France One morning the ground quaked The earth cracked The city tilted The sky fell silent And along with hundreds of others seven strangers found themselves in the same darkness They clung only to each other This is not just a story of a disaster but of being human Seven people born in different lands raised speaking different languages having lived different lives But that morning their pasts were left behind Because there are moments when No language matters no nationality is recognized Only the human is seen And what remains together is examined It is the story of lives from all over the world touching in the shadows of Istanbul A narrative where colors beliefs and paths intertwine A place where borders become meaningless and only existence remains It is not the earthquake itself but the upheaval within the human being that is essential here And that upheaval does not separate people it unites them Because what holds us together is not only the desire to live but our power to remain good And good people while passing through time and pain silently find a place in each other's hearts They share hope in the midst of darkness they approach each other not with words but with the silent language of their hearts Because true closeness is born not from words but from hearts leaning silently against each other
