Burning Center, Porous Borders Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2011-10-17 Burning Center Porous Borders articulates what the church is and is called to be about in the world a world now globalized to the point that the local is lived globally and the global is lived locally The church must respond creatively and prophetically to the challenges economic disparity war and terrorism diaspora ecological threat health crisis religious diversity and so on posed by our highly globalized world It can do so only if the church's spiritual center burns mightily Conversely it can burn mightily in the spirit of Christ only if its borders are porous and allows the fresh air spirit of change to blow in and out While there is much rhetoric about change the most common response to change is to continue doing business as usual This is particularly the case in the face of perceived global threats In spite of the hoopla and euphoria of the global village walls of division and exclusion are rising hearts are constricting and moral imagination shrinking In response to this context Burning Center Porous Borders proposes alternative ways or images of being a church burning center and porous borders wall buster and bridge builder translocal global mending healer radical hospitality community of the earth spirit household of life abundant dialogians of life and community of hope In Burning Center Porous Borders congregational vitality and progressive praxis women can now have babies has become widely accepted indeed infertile couples may feel great pressure to seek a medical solution However the psychological and social effects of the changing experiences of infertility remain confusing both for those who experience infertility and for wider society In this book a distinguished range of contributors including novelist Hilary Mantel and Germaine Greer examine the experience of infertility from both male and female perspectives the psychological aspects of infertility diagnosis and treatment and the often radical and unexpected effects on kinship Drawing from a wide range of theoretical backgrounds including Jungian analytical and compelling personal reflections this book aims to unravel the implications of advancing reproductive technology for our understanding of ourselves and our families

Thomas Hardy and Animals Anna West, 2017-04-19 Thomas Hardy and Animals looks at creatures in Hardy's novels examining human animal boundaries debated by the Victorian scientific and philosophical communities Boy with Loaded Gun Lewis Nordan, 2025-04-08 This tragicomic memoir of a boy from Itta Bena Mississippi and his lifelong misadventures is a heartrending account of grown up self destruction Entertainment Weekly His own mother referred to him as a nervous child an odd child He was the class clown the skinny kid with a cowlick freckles jug ears and an overbite He was obsessed with sex comic books and beatniks He tried to fly off his front porch like Superman only to land flat on his face He was the boy who saved his money bought a mail order gun and shot himself in the foot over and over again How did this boy get to be the most famous son of Itta Bena Mississippi an acclaimed and award winning author of absurd and darkly comic fiction The floodgates of confession open in this funny tragic and bittersweet memoir about an awkward kid who dreamed of a world beyond his home in the Mississippi Delta From losing a father as a child to losing a child as a father from the rawness of youth to the rage and redemption of adulthood Lewis Nordan's Boy with Loaded Gun is a powerful elegy about a hopeful boy finding his way in a seemingly hopeless world Very moving The author piles warm humorous and often poignant episode upon episode as he recalls his life Booklist The must read Southern memoir of the season Nordan has wrestled with the demons of grief infidelity and alcoholism and tells his story with dignity humor and grace Library Journal Creativity and Chaos Charles Suhor, 2020-05-05 In Creativity and Chaos Reflections on a Decade of Progressive Change in Public Schools 1967-1977 Charles Suhor brings to life the bold challenges to the status quo in education during a decade of national turmoil The regimentation and rote learning of traditional schooling could not have escaped the restless temper of the times Vietnam war protests racial strife assassinations hippie communes the sexual revolution an emerging drug culture and daring innovations in pop rock music Suhor describes his immersion in post World War II popular culture of New Orleans as a rich backdrop for his years as an impassioned educational reformer at local and national levels A risk taking teacher and district supervisor of English he plunged headlong into controversies over black literature censorship ebonics the new grammar faculty integration testing standardization and computer technology He demonstrates how the sweeping national trends often took quirky distinctive turns in a city that delights in marching to a different drummer Suhor's engaging account takes the reader into classrooms as well as the intrigues of central office politics and national leaders disputes on how to best teach students in a time of change In no sense a doctrinal liberal he lambastes the errors and excesses of the progressive movement and traces its decline and the backlash demand for a return to basic skills Suhor concludes with an update on innovations that have waned or persisted in today s schools The Paradox of Suicide and Creativity M.F.

Alvarez,2020-11-12 If creativity is the highest expression of the life impulse why do creative individuals who have made lasting contributions to the arts and sciences so often end their lives M F Alvarez addresses this central paradox by exploring the inner lives and works of eleven creative visionaries who succumbed to suicide Through a series of case studies Alvarez shows that creativity and suicide are both attempts to authenticate and resolve personal catastrophes that have called into question the most basic conditions of human existence Heavenly Cat Tales M.R. Wells,Connie Fleishauer,Dottie

Adams,2013-09-01 In this delightful book of devotions from the authors of Four Paws from Heaven humorous stories about cats and their people give insight into our own relationships with God Barney Misty Muffin and a host of other feline friends illustrate how even the most contradictory creature can thrive in the presence of a loving ever patient owner Each entertaining and enlightening tale encourages readers to discover how God draws us to Himself stimulates our growth cleanses and refines us teaches us His ways and reigns over us for our own good Perfect for animal lovers everywhere this unique devotional inspires us to delight in the Lord and lap up His loving presence At the Lost and Found Edward

Curtin,2025-03-01 At the Lost and Found is a dazzling exploration of the most important issues of our time written in a style that defies categorization Open it at any chapter and you will be hooked by themes and sentences that are a moveable feast for head heart and spirit Each chapter is like a river journey that will twist and turn your mind down unexpected tributaries that you never thought to follow And when you reach the end you will realize you have been traveling one mighty river and all your meandering thoughts and reveries have transported you past places called Lost and Found where you stopped briefly to satisfy your immense hunger for understanding and meaning in a world gone mad Reading Edward Curtin is a feast of many complementary dishes served human family style His writing is truly unique fusing the political with the personal art with astute objective analyses and the tragic with the comic From a detailed critique of the Internet and cell phones one passes effortlessly to the linked bewitchment of CIA propaganda and its assassinations of President Kennedy and the Reverend Martin Luther King Jr There are highlights on pot shops and lowlifes Donld Rumsfeld and Allen Dulles meditations on time remembering and forgetting the endless evil of U S wars waged around the world nuclear war and Trident submarines Leftist betrayals the U S war against Russia through Ukraine capitalism and consumerism the Israeli genocide of Palestinians the corruption of the U S political system the connection between bread rebellion and the search for happiness Bob Dylan music basketball and much more This feast of complementary dishes is moving and memorable Like the mighty river journey it will bring you to a place of gratitude Unlike straightforward political analyses At the Lost and Found weaves politics through the personal and every person's search for understanding happiness and hope in a world on the edge of an abyss. Slyly laced within it one will find the author's personal story lightly limned to suggest that Thoreau was right to remind us that it is always the first person that is speaking not some disembodied purely objective abstraction. Curtin's writing follows in the tradition of other essayists who saw life whole such as James Baldwin, John Berger and Albert Camus. Add a touch of sly wit, whimsy and storytelling and you have the ingredients that make At the Lost and Found a tour de force.

Science-fiction, the Early Years Everett Franklin Bleiler, 1990. In this volume the author describes more than 3000 short stories, novels and plays with science fiction elements from earliest times to 1930. He includes imaginary voyages, utopias, Victorian boys' books, dime novels, pulp magazine stories, British scientific romances and mainstream work with science fiction elements. Many of these publications are extremely rare, surviving in only a handful of copies and most of them have never been described before.

Pet Loss and Human Emotion, second edition Cheri Barton Ross, 2013-05-13. This updated edition of Pet Loss and Human Emotion is a step by step guide to leading clients through this special kind of grief. Includes resources and a section on pet loss and natural disasters. As society accepts that grieving over the death of a loved one is not only normal but healthy and necessary, grieving over the loss of a pet is often seen differently. Expressed feelings often go unvalidated when in truth pet loss is a unique form of grief that can be quite intense and debilitating, increasing an individual's vulnerability to subsequent stress and leaving them feeling isolated and misunderstood. Pet loss needs to be addressed by therapists and others in the helping professions to better enable them to help their clients through the loss of their companion animals. This unique guide is written for all professionals helping clients deal with the loss of a pet and serves as a practical introduction to the field of human-animal bonding. Citing several case studies, it describes various techniques for helping clients when the bond with a pet is broken.
