Women Work And Islamism Ideology And Resistance In Iran:

Women, Work and Islamism Maryam Poya, 1999 Based on original research into women's participation in the workforce this book is the most up to date study of women in Iran available The Islamisation of state and society which followed the 1979 revolution involved an attempt by the Islamic state to seclude women within the home However the power of the state was constrained by many factors the Iran Iraq war economic restructuring and women's own responses to oppression In spite of continual attempts by the state to strengthen patriarchal relationships women's participation in the labour force in 1999 is greater than it was before the revolution Women's participation in both the economy and in political movements has led to a much greater level of gender consciousness in the 1990s than at the height of westernisation in the 1960s and 70s Religious and secular women in urban areas have demanded reforms and forced the Islamic state to return to the position of the pre 1979 reforms Providing a history of Iran an introduction to Islamism and an analysis of the women and Islam debate this book will be necessary reading for students and academics of Middle East studies women's studies and labour studies

Women, Work and Islamism Elaheh Rostami-Povey, 2011-03-01 This work explores Islamism in practice and looks at the influence of state economy and religion on women in Iran Drawing on original research into women's participation in the workforce the author shows how the Islamization of state and society which followed the 1979 revolution involved an attempt by the Islamic state to seclude women within the home Its power to transform gender relations however was constrained by many factors the Iran Iraq war economic restructuring and women's own responses to oppression Despite continual state attempts to strengthen patriarchal relationships throughout society and to maintain a rigid sexual division of labour women's participation in the labour force in 1999 is greater than it was before the revolution and gender consciousness is at a higher level than at the height of westernization in the 1960s and 70s Religious and secular women in urban areas have allied to demand reforms and forced the Islamic state to return to the position of the pre 1979 reforms in relation to women and the family

Women and Politics in the Islamic Republic of Iran Sanam Vakil, 2011-04-21

Women, Islam and Education in Iran Goli M. Rezai-Rashti, Golnar Mehran, Shirin Abdmolaei, 2019-02-21 Drawing on the complexities and nuances in women's education in relation to the aftermath of the 1979 Iranian Revolution this edited collection examines implications of religious based policies on gender relations as well as the unanticipated outcomes of increasing participation of women in education With a focus on the impact of the Islamic Republic's Islamicization endeavor on Iranian society specifically gender relations and education this volume offers insight into the paradox of increasing educational opportunities despite discriminatory laws and restrictions that have been imposed on women

The Politics of Women's Rights in Iran Arzoo Osanloo, 2009-03-29 Osanloo Arzoo presents an ethnographic study that explores how conceptions of liberal entitlements fused with a discourse of equality in Islam in the post revolutionary era to inform shape women's perceptions of rights examines the women's movement in Iran and its role in contesting gender relations since the 1979 revolution. Looking at examples from politics, law, employment, environment, media, and religion, and the struggle for democracy, this book demonstrates how material conditions have important social and political consequences for the lives of women in Iran and exposes the need to challenge the dominant theoretical perspectives on gender and Islam. A truly fascinating insider's look at the experiences of Iranian women as academics, political and civil society activists, this book counters the often inaccurate and misleading stereotyping of Iranian women to present a vibrant and diverse picture of these women's lives. A welcome and unique addition to the vibrant and growing literature on women, Islam, development, democracy, and feminisms.

Explaining Women's Employment Under the Islamic State in Iran Maryam Poya, 1998 Women and Fluid Identities H. Afshar, 2012-11-27 This book argues that it is the fluidity of women's identities that enables them to bridge the gender divides and roles ascribed to them by society and culture with those that they have chosen for themselves whilst retaining a sense of their self.

Modernizing Women Valentine M. Moghadam, 2003 Extrait de la préface The subject of this study is social change in the Middle East, North Africa, and Afghanistan, its impact on women's legal status and social positions, and women's varied responses to and involvement in change processes. It also deals with constructions of gender during periods of social and political change. Social change is usually described in terms of modernization, revolution, cultural challenges, and social movements. Much of the standard literature on these topics does not examine women or gender, and thus the author hopes this study will contribute to an appreciation of the significance of gender in the midst of change. Neither are there many sociological studies on MENA and Afghanistan or studies on women in MENA and Afghanistan from a sociological perspective. Myths and stereotypes abound regarding women, Islam, and the region, and the events of September 11 and since have only compounded them. This book is intended in part to normalize the Middle East by underscoring the salience of structural determinants other than religion. It focuses on the major social change processes in the region to show how women's lives are shaped not only by Islam and culture but also by economic development, the state, class, location, and the world system. Why the focus on women? It is the author's contention that middle-class women are consciously and unconsciously major agents of social change in the region, at the vanguard of movements for modernity, democratization, and citizenship.

Homogenization, Gender and Everyday Life in Pre- and Trans-modern Iran Leila Papoli-Yazdi, Maryam Dezhmakhoo, 2021 Homogenization, Gender and Everyday Life in Pre and Trans-modern Iran: An Archaeological Reading is actually an effort to investigate the interaction of power, structure, and gender in the context of everyday life in Iran in the 19th and early 20th centuries. The book pursues two main goals: situating gender in Iranian archaeology and calling for more consideration to daily life in archaeological gender researches. Drawing on a wide range of material culture, textual evidence, statistics, and oral accounts, all chapters render the reconstruction of the everyday life of ordinary people. Events like parties and ceremonies, marriage and kinship, sexual practices, dress codes, and even eating and drinking were gently regulated by the surveillance state Accordingly the term homogenization in the book's title refers to the policies of the Pahlavi government the first Iranian modern centralized state In this way the book seeks to understand the process of gender and sexual transformation of Iranian society the process which resulted in the production of deviants and negative gender and sexual lives Being the first archaeological research on gender by native archaeologists the authors state the fact that this book investigates the politics of gender while many other aspects of gender remain still uninvestigated Leila Papoli Yazdi Researcher Department of Historical Studies at the University of Gothenburg Sweden Women and Media in the Middle East Naomi Sakr, 2004-09-24 Is today's changing media landscape in the Middle East empowering women This is the first book to address the dynamics of media ecology and women's advancement in the contemporary Middle East The book spans both the region and media forms from Iran's women's press via Maghrebi women filmmakers and Egyptian political films Palestinian TV and Hezbollah's TV station Al Manar It takes as its starting point the diverse experiences and multi-layered identities of women and treats media institutions and practices as part of wider power relations in society By analysing media production consumption and texts it reveals where and how gender boundaries have been erected or crossed

Performing Islam Azam Torab,2007 Performing Islam focuses on a wide spectrum of ritual activities in Iran today as a key for elucidating social cultural and political processes but in particular the values and beliefs underpinning gender constructions in a rapidly changing complex society Iranian Women and Gender in the Iran-Iraq War Mateo Mohammad Farzaneh,2021-02-22 Eighteen months after Iran s Islamic Revolution in 1979 hundreds of thousands of the country s women participated in the Iran Iraq War 1980 88 in a variety of capacities Iran was divided into women of conservative religious backgrounds who supported the revolution and accepted some of the theocratic regime s depictions of gender roles and liberal women more active in civil society before the revolution who challenged the state s male dominated gender bias However both groups were integral to the war effort serving as journalists paramedics combatants intelligence officers medical instructors and propagandists Behind the frontlines women were drivers surgeons fundraisers and community organizers The war provided women of all social classes the opportunity to assert their role in society and in doing so they refused to be marginalized Despite their significant contributions women are largely absent from studies on the war Drawing upon primary sources such as memoirs wills interviews print media coverage and oral histories Farzaneh chronicles in copious detail women s participation on the battlefield in the household and everywhere in between Key Themes for the Study of Islam Jamal J. Elias,2014-10-01 Key Themes for the Study of Islam examines the central themes and concepts indispensable to an informed understanding of Islamic religion and society From Gender and History to Prayer and Prophecy each authoritative chapter focuses on a single aspect of the religion and presents a critical discussion written by a world expert in that field Exposing as false the idea that Islam and Muslims are incomprehensible to Western culture this book will become the first choice for students and experts in religion from disparate fields who wish to know how Islam relates to vital concepts in religion and society today Soaring Beyond Boundaries Reitumetse Obakeng Mabokela,2007 Given what we already know about the position of women in the academy what is so significant about the account of women represented in this book Lessons from colleagues in Western universities provide important models for understanding some aspects of gendered identity of women scholars however a deeper understanding of educational experiences for women in countries such as China Turkey Iran Pakistan may potentially offer innovative insights to our current understanding of gender within education Tourism in Iran Siamak Seyfi,C. Michael Hall,2018-10-11 Iran has long been regarded as an international

pariah state in some parts of the international community However its negative image in many countries disguises its history of tourism and rich cultural and natural heritage Following the July 2015 nuclear deal and the reduction in sanctions Iran is focusing on international tourism as a means to generate economic growth in addition to its substantial domestic tourism market Given the significance of tourism in the Middle East and in international politics as well as restrictions on international mobility this volume brings together the first contemporary collection of research on tourism in Iran Written by experts based both within and outside of Iran the chapters engage with a number of crucial issues including the importance of religion the role of women in society sustaining Iran s cultural heritage Iran s image and the resistive economy to provide a benchmark assessment of tourism and its potential future in a troubled political environment The book will undoubtedly be of interest not only to those readers who focus specifically on Iran but also those who seek a wider understanding of Iran s role in the region and how tourism is utilised as part of national and regional economic development policies
