Using Scripture In Pastoral Counseling:

Using Scripture in Pastoral Counseling Edward P. Wimberly, 1994 Drawing on narrative biblical criticism and the psychology of narrative the book suggests a model for pastoral counseling using Scripture to explore and release human possibilities

Counseling John F. MacArthur, Wayne A. Mack, Master's College Faculty, 2017-03-07 Gain a knowledge of counseling methods that are practical and consistent with Christian theological convictions What do the Scriptures say about counseling What is the biblical basis for using Scriptures in counseling What does it mean to think biblically about counseling related issues At the root of this book is the confidence that Christ and his Word are not only sufficient for effectively handling the personal and interpersonal challenges of life but are superior to the resources found in the world The practice of psychological counseling is a ministry and should not belong only to the realm of humanistic and secular theories of the mind Written to pastors elders deacons seminary students and laypeople well known pastor John MacArthur and contributors present a system of biblical truth that brings together people their problems and the living God This kind of counseling is based on the convictions that God's Word should be our counseling authority Counseling is a part of the basic discipling ministry of the local church God's people can and should be trained to counsel effectively Counseling How to Counsel Biblically provides biblical guidelines to counsel people who are struggling The contributors represent some of America's leading biblical teachers and counselors including Ken L Sarles David Powlison Douglas Bookman David B Maddox Robert Smith William W Goode and Dennis M Swanson

Clinical Handbook of Pastoral Counseling Robert J. Wicks, Richard D. Parsons, Donald Capps, 2003 Building on the groundbreaking original work with the same title these articles focus on current issues such as certain life stages special populations the devalued and abused the addicted and special issues of the 1990's

The Use of Scripture in Counseling Jay E Adams, 2024-03-24 The Bible is the only textbook believers need to help counselees with their problems Jay Adams explains why this bold statement is not only true but gives hope to both the counselor and his counselee Here he outlines the basis and purpose for using the Scriptures in counseling and lists these goals for the Biblical counselor Understand and evaluate the counselee's problem scripturally Seek to understand the Holy Spirit's purpose telos in every Scripture passage used in counseling Strive to meet each counselee's problem with God's full solution He cautions that the goals can be achieved only by counselors who allow neither a distortion dilution nor admixture of the Biblical data to enter the counseling situation whether introduced by the counselee or the counselor's own misuse of the Scriptures Here is specific help for all who want to do truly biblical counseling As all have come to expect from the pen of Jay Adams his guidelines are clear and understandable the directions are explicit and the examples given are pointed and practical

Transformative Encounters David W. Appleby, George Ohlschlager, 2013-07-12 What would it mean for Christian counseling and pastoral care to take seriously the idea that God intervenes in the world In this volume more than twenty of the best pastoral counselors clinicians and counselor educators introduce us to the models that they use to integrate the Scriptures and the work of the Holy Spirit into their daily practice Biblical Approaches to Pastoral Counseling Donald Capps, 2003-01-17 What role should the Bible play in pastoral counseling Donald Capps here explores the use of the Bible in counseling and shows how the methods and objectives of counseling can be defined and shaped by three biblical forms psalms proverbs and parables Applying these forms Capps demonstrates how the Bible can influence the three major types of pastoral counseling grief premarital and marriage He examines the capacity of these forms to comfort to instruct and to diagnose problems He explains how through psalms feelings can be vented through proverbs moral learning can take place and through parables new understandings of experience can occur With actual case study examples and practical suggestions this refreshingly perceptive book offers positive steps for furthering dialogue between biblical scholarship and pastoral counseling Scripture and Counseling Bob Kelleman, 2014-10-07 What role does Scripture play in counseling Today we face a weakening of confidence in the Bible This is just as true for the pastor offering counsel in his office as it is for the person in the pew talking with a struggling friend We need to regain our confidence in God's living Word as sufficient to address the real life issues we face today Scripture and Counseling will help you understand how the Bible equips us to grow in counseling competence as we use it to tackle the complex issues of life Divided into two sections Part One develops a robust biblical view of Scripture's sufficiency for life and godliness leading to increased confidence in God's Word Part Two teaches how to use Scripture in the counseling process This section demonstrates how a firm grasp of the sufficiency of Scripture leads to increased competence in the ancient art of personally ministering God's Word to others Part of the Biblical Counseling Coalition series Scripture and Counseling brings you the wisdom of twenty ministry leaders who write so you can have confidence that God's Word is sufficient necessary and relevant to equip God's people to address the complex issues of life in a broken world It blends theological wisdom with practical expertise and is accessible to pastors church leaders counseling practitioners and students equipping them to minister the truth and power of God's word in the context of biblical counseling soul care spiritual direction pastoral care and small group facilitation Biblical Counseling and the Church Bob Kelleman, 2015-11-03 As people face addictions deal with loss and grief and seek help in restoring broken relationships where can they turn for counsel and assistance The local church has been uniquely blessed with the gift of the gospel and is able to offer hope and counsel that no other institution on earth can In Biblical Counseling and the Church Bob Kelleman and Kevin Carson have assembled over twenty respected ministry leaders who examine the relationship between counseling and the church This comprehensive resource part of the Biblical Counseling Coalition series helps leaders and counselors develop a vision that goes beyond being a church with a biblical counseling ministry to becoming a church of biblical counseling a church culture that is saturated by one another ministry Divided into five parts Biblical Counseling and the Church will help church leaders Unite the pulpit ministry of preaching the Word with the personal ministry of the Word in counseling Offer practical and theological training to equip counselors Launch and lead a counseling ministry regardless of the size of your church Bring together the relational focus of small group ministry with the ministry of care and counseling Better understand the relationship between biblical counseling church discipline and conflict resolution Learn how to use counseling in outreach through missional biblical counseling moving biblical counseling beyond the doors of the church and into the world

Using Scripture in the Grief Process Willie L. Johnson, 2010-02-01 The Hilltop United Methodist Church of Columbus Ohio directly inspired this project because of the significant loss of elderly membership The elderly were dying at an alarming rate It became necessary to aid the church with grief counseling Many members of the church were still grieving over lost loved ones and needed healing to move on with their lives church life and private life The author and context associates agreed on the design and implementation of the model to be used for grief healing The methodology to be used was a tool for pastoral counseling and focused on grief issues The design and implementation included seven sermons five lectures and three interviews Pre and post questionnaires were distributed before and after each sermon After each lecture time was allotted for questions and answers Both questionnaires were used to measure responses of the listeners A final evaluation was made to determine overall effectiveness
