The Black Muslim Manifesto Lukman,2009-05

The Black Muslim Manifesto is the compilation of over ten years of essays addressing events of historical contemporary and ideological significance Debates between the author and others who contested some of his positions form the basis of several chapters The essays not only provide Lukman s reflections on some of the most critical issues of the past decade they also include a critical analysis of American history a critique of Malcolm X a biographical sketch of Kwame Ture partly based on the author s personal relationship with him Lukman s understanding of the religion of Islam particularly as it relates to the post 9 11 world commentaries on Lebanon Sudan Gaza the ascendancy of Obama etc There are countless opinions offered concerning every topic addressed in the Manifesto however that which makes the Manifesto unique is it s uncompromising Black revolutionary Islamic perspective This is a perspective that is totally missing from the ideological discourse in America on either the left or the right The climate of fear engendered by George W s fatwa that you are either with us or you are with the terrorists has sent Muslim leadership in America scurrying behind the mantra Islam is peace The fact that Bush codified his fatwa with the Patriot Act has left this brand of leadership cowering in fear Those who wish to pass themselves off as Black leadership are no better than their Muslim counterparts The Manifesto takes the unabashed position that the Obamamania which has been signed onto by most recognized Black leadership is no more than a corporate controlled deception It is a deception designed for international as well as domestic consumption The American ruling class is faced with the browning of America They are also confronted with an increasingly non white anti American global population According to the Manifesto Obamaism represents the apotheosis of neo colonialism Are the views expressed in the two preceding paragraphs controversial Of course they are and they are reflective of the spirit of the book That is precisely what makes the Manifesto unique The uniqueness of the book is part of the appeal of the Manifesto An embattled Muslim world will find a voice in the Western Hemisphere who champions their cause Followers of the teachings of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad will see that Elijah Lives in its pages Revolutionary thinkers will find a book written in the spirit of George Jackson s Blood in my Eye And of course liberals reformists accommodationists and assimilationists will be horrified But that is precisely the type of debate all intellectuals should welcome Don't Tell Me About Obama! Jackson II, 2006-01-01 Winner of the 2007 Everett Lee Hunt Award presented by the Eastern Communication Association Scripting the Black Masculine Body traces the origins of Black body politics in the United States and its contemporary manifestations in popular cultural productions From early blackface cinema through contemporary portrayals of the Black body in hip hop music and film Ronald L Jackson II examines how African American identities have been socially constructed constituted and publicly understood and argues that popular music artists and film producers often are complicit with Black body stereotypes Jackson offers a communicative perspective on body politics through a blend of social scientific and humanities approaches and offers possibilities for the liberation of the Black body from its current ineffectual and paralyzing representations Race and US Foreign Policy Mark Ledwidge, 2012-02-06 African Americans analysis of and interest in foreign affairs represents a rich and dynamic legacy and this work provides a cutting edge insight into this neglected aspect of US foreign affairs In addition to extending the parameters of US foreign policy literature to include race and ethnicity the book documents case specific analyses of the evolutionary development of the African American foreign affairs network AAFAN Whilst the examination of race in regard to the construction of US foreign policy is significant this book also provides a cross disciplinary approach which utilises historical and political science methods to paint a more realistic appraisal of US foreign policy Including analysis of original archival evidence this theoretically informed work seeks to transcend the standard mono disciplinary approach which overestimates the separation between domestic and foreign affairs The unique approach of this work will add an important dimension to a newly emerging field and will be of interest to scholars in ethnic and racial studies American politics US foreign policy and US history Saving the African-American from Cradle to Grave Riccardo V. From Plight to Promise Raymond Head, 2022-01-14 From Plight to Promise is interest evoking conviction inspiring and a powerfully irrefutable read It will introduce to some and enhance for others the knowledge and understanding of a fundamental culture which was designed to give meaning to reality That s our amazing story as a people and within our story is his story and From Plight to Promise tells that compelling story Acknowledging that our unique experience with its many triumphs and tragedies is still the embodiment of totality Because of history s profound disdain for people of color he wanted his children to know and understand that in reality there is only one race the human race which has been proven to have originated in Afrika He exposed his children to our amazing story to bring truth to their reality and to build character by showing and teaching them the distinctive nature of their Afrikan origin More specifically he wanted children of color globally to know and understand that they are so much more than what history has told them they are From Plight to Promise is an insightful and compelling narrative intended for all people because it exposes the changeable and unchangeable nature of life circumstances but it also gives the necessary wisdom knowledge and understanding to address

Poetic Stories About the People of the Sun and of the Soul Michael Washington,2011-05-04 In the army I often wrote letters for my fellow comrades for a price They would tell me the story and I would put them in words It was a good hustle for me to make a little extra money I would write poems for their ladies or wives for special occasions You know I liked doing it but I never did make copies to keep for myself Now the education system was a very pleasant experience until about the sixth grade for me when I learned that black people were slaves to white people in our social studies classes That was a defining moment for my educational experience because of the way it was taught It really threw me for a loop as I went home crying to my mother But she explained to me that the truth if you will seek you will find and that will make you free But from then on I lost some faith in the American education system As I learned later in life it was all based upon the theory of white supremacy For the facts that lead to truth were purposely left out of the mix to deprive black people of their righteous place in history and robbed white people of their truth in history The school system was one of the two major vehicles by which the white people claimed themselves as superior and the black people as inferior The other was religion and together as a double edge sword they still continue to put enmity between the different peoples and cultures of the world I did not give up on my learning experience and started to read other materials such as magazines comics and biographies of great men of color especially sports figures But the number one thing that I used to learn how to read better was the sports page of the L A Times I would read that section from front page to back page every morning before school But in school poetry was my most favored reading I liked the rythming of words as well as the message I think it was related to another love of mine as a child and that was music and dancing It didn t take long for me memorize the lyrics of a song as we danced along singing aloud as if we were endowed with a gift from heaven above with that special kind of love That was the ultimate fun as a young man growing up to meet the girls To write little poems to your girlfriends was what I liked most The poetry of greeting cards was my cup of tea after my education experience on our family festivities and celebrations I would add my own poems to the cards on these occasions The family and friends always seemed to like them so very much always complimenting and encouraging me to write more But I did not pursue poetry much as I continued my quest for facts in pursuit of truth When my marriage ended in divorce in the early 1980s it was music and poetry that brought joy and peace within That s when my writing of poetry increased and my perspective about other things expanded As a single man again it was very interesting living the single life Now I have been married for 18 years living the family life called the American dream with grand children and all the wrappings and trappings that go with it But I don t mind one little bit because most of us should be graceful for the material life this land has produced despite its inequities For the horizon does not look as favorable for our future generations that must cope with the mess we have left for them in the physical mental and spiritual planes of life
