nature vigorous energy and sparking passion Woman's Work for Woman, 1903 Missionary Voice, 1914 Classical Writings of Korean Women Kim Keum-Won & Others, 2016-12-30 This work is a collection of essays travelogues written by women during the Joseon Dynasty 1392-1910 The work ranges from a eulogy for a broken needle to a travelogue describing various trips to scenic spots on the Korean peninsula including to the Keum Gang Mountains Now available in English this collection gives us a sampler of pre modern women's literature of Korea Woman's Missionary Friend, 1919 Creative Women of Korea Young-Key Kim-Renaud, 2004 This book introduces important contributions in the humanities by a select group of traditional and modern Korean women from the 15th through the 20th centuries The literary and artistic works of these women are considered Korean classics and the featured artists and writers range from a queen to a courtesan to a Buddhist nun to unknown women of Korea Although women's works were generally meant only to circulate among women these creative expressions have caught the attention of literary and artistic connoisseurs By bringing them to light the book seeks to demonstrate how Korean women have tried to give their lives meaning over the ages through their very diverse yet common artistic responses to the details and drama of everyday life in Confucian Korea The stories of these women and their work give us glimpses of their personal views on culture aesthetics history society politics morality and more One Human Family and Other Stories Yŏn-hŭi Chŏng, 2008 Haunting stories of the aftermath of war Tales of a Korean Grandmother Frances Carpenter, 2011-12-20 This multicultural children's book presents classic Korean fairy tales and other folk stories providing a delightful look into a rich literary culture The Korean people possess a folklore tradition as colorful and captivating as any in the world but the stories themselves still are not as well known to Western readers as those from The Brothers Grimm Mother Goose or Hans Christian Andersen In her best selling book for young readers Frances Carpenter collects thirty two classic Korean children's stories from the Land of the Morning Calm the woodcutter and the old men of the mountain the puppy who saved his village from a tiger the singing girl who danced the Japanese general into the deep river Why the dog and cat are not friends and even a more familiar tale of the clever rabbit who outsmarted the tortoise The children of the Kim family sit at their beloved Grandmother's knee to listen to these and other traditional folk tales which are rooted in thousands of years of Korean culture Korean and Korean American Life Writing in Hawai'i Heui-Yung Park, 2015-12-16 Korean and Korean American Life Writing in Hawai'i examines such self representing genres as lyric poems oral history autobiography and memoirs written by Korean and Korean Americans from the early twentieth century to the present in order to explore how these people have shaped their individual or collective identities Their representations produced in different periods by successive generations reveal how Koreans in their diaspora to Hawai'i came to terms with their ethnic and local selves and also how the sense of who and what they are changed over the years both within and beyond the initial generation Looking into their individual and collective identities in lyric poems oral history autobiography and memoirs reveals how the earliest arrivals their children and their grandchildren have come to terms with their national ethnic and local selves and how their sense of identity changes over the course of time both within and beyond the initial generation In the lyric poems found in Korean language periodicals of the native born generation we can trace the significance of the motherland and Hawai i for these writers sense of identity The oral histories of first generation women most of whom arrived as picture brides also represent another us often vulnerable Koreans who define themselves in relation to both the present culture and to Korean men The self developed by the second third and in between generation Koreans diversifies because their identity is not defined exclusively by their ancestral land extending to Hawai i and to America This study focuses on three main areas of emphasis Hawai i Korean language and culture and life writing By tracing how identity changes with each generation this study reveals how identity formation for Hawai i diasporic Koreans has evolved

Korea and her neighbors Isabella L. Bird, 2023-07-10 In Korea and Her Neighbors Isabella L Bird presents a meticulous account of her travels through Korea providing readers with rich insights into the country s cultural landscape and its geopolitical context in the late 19th century Employing a vibrant and descriptive literary style Bird captures both the beauty of Korea s natural environments and the complexities of its social structures Her observations recorded during her journey from 1894 to 1895 reflect the tensions of an era marked by increasing Western interest in East Asia and her detailed narrative places the reader at the intersection of travel literature and ethnographic study Isabella L Bird a pioneering explorer and one of the first women to gain recognition in travel writing was influenced by her desire to understand and document the world beyond her Victorian upbringing Her previous travels coupled with her adventurous spirit fueled her commitment to portraying lesser known cultures Her experiences in Korea offered her unique perspectives allowing her to navigate the intricacies of local customs and interactions with both locals and expatriates leading to a nuanced examination of the region Korea and Her Neighbors is highly recommended for readers interested in travel writing Asian studies and the interplay of culture and colonialism Bird s eloquent prose and keen observations offer an invaluable glimpse into a pivotal moment in Korea s history making this work not only an engaging read but also an essential text for understanding the dynamics of cultural exchange In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience A succinct Introduction situates the work s timeless appeal and themes The Synopsis outlines the central plot highlighting key developments without spoiling critical twists A detailed Historical Context immerses you in the era s events and influences that shaped the writing A thorough Analysis dissects symbols motifs and character arcs to unearth underlying meanings Reflection questions prompt you to engage personally with the work s messages connecting them to modern life Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read

Cement, Cabbages & Cars Roger Dix,2012-05-01 Cement Cabbage and Cars Cross cultural misadventures in The Land of the Morning Calm is a tale of modern day South Korea in fictitious prose based on the real life experiences travels and adventures of the author and people he has known The tale takes the reader through a thoughtful yet laughable cross cultural interchange between a young man from the west and the people of Korea from Canada to Seoul to the Uisung countryside farming community to the hub of the country s industrial center Ulsan back to Seoul and eventually Canada This insecure inexperienced Canadian farm boy ends up fulfilling his immature preconceived notions of the Orient through a series of faux pas blunders and a lot of dumb luck The story tells of the complexities of Korean society and sheds light on some of its cultural practices collectivism mindset and unusual culinary tastes such as eating dog and whale meat and how the experience of travel and learning can bring forth truth and understanding Songsaengnim: a Korea Diary Ross Brown,2012-02-25 It is March of 1997 and Roland Axiom lost out of his element and in a new world As his plane begins its final approach to Gimpo International Airport in Seoul South Korea Roland realizes his life is about to change foreveragain Roland has already survived a devastating life altering tragedy back home in Ottawa Canada he knows that what he needs most now is a clean slate As he arrives in Chonju South Korea where he plans to teach English and leave his past behind Roland abandons all that is familiar for the unknown He immerses himself in a vastly different culture where communication is difficult and his need to belong brings challenges But despite the distractions of a bustling city thousands of miles from everything he knows Roland is still haunted by anger guilt and demons that he attempts to drown in alcohol In this compelling tale one man travels across an ocean to begin an unforgettable journey of self discovery that eventually leads him to realize love forgiveness healing and another new beginning Voices Thomas Herninko,2010-09-22 Exploring Different

Perspectives And Voices New book is a fascinating fiction with a gritty realism that will draw readers in Philadelphia PA September 2010 The recession has left the economy reeling and many people stranded on the unemployment line Loren Howell has been a teacher for sixteen years until a union forced him out and left him jobless for a year His is just one of the Voices that readers will hear in a fascinating novel by Thomas Herninko Chris Killens is the warehouse manager of a small supply company He finds himself caught in the middle of a labor dispute in the recession of 1991 He is the one man in the company who deals with both the workers and the bosses and he struggles to get a settlement but tensions rise positions harden until a strike is called The men go out and the strike lasts for weeks The strike reaches a climax of violence and tragedy before they settle but the hostility and mistrust remain Voices is a novel of conflict confrontation and the human spirit in hard times It is a story told by many voices people caught up in a tragedy and they struggle to understand and survive Some find the way others do not but each has a unique story to tell with a unique voice An Affair with Korea

Vincent S. R. Brandt, 2014-02-01 In 1966 Vincent S R Brant lived in Sokpo a poor and isolated South Korean fishing village on the coast of the Yellow Sea carrying out social anthropological research At that time the only way to reach Sokpo other than by boat was a two hour walk along foot paths This memoir of his experiences in a village with no electricity running water or telephone shows Brandt's attempts to adapt to a traditional preindustrial existence in a small almost completely self sufficient community This vivid account of his growing admiration for an ancient way of life that was doomed and that most of the villagers themselves despised illuminates a social world that has almost completely disappeared Study Abroad in Korea Jieun Kiaer, 2020-11-29 Study Abroad in Korea prepares students for study in Korea by providing the reader with key expressions and guidance on certain aspects of culture and language idiosyncratic to Korea focusing on everyday scenarios Key features include Key expressions throughout the book providing practical linguistic knowledge with jargon free explanations Exposes readers to contextualised real life situations through dialogues between two characters one of whom is bilingual and teaching in Korea the other is a student studying abroad Discussions of important historical events and social issues accompany relevant chapters Features a variety of dialects and varieties of spoken Korean to help students acclimatise to the diverse types of spoken Korean they will encounter Aimed at those who possess a basic knowledge of Korean who wish to develop their linguistic knowledge in preparation for relocation to Korea this book is ideal for lower intermediate and A2 level students of Korean or for self study Korean Survey, 1954
