Corpus Approaches to the Language of Sports Marcus Callies,Magnus Levin,2019-09-19 Recent decades have seen a fundamental change and transformation in the commercialisation and popularisation of sports and sporting events Corpus Approaches to the Language of Sports uses corpus resources to offer new perspectives on the language and discourse of this increasingly popular and culturally significant area of research Bringing together a range of empirical studies from leading scholars this book bridges the gap between quantitative corpus approaches and more qualitative multimodal discourse methods Covering a wide range of sports including football cycling and basketball the linguistic aspects of sports language are analysed across different genres and contexts Highlighting the importance of studying the language of sports alongside its accompanying audio visual modes of communication chapters draw on new digitised collections of language to fully describe and understand the complexities of communication through various channels In doing so Corpus Approaches to the Language of Sports not only offers exciting new insights into the language of sports but also extends the scope of corpus linguistics beyond traditional monomodal approaches to put multimodality firmly on the agenda Corpus Stylistics in

Heart of Darkness and its Italian Translations Lorenzo Mastropierro,2017-11-16 This book explores the interaction between corpus stylistics and translation studies It shows how corpus methods can be used to compare literary texts to their translations through the analysis of Joseph Conrad s Heart of Darkness and four of its Italian translations The comparison focuses on stylistic features related to the major themes of Heart of Darkness By combining quantitative and qualitative techniques Mastropierro discusses how alterations to the original s stylistic features can affect the interpretation of the themes in translation The discussion illuminates the manipulative effects that translating can have on the reception of a text showing how textual alterations can trigger different readings This book advances the multidisciplinary dialogue between corpus linguistics and translation studies and is a valuable resource for students and researchers interested in the application of corpus approaches to stylistics and translation Historical Corpus Stylistics Patrick Studer,2014-02-25

This book analyzes how news discourse was shaped over time by external factors such as the historical context news production technological innovation and current affairs and as such both conformed to and deviated from generic conventions Using data from a newspaper corpus it offers the first empirical study into the development of style in early mass media In this analysis media style appears as a dynamic concept which is highly sensitive to innovative approaches towards making news not only informative but also entertaining to read This cutting edge survey will be of interest to academics researching corpus linguistics media discourse and stylistics Multimodality and Active Listenership Dawn

Knight,2011-10-13 Current corpora are invaluable resources for generating accurate and objective analyses of patterns of language use However spoken corpora are effectively mono modal presenting data in the same physical medium text The reality of a discourse situation is lost in its representation as text Using multimodal data sets when conducting corpus based pragmatic analyses is one solution This book looks at multimodal corpora in some depth using backchanneling as the conversational feature to be analysed It provides a bottom up investigation of the issues and challenges faced at every stage of multimodal corpus construction and analysis as well as providing an in depth linguistic analysis of a cross section of multimodal corpus data The collaborative and co operative nature of backchannels is highlighted in this book and an adapted pragmatic functional linguistic coding matrix for the characterisation of backchanneling phenomena is presented Dawn Knight also looks at possible directions in the construction and use of multimodal corpus linguistics

Corpus Linguistics and 17th-Century Prostitution Anthony McEnery, Helen Baker, 2016-12-01 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Corpus linguistics has much to offer history being as both disciplines engage so heavily in analysis of large amounts of textual material This book demonstrates the opportunities for exploring corpus linguistics as a method in historiography and the humanities and social sciences more generally Focussing on the topic of prostitution in 17th century England it shows how corpus methods can assist in social research and can be used to deepen our understanding and comprehension McEnery and Baker draw principally on two sources the newsbook Mercurius Fumigosis and the Early English Books Online Corpus This scholarship on prostitution and the sex trade offers insight into the social position of women in history

Evaluation and Stance in War News Louann Haarman, Linda Lombardo, 2011-10-20 In a world in which advanced communication technologies have made the reporting of disasters and conflicts also in the form of breaking news a familiar and normalised activity the information we present here about television news reporting of the 2003 war in Iraq has implications that go beyond this particular conflict Evaluation and Stance in War News functions as a tool kit for the critical evaluation of language in the news both as raw data in need of interpretation and as carefully packaged products of information management in need of unpacking The chapters offer an array of theoretical and empirical instruments for revealing identifying sifting weighing and connecting patterns of language use that construct messages These messages carry with them world views and value systems that can either create an ever wider divide or serve to build bridges between peoples and countries

Evaluation in Media Discourse Monika Bednarek, 2008-11-01 Evaluation is the linguistic expression of speaker writer opinion and has only recently become the focus of linguistic analysis This book presents the first corpus based account of evaluation one hundred newspaper articles collated to form a 70 000 word comparable corpus drawn from both tabloid and broadsheet media The book provides detailed explanations and justifications of the underlying framework of evaluation as well as demonstrating how this is part of the larger framework of media discourse Unlike many other linguistic analyses of media language it makes frequent reference to the production circumstances of newspaper discourse in particular the so called news values that shape the creation of the news Cutting edge and insightful Evaluation in Media Discourse will be of interest to academics and researchers in corpus linguistics and media discourse

Corpus Linguistics in Literary Analysis Bettina Fischer-Starcke, 2010-08-26 Corpus Linguistics and The Study of Literature provides a theoretical introduction to corpus stylistics and also demonstrates its application by presenting corpus stylistic analyses of literary texts and corpora The first part of the book addresses theoretical issues such as the relationship between subjectivity and objectivity in corpus linguistic analyses criteria for the evaluation of results from corpus linguistic analyses and also discusses units of meaning in language The second part of the book takes this theory and applies it to Northanger Abbey by Jane Austen and to two corpora consisting of Austen's six novels and texts that are contemporary with Austen The analyses demonstrate the impact of various features of text on literary meanings and how corpus tools can extract new critical angles This book will be a key read for upper level undergraduates and postgraduates working in corpus linguistics and in stylistics on linguistics and language studies courses The editorial board includes Paul Baker Lancaster Frantisek Cermak Prague Susan Conrad Portland Geoffrey Leech Lancaster Dominique Maingueneau Paris XII Christian Mair Freiburg Alan Partington Bologna Elena Tognini Bonelli Siena and TWC Ruth Wodak Lancaster and Feng Zhiwei Beijing The Corpus and Discourse series consists of two strands The first Research in Corpus and Discourse features innovative contributions to various aspects of corpus linguistics and a wide range of applications from language technology via the teaching of a second language to a history of mentalities The second strand Studies in Corpus and Discourse is comprised of key texts bridging the gap between social studies and linguistics Although equally academically rigorous this strand will be aimed at a wider audience of academics and postgraduate students working in both disciplines
