Women and Church Work Cyril Charles Bowman Bardsley, Margaret G. Brooke, 1917 Centennial Series of the Association of Former Students, Texas A and M University Kelley Marie King, 2010 In an era when the dominant ideology divided the world into separate public and private spheres and relegated women to the private Anna J Hardwicke Pennybacker ardently promoted progressive causes including public education women s suffrage social reform and the League of Nations A Texas educator clubwoman writer lecturer and social and political activist whose influence in the early twentieth century extended nationwide Pennybacker wrote A New History of Texas which was the state adopted textbook for Texas history from 1898 1913 and remained in classroom use until the 1940s She was also active in the burgeoning women s club movement and served as president of both the Texas Federation of Women s Clubs and the General Federation of Women s Clubs 1912 14 The latter position was considered by some to be the most powerful position for a woman in America at that time Kelley King has mined the fifty two linear feet of Pennybacker archives at the University of Texas Center for American History to reconstruct the hidden history of a feminist s life and work There she uncovered an impressive record of advocacy interlaced with a moderate style and some old fashioned biases King s work offers insight into the personal and political choices Pennybacker made and the effects these choices had in her life and on the American culture at large

Women and the Material Culture of Death Beth Fowkes Tobin, 2017-07-05 Examining the compelling and often poignant connection between women and the material culture of death this collection focuses on the objects women make the images they keep the practices they use or are responsible for and the places they inhabit and construct through ritual and custom Women s material practices ranging from wearing mourning jewelry to dressing the dead stitching memorial samplers to constructing skull boxes collecting funeral programs to collecting and studying diseased hearts making and collecting taxidermies and making sculptures honoring the death are explored in this collection as well as women s affective responses and sentimental labor that mark their expected and unexpected participation in the social practices surrounding death and the dead The largely invisible work involved in commemorating and constructing narratives and memorials about the dead from family members and friends to national figures calls attention to the role women as memory keepers for families local communities and the nation Women have tended to work collaboratively making collecting and sharing objects that conveyed sentiments about the deceased whether human or animal as well as the identity of mourners Death is about loss and many of the mourning practices that women have traditionally and are currently engaged in are about dealing with private grief and public loss as well as working to mitigate the more general anxiety that death engenders about the impermanence of life

General Church Program, 1926, 1927, 1928 Episcopal Church. National Council, 1928 Mormonism (or the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints) Terryl Givens, 2020 Mormonism or the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints is America s most successful and most misunderstood home grown religion The church today boasts more than 15 million members worldwide a remarkable feat in the face of increasing secularity The growing presence of Mormonism shows no signs of abating as the makeup of its membership becomes progressively diverse The heightened contemporary relevance and increasingly global membership of the Church solidifies Mormonism as a religious group much deserving of awareness Covering the origins history and modern challenges of the church Mormonism What Everyone Needs to Know offers readers a brief authoritative guide to one of the fastest growing faith groups of the twenty first century in a reader friendly format providing answers to questions such as What circumstances gave rise to the birth of Mormonism Why was Utah chosen as a place of refuge Do you have to believe the Book of Mormon to be a Latter day Saint Why do women not hold the priesthood How wealthy is the church and how much are top leaders paid Written by a believer and the premier scholar of the Latter day Saints faith this remarkably readable introduction provides a sympathetic but unstinting account of one of the few religious traditions to maintain its vitality and growth in an era of widespread disaffiliation

The Methodist Woman, 1965 The Living Church, 1942 The Religious History of American Women Catherine A. Brekus, 2009-11-13 More than a generation after the rise of women s history alongside the feminist movement it is still difficult observes Catherine Brekus to locate women in histories of American religion Mary Dyer a Quaker who was hanged for heresy Lizzie Robinson a former slave and laundress who sold Bibles door to door Sally Priesand a Reform rabbi Estela Ruiz who saw a vision of the Virgin Mary how do these women s stories change our understanding of American religious history and American women s history In this provocative collection of twelve essays contributors explore how considering the religious history of American women can transform our dominant historical narratives Covering a variety of topics including Mormonism the women s rights movement Judaism witchcraft trials the civil rights movement Catholicism everyday religious life Puritanism African American women s activism and the Enlightenment the volume enhances our understanding of both religious history and women s history Taken together these essays sound the call for a new more inclusive history Contributors Ann Braude Harvard Divinity School Catherine A Brekus University of Chicago Divinity School Anthea D Butler University of Rochester Emily Clark Tulane University Kathleen Sprows Cummings University of Notre Dame Amy Koehlinger Florida State University Janet Moore Lindman Rowan University Susanna Morrill Lewis and Clark College Kristy Nabhan Warren Augustana College Pamela S Nadell American University Elizabeth Reis University of Oregon Marilyn J Westerkamp University of California Santa Cruz North-western Christian Advocate, 1920 Missionary Voice, 1911 Making Good the Claim Rufus Burrow Jr., 2016-02-16 The Church of God Reformation Movement founded in 1881 has the distinction of having been founded on the two core principles of holiness and visible unity Standard histories of the group proudly argue that the founder and pioneers exhibited a zeal for interracial unity that began to wane only in the early years of the twentieth century This book rejects that claim and argues instead that little to no extant hard evidence supports that view Moreover Making Good the Claim argues that while blacks eagerly joined the group they did so not because whites expended much energy evangelizing among them but because they heard something deeper in the message of holiness and visible unity than God's expectation that members achieve spiritual and church unity Unlike most whites blacks interpreted the message to call for unity along racial lines as well This book challenges members of the Church of God to begin forthwith to make good their historic claim about holiness and visible unity particularly as it applies to interracial unity The Watchman-examiner, 1925 Minutes - United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. General Assembly, Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. General Assembly, 1920 Vol for 1958 includes also the Minutes of the final General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America and the minutes of the final General Assembly of the Presbyteruan Church in the U S A Minutes of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States Presbyterian Church in the U.S. General Assembly, 1920 Minutes of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. General Assembly, 1920 The Western Christian Advocate, 1904 Make a Difference Arthur Blaustein, 2017-01-24 A comprehensive guide to civic participation and the best opportunities for volunteering We are proud residents of the land of the free and the home of the brave but how often do we actually get involved and do anything to make a difference The lifeblood of democracy is volunteering and Make a Difference teaches readers how to get in the game and help Volunteers are needed in record numbers People are in trouble and they are turning to volunteer organizations in their communities and faiths for help Millions of Americans middle class working class professionals and business executives have experienced the loss of a job a home or a business small farm failure a personal bankruptcy or a loss of pension or retirement income And millions more are only a layoff illness divorce or accident away from falling into poverty But YOU can help Make a Difference is a comprehensive collection of more than two hundred community service opportunities and experiences More than a simple resource guide this unique handbook includes interviews anecdotes and commentary from the top people in nonprofit and service fields The book ties together the strands of volunteering community service and civic engagement Blaustein focuses on two critical questions How did we get into this mess and What can be done to turn things around His answer to these interconnected questions is volunteering community service civic engagement and citizen participation They are good for you vital to those being served and healthy for your community and our country Here's what YOU can do to help The Christian Advocate, 1921 Preparing for Ministry George M. Hillman, Most seminaries now require their students to get real world training by way of supervised theological field education This volume presents the wide array of issues that must be understood in order to integrate theological education and practical ministry including the importance of theological field education its purpose and challenges the need for flexibility in meeting different students needs and the resources available to create a meaningful and educational experience Christian Politics in Oceania Matt Tomlinson, Debra L. McDougall, 2013 The phrase Christian politics evokes two meanings political relations between denominations in one direction and the contributions of Christian churches to debates about the governing of society The contributors to this volume address Christian politics in both senses and argue that Christianity is always and inevitably political in the Pacific Islands Drawing on ethnographic and historical research in Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu and Fiji the authors argue that Christianity and politics have redefined each other in much of Oceania in ways that make the two categories inseparable at any level of analysis The individual chapters vividly illuminate the ways in which Christian politics operate across a wide scale from interpersonal relations to national and global interconnections
