Women And Slavery In Africa Social History Of Africa:

Women and Slavery in Africa Claire C. Robertson, 1983 Women and Slavery: Africa, the Indian Ocean world, and the medieval north Atlantic Gwyn Campbell, Suzanne Miers, Joseph Calder Miller, 2007 The particular experience of enslaved women across different cultures and many different eras is the focus of this work Slavery and African Life Patrick Manning, 1990-09-28 This book summarizes a wide range of recent literature on slavery for all of tropical Africa

Women and Slavery in Africa Claire C. Robertson, Martin A. Klein, 1997 Most slaves in sub Saharan African were women With that introductory and revolutionary sentence Robertson and Klein redefined much of the social and economic history of Africa Africa and the Africans in the Nineteenth Century: A Turbulent History Catherine Coquery-Vidrovitch, Mary Baker, 2015-02-12 Most histories seek to understand modern Africa as a troubled outcome of nineteenth century European colonialism but that is only a small part of the story In this celebrated book beautifully translated from the French edition the history of Africa in the nineteenth century unfolds from the perspective of Africans themselves rather than the European powers It was above all a time of tremendous internal change on the African continent Great jihads of Muslim conquest and conversion swept over West Africa In the interior warlords competed to control the internal slave trade In the east the sultanate of Zanzibar extended its reach via coastal and interior trade routes In the north Egypt began to modernize while Algeria was colonized In the south a series of forced migrations accelerated spurred by the progression of white settlement Through much of the century African societies assimilated and adapted to the changes generated by these diverse forces In the end the West s technological advantage prevailed and most of Africa fell under European control and lost its independence Yet only by taking into account the rich complexity of this tumultuous past can we fully understand modern Africa from the colonial period to independence and the difficulties of today Women in Sub-Saharan Africa Iris Berger, E. Frances White, 1999-06-22 These four volumes in this major series provide a single source reference to the status of the field of women s history and to ways that the field can be expanded A basic set for all academic libraries Library Journal Academic Newswire Berger and White focus on Sub Saharan Africa tracing women s history from earliest times to the present By exploring their place in social economic political and religious life the authors highlight the changing societal position of women through shifts over time in ideas about gender and the connections between women s public and private spheres A Companion to African History William H. Worger, Charles Ambler, Nwando Achebe, 2018-11-28 Covers the history of the entire African continent from prehistory to the present day A Companion to African History embraces the diverse regions subject matter and disciplines of the African continent while also providing chronological and geographical coverage of basic historical developments Two dozen essays by leading international scholars explore the challenges facing this relatively new field of historical enquiry and present the dynamic ways in which historians and scholars from other fields such as archaeology anthropology political science and economics are forging new directions in thinking and research

Comprised of six parts the book begins with thematic approaches to African history exploring the environment gender and family medical practices and more Section two covers Africa's early history and its pre colonial past early human adaptation the emergence of kingdoms royal power and warring states The third section looks at the era of the slave trade and European expansion Part four examines the process of conquest the discovery of diamonds and gold military and social response and more Colonialism is discussed in the sixth section with chapters on the economy transformed due to the development of agriculture and mining industries The last section studies the continent from post World War II all the way up to modern times Aims at capturing the enthusiasms of practicing historians and encouraging similar passion in a new generation of scholars Emphasizes linkages within Africa as well as between the continent and other parts of the world All chapters include significant historiographical content and suggestions for further reading Written by a global team of writers with unique backgrounds and views Features case studies with illustrative examples In a field traditionally marked by narrow specialisms A Companion to African History is an ideal book for advanced students researchers historians and scholars looking for a broad yet unique overview of African history as a whole

The Atlantic Slave Trade Jeremy Black, 2017-11-30 Covering the Atlantic slave trade from its origins to 1600 the essays in this collection look at the reasons for the causes of slavery and serfdom slavery in Africa the development of the slave trade the demographic situation in Latin America and European attitudes to slavery as an institution

Pre-Colonial Africa in Colonial African Narratives Donald R. Wehrs, 2016-04-08 In his study of the origins of political reflection in twentieth century African fiction Donald Wehrs examines a neglected but important body of African texts written in colonial English and French and indigenous Hausa and Yoruba languages He explores pioneering narrative representations of pre colonial African history and society in seven texts Casely Hayford's Ethiopia Unbound 1911 Alhaji Sir Abubaker Tafawa Balewa's Shaihu Umar 1934 Paul Hazoum's Doguiçimi 1938 D O Fagunwa's Forest of a Thousand Daemons 1938 Amos Tutuola's The Palm Wine Drinkard 1952 and My Life in the Bush of Ghosts 1954 and Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart 1958 Wehrs highlights the role of pre colonial political economies and articulations of state power on colonial era considerations of ethical and political issues and is attentive to the gendered implications of texts and authorial choices By positioning Things Fall Apart as the culmination of a tradition rather than as its inaugural work he also reconfigures how we think of African fiction His book supplements recent work on the importance of indigenous contexts and discourses in situating colonial era narratives and will inspire fresh methodological strategies for studying the continent from a multiplicity of perspectives

The End of Slavery in Africa and the Americas Ulrike Schmieder, Katja Füllberg-Stolberg, Michael Zeuske, 2011 For centuries social and economic relations within the Atlantic space were dominated by slavery and the transatlantic slave trade from Africa to the Americas By the slowly and arduously achieved end of this trade slave labour in the Americas was replaced in many cases by other forms of coerced labour of African Caribbean people or Indian Chinese African or European immigrants This book focuses on the transformation of societies after the slave trade and slavery in a comparative intercontinental perspective It combines micro and macro historical approaches and looks at the agency of slaves missionaries abolitionists state officials seamen and soldiers

Gender and Slave Emancipation in the Atlantic World Pamela Scully,Diana Paton,2005-10-04 A comparative perspective on the way ideas of gender relations and identities shaped the struggle over resources cultural practices and political rights that followed the end of slavery in the Atlantic world Rethinking South Africa's Past Christopher J. Lee,Andrew Offenburger,2025-03-18 This book presents key historical scholarship published in Safundi from 1999 to 2024 tracing South Africa s past through approaches of comparative history transnational history and visual history in addition to addressing the importance of topics like gender labor and class dynamics as well as regional historiographies The first section of the book focuses on comparative history as a founding method for Safundi given the journal s origins in American and South African studies while also recalibrating this approach through a variety of topics cities biographies and practices of violence rather than nation states writ large Drawing upon innovative sources of evidence the second section moves beyond the comparative method to address transnational histories as a new narrative technique for storytelling and analysis Whether issues of education immigration or visiting musicians to South Africa these chapters demonstrate the importance of a post national approach for understanding the past The sections that follow fan out into other subject areas including the uses of visual history gender roles class cultures and environmental history all of which illuminate connections between South African history and other parts of the world This book will be an indispensable resource for scholars students activists and policymakers as well as those readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa s complex history over the past several centuries

Movements, Borders, and Identities in Africa Toyin Falola,Aribidesi Adisa Usman,2009 Migration has become a continuous phenomenon in the history of human societies Migration is synonymous with the history of Africa itself The migration of individuals and groups over time is associated with the emergence of cultures and of civilizations throughout the world This book establishes the centrality of migrations and movements of people in the historical evolution of African peoples and societies By making use of different sources oral archaeological and written and focusing on various subjects and geographical areas the book shows that migration was a multifaceted phenomenon which varied in nature and character over time and in different places Using carefully selected case studies drawn from across the continent the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations and the varying impact of slavery commerce gender religion colonialism poverty and development on the movements of people and ideas and on the development of states and societies on the continent most especially in the last two centuries The chapters are based on original research and recent thinking on migrations in Africa and their changing forms and dynamics since the pre colonial period The various topics addressed include the causes and consequences of migration population movements displacements migration experiences settlement patterns and strategies labor mobility immigrant societies identity and culture contact as well as conceptual and methodological aspects of research on migration The contributors represent scholars from diverse fields with extensive teaching and research experience Thus the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations from Preface and Introduction

The Children of Africa in the Colonies Melanie J. Newton, 2008-06-01 How emancipation transformed social and political relations in Barbados When a small group of free men of color gathered in 1838 to celebrate the end of apprenticeship in Barbados they spoke of emancipation as the moment of freedom for all colored people not just the former slaves The fact that many of these men had owned slaves themselves gives a hollow ring to their lofty pronouncements Yet in The Children of Africa in the Colonies Melanie J Newton demonstrates that simply dismissing these men as hypocrites ignores the complexity of their relationship to slavery Exploring the role of free blacks in Barbados from 1790 to 1860 Newton argues that the emancipation process transformed social relations between Afro Barbadians and slaves and ex slaves Free people of color in Barbados genuinely wanted slavery to end Newton explains a desire motivated in part by the realization that emancipation offered them significant political advantages As a result free people's goals for the civil rights struggle that began in Barbados in the 1790s often diverged from those of the slaves and the tensions that formed along class education and gender lines severely weakened the movement While the populist masses viewed emancipation as an opportunity to form a united community among all people of color wealthy free people viewed it as a chance to better their position relative to white Europeans To this end free people of color refashioned their identities in relationship to Africa Prior to the 1820s Newton reveals they downplayed their African descent emphasizing instead their legal status as free people and their position as owners of property including slaves As the emancipation debate in the Atlantic world reached its zenith in the 1820s and 1830s and whites grew increasingly hostile and inflexible elite free people allied themselves with the politics of the working class and the slaves relying for the first time on their African heritage and the association of their skin color with slavery to openly challenge white supremacy After emancipation free people of color again redefined themselves now as loyal British imperial subjects casting themselves in the role of political protectors of their ex slave brethren in an attempt to escape social and political disenfranchisement While some wealthy men of color gained political influence as a result of emancipation the absence of fundamental change in the distribution of land and wealth left most men and women of color with little hope of political independence or social mobility Mining a rich vein of primary and secondary sources Newton's study elegantly describes how class divisions and disagreements over labor and social policy among free and slave black Barbadians led to political unrest and devastated the hope for an entirely new social structure and a plebeian majority in the British Caribbean

Labour and Living Standards in Pre-Colonial West Africa Klas Rönnbäck, 2015-11-19 Sub Saharan Africa is the poorest region in the world But its current status has skewed our understanding of the economy before colonization Rönnbäck reconstructs the living standards of the population at a time when the Atlantic slave trade brought money and men into the area enriching our understanding of West African economic development

Identity in the Shadow of Slavery Paul E. Lovejoy, 2000-09-13 Addresses issues relating to the gender ethnic and cultural factors through which enslaved Africans and their descendents interpreted their lives under slavery thereby creating communities with a shared sense of identity The focus of the book is on the ways in which identities were formulated under slavery and the ways in which the struggle to escape slavery and its legacy continued to affect the lives of descendents of slaves The introductory essay explores an approach to the study of the African diaspora that looks outward from Africa and places the following chapters written by leading authorities from Europe and North and South America in the context of the theoretical literature

African Voices on Slavery and the Slave Trade Alice Bellagamba, Sandra E. Greene, Martin A. Klein, 2016-04-14 Explores how to use different types of sources to write the history of slavery and the slave trade in Africa The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune women's and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike The Cambridge World History of Slavery: Volume 3, AD 1420-AD 1804 David Eltis, Stanley L. Engerman, Keith R. Bradley, Paul Cartledge, Seymour Drescher, 2011-07-25 The various manifestations of coerced labour between the opening up of the Atlantic world and the formal creation of Haiti Respacing Africa Ulf Engel, Paul Nugent, 2010 Space has been reintroduced as an analytical category to the humanities and social sciences in the early 1990s African Studies is one of the fields of knowledge production where the so called spatial turn has proved to be extremely fruitful The continent provides ample evidence for complex processes of deterritorialisation migration globalisation sub nationalisms and reterritorialisation new regionalisms processes of bordering etc These dialectical processes are driven by a variety of actors political elites multinational companies warlords donor governments local traders international NGOs etc As a result substantial parts of Africa witness the emergence of new regimes of territoriality re ordered states transnational and sub national entities new localities and transborder formations This volume brings together contributions from anthropology history geography and political science
