Emergency Items Catalogue, 3rd edition, Volume 1 , Books Out-of-print ,1986 Organizing Global Technology Flows Pierre-Yves Donzé, Shigehiro Nishimura, 2013-11-12 Research on the international transfer of technology in economics and management literature has primarily focused on the role of countries and that of companies in particular multinational enterprises MNEs Similarly economic and business historians have tended to view international technology transfer as a way for economically backward countries to acquire new technologies in order to catch up with more developed economies This volume provides a more in depth understanding of how the international transfer of technologies is organized and in particular challenges the core periphery model that is still dominant in the extant literature By looking beyond national systems of innovation and statistics on foreign trade patent registration and foreign direct investment the book sheds more light on the variety of actors involved in the transfer process including engineers entrepreneurs governments public bodies firms etc and on how they make use of a broad set of national and international institutions facilitating technology transfer Put differently the volume offers a better understanding of the complexity of global technology flows by examining the role and actions of the different actors involved By bringing together a number of original case studies covering many different countries over the period from the late 19th to the 21st century the book demonstrates how technology is being transferred through complex processes involving a variety of actors from several countries using the national and international institutional frameworks Manuals Combined: DoD Security Engineering Facilities Planning; Design Guide For Physical Security Of Buildings; Antiterrorism Standards For Buildings And Specifications For Active Vehicle Barriers , Over 1 600 total pages Application and Use Commanders security and antiterrorism personnel planners and other members of project planning teams will use this to establish project specific design criteria for DoD facilities estimate the costs for implementing those criteria and evaluating both the design criteria and the options for implementing it The design criteria and costs will be incorporated into project programming documents MotorBoating , 2009-06

Outdoor Recreation David Huddart, Tim Stott, 2019-10-25 This textbook presents a comprehensive overview of the environmental impacts of various types of outdoor recreation and how these can be best managed As a field of study recreational ecology is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary and the authors seek to develop a deeper understanding of both the role and function of the factors that influence visitor numbers and their impact An accessible and comprehensive textbook it features numerous types of outdoor recreational activities including hill walking rock climbing mountain marathons skiing scuba diving and more Drawn from several global case studies the authors estimate the current and future numbers involved in outdoor recreation and how best these numbers can be managed Effective visitor impact management actions arise from collaboration between recreation ecologists social scientists experienced recreation managers recreation stakeholders and the recreationalists themselves as such this book will be multi disciplinary in scope This practical and engaging textbook will be invaluable to students and scholars of outdoor recreation and adventure tourism as well as practitioners and managers working in the field Ethics in Marketing and Communications M. McKinley, 2011-12-13 This book takes an international perspective on the topical issues of marketing ethics and ethical communications The contributors are professors of business in various European institutions who bring their international background and experience to this body of work Sports Car Market magazine - February 2009 , Runways & Racers Terry O'Neil, 2011 Runways and Racers focuses on sports car races held at military installations throughout America in the early 1950s It was a marriage of convenience for the Sports Car Club of America and the Strategic Air Command with both parties gaining advantages from the arrangement The thorn in the side turned out to be a Congressman whose own aspirations exceeded his standing but who found himself in a position to be able to influence the outcome of events Federal Register , 2012
