Women At The Hague Women At The Hague:

Women at the Hague Jane Addams, Emily G. Balch, Alice Hamilton, 2022-05-04 In 1915 shortly after the outbreak of World War I between twelve hundred and two thousand women representing twelve nations journeyed to The Netherlands to plead for peace at The Hague At this first International Congress of Women they called for continuous mediation until peace was restored and they met with representatives of the warring governments in an idealistic attempt to halt the military clash Although they did not stop the war their proposals are still used as guidelines for most diplomatic negotiations between hostile nations Three highly talented progressive women led the American delegation two Nobel Peace Prize winners Jane Addams cofounder of Hull House in Chicago and Emily G Balch a distinguished sociologist who taught at Wellesley College as well as Alice Hamilton the first industrial physician in the United States and also the first woman to join the faculty of Harvard University This book is the first hand report by these three remarkable women of their mission for peace Balch and Hamilton devote several chapters to a description of their travels their visits with various heads of state and meetings with pacifists in different countries In a controversial chapter Addams sharply criticizes the older male patriarchal leadership that manipulates young men to fight needless wars Addams concludes the volume by advocating women s full participation as voting citizens to promote the cause of peace and the spirit of internationalism This edition is enhanced by an introduction by University of Nebraska scholar Mary Jo Deegan this new edition of a valuable historical document will be of interest to students of women s studies history and international relations

Women at the Hague Jane Addams, 1915

Women at the Hague Jane Addams, 2015-09-27 Excerpt from Women at the Hague The International Congress of Women and Its Results The following pages give an account of the International Congress of Women convened at The Hague in April 1915 and of the journeys undertaken by two delegations from that Congress Much of the material has already appeared in The Survey and is obviously journalistic in character It may be of value however during these days of much war correspondence as a report of European conditions from the point of view of that peace sentiment which survives in the midst of every war but which is not easily uncovered If an apology were needed for putting such slight material into a book it may be stated that the widespread interest in the separate articles seemed to justify presenting them in convenient form It is further hoped that this recital by three American women may correct the impression made upon the public by the contradictory accounts given through the press and that the reader may become interested in the official report of the Congress About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
