Wake Up and Roar H. W. Poonja, 1993-08 Wake Up and Roar Eli Jaxon-Bear, 2016-12-18 Sri H W L Poonja known to the world as Papaji introduced satsang to the West Through his student Gangaji and this book and later other students of his satsang has now spread throughout the world His radical transmission of a silent mind and the possibility of instant awakening through direct self discovery has already made a huge impact in spiritual seekers everywhere

Wake Up and Roar is an editing and ordering of his satsangs to directly impact the reader with Papaji's transmission Edited by Eli Jaxon Bear who met Papaji before he was known in the West as a mission of spreading Papaji's name and teaching to everyone Originally published in two volumes here is Papaji's landmark work with new forewords by Gangaji and Prince Ea Presented in a question and answer format Wake Up and Roar offers the reader an opportunity to awaken here and now regardless of background practice or personal circumstance Blending humor logic and eye opening storytelling Papaji extends a gracious wisdom that speaks to the earnest seeker investigating the nature of mind enlightenment and how to be in the world In Wake Up and Roar he brings comfort and encouragement to practitioners from all traditions at any stage of their inquiry into awakening Wake Up and Roar H. W. L. Poonja, 1993 Wake up Black Man and Black Woman Alpha Omega Riddick, 2010-07-08 Black people of America we need to stop reading books about thug life and street life We need to read books that will open our minds to ideas and issues that will help us and our families and the future of black generations of this country Black people of America we were here before most of the other nationalities that are here now We should be in a much better financial situation than we are in now Most of us are at the bottom or near the bottom of the economic scale as a whole We have to learn from the foreigners that stick together and open up businesses in our community Plus we have to stop giving our hard earned money to other nationalities and none to ourselves in a way we are still slaves I wrote this book to inspire Black Americans to open their eyes to the positive changes we need to make to help our families and future black generations in America This book shows how we are living compared to other nationalities in America as well as the factors that are holding us back as a whole We must remember our ancestors and the sacrifices they made when they were slaves They were the strongest people in the world and we are their descendants I feel they were superhuman beings to make that trip from Africa to America We as black Americans have that same ability in us to survive Remember we are the alpha race We need to wake up and stop hitting the snooze button May God bless this book and everyone that reads it

Cynical Hysterie Hour Vol.6 Kiriko Kubo, 2015-03-31 Kiriko Kubo's manga have a loyal following in Japan Now her debut hit series showing us the pains and delights of growing up and finding one's place in the world is available in English for the first time Tsunta has been leading a double life By day he is a quiet member of class But when he goes off to his after school abacus class in a nearby town he turns into a punk What will happen when two friends from his different worlds meet each other Will Tsunta's secret be discovered These stories of the day to day lives of a group of friends at an elementary school in Tokyo are full of delightful observations about being a child and growing up in Japan Finally all six volumes of the outstanding Cynical Hysterie Hour series appear in ebook format Green Call Nol Alempong, 2017-12-12 Green Call is a collection of forty poems Unlike most poetry written today the poems in the main reflect what has come to be known in current literary discourses as green writing Through the colour green the poet captures the splendours of natural environment and militates for global environmental protection enrichment and sustenance To the poet green is a symbol of vigour vitality exuberance freshness life health rectitude fertility and the natural world This is what is laid bare when the poet depicts landscapes exhorts people to action paints characters and reflects on life itself The poems encapsulate the fauna and flora that make the African continent stand out as an envious environmental matrix Quotes Nol Alembong has a strong predilection for African plants insects and especially animals whose members he parades with grace and felicity Professor Stella M A Johnson University of Lagos Nigeria I salute your poetic artistry great eco patriot Many more critics and researchers including myself will continue to feed on this wonderful poetic and intellectual food you are offering us Kenneth T Nsah Nsah Mala Writer and Teacher in an email to Nol Alembong posted on CAMLIT yahoogroups com February 24 2015
