Amazing Chesed Rabbi Rami Shapiro,Rami M. Shapiro,2012-11 The question isn't whether grace God's love freely given is there for you in Judaism The question is do you have the courage to accept it Ask almost any Jew whether grace is a central concept in Judaism and an essential element in living Jewishly and chances are their answer will be no But that's the wrong answer This fascinating foray into God's love freely given offers the reader a way to answer that question in the affirmative Drawing from ancient and contemporary traditional and non traditional Jewish wisdom this book reclaims the idea of grace in Judaism in three ways It offers a view of God that helps the reader understand what grace is why grace is and how grace manifests in the world It sets forth a reading of Judaism that is grace filled an understanding of creation Shabbat and other Jewish practices from a grace filled perspective It challenges the reader to be embraced and transformed by grace and to live life as a vehicle for God's grace thereby fulfilling the promise of being created in God's image and likeness

The Missions and Missional Purpose of Ephesians Timothy A. van Aarde,2023-01-12 The purpose of the letter to the Ephesians is unknown The book suggests that the purpose of Ephesians is about missions and being missional The author of Ephesians committed the task of missions to the church The author located the mission of the church in the redemptive plan of God The redemptive plan oikonomia of God consists of historical epochs of missions the mission of Israel the mission of Christ the mission of the disciples the mission of the apostles and the mission of the church The term missional has been used ambiguously The existence of a distinction between the mission of the church and missional church is demonstrated and both expressions of mission are grounded in the biblical text of Ephesians The mission of the church is grounded in an exposition of Eph 1:3 and the missional church is grounded in an exposition of Eph 4:6 The author of the letter intended for the mission to the nations to be continued by the church this is the mission of the church He intended for the members of the church to continue to reach out to their local community this is expressed by the missional church The mission of the church has been grounded in the Great Commission The missional church is grounded in the values morals and lifestyle principles set out in Eph 4:6
