Where Is Ana Mendieta Identity Performativity And Exile:

Where is Ana Mendieta? Jane Blocker, Ana Mendieta, 1999 An analysis of the career of Ana Mendieta a Cuban American feminist artist who came to prominence in the late 70s and early 80s in terms of gender and performance theory The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries For Creative Geographies Harriet Hawkins, 2013-10-08 This book provides the first sustained critical exploration and celebration of the relationship between Geography and the contemporary Visual Arts With the growth of research in the Geohumanities and the Spatial Humanities there is an imperative to extend and deepen considerations of the form and import of geography art relations Such reflections are increasingly important as geography art intersections come to encompass not only relationships built through interpretation but also those built through shared practices wherein geographers work as and with artists curators and other creative practitioners For Creative Geographies features seven diverse case studies of artists works and exhibitions made towards the end of the twentieth and the beginning of the twentieth first century Organized into three analytic sections the volume explores the role of art in the making of geographical knowledge the growth of geographical perspectives as art world analytics and shared explorations of the territory of the body In doing so Hawkins proposes an analytic framework for exploring questions of the geographical work art does the value of geographical analytics in exploring the production and consumption of art and the different forms of encounter that artworks develop whether this be with their audiences or their makers Creative Activism Research, Pedagogy and Practice Elspeth Tilley, 2022-03-10 This collection explores the growing global recognition of creativity and the arts as vital to social movements and change Bringing together diverse perspectives from leading academics and practitioners who investigate how creative activism is deployed taught and critically analysed it delineates the key parameters of this emerging field "Nancy Spero, Encounters " Joanna S. Walker, 2017-07-05 An original and valuable intervention in the fast growing field of feminist and new art histories Nancy Spero Encounters offers a sophisticated interpretation of the work of a highly original and under represented woman artist The study proposes a new model of comparatism within the field of visual studies mirroring and complementing Spero s dialogic manner of working Basing her analyses on extensive research and multiple face to face interviews with the artist Joanna Walker examines how a selection of the artists and art forms Spero cited offer significant points of comparison with her work Walker presents Spero s encounters with the art of Ana Mendieta with the poetry of the American poet H D with the dance of Isadora Duncan and turning the lens back on Spero as subject with the portraits of the artist by Abe Frajndlich Also included are transcripts of Walker s interviews with the artist and a listing of the books contained in Spero s personal library which informed her practice Not only does this book cast well deserved light on an artist who spent most of her career on the margins of the mainstream it reverses genealogies and revises the traditional remit of the art historical monograph through both its structure and content Visualizing Feeling Susan Best, 2011-06-30 Is late modern art anti aesthetic What does it mean to label a piece of art affectless These traditional characterizations of 1960s and 1970s art are radically challenged in this subversive art history By introducing feeling to the analysis of this period Susan Best acknowledges the radical and exploratory nature of art in late modernism The book focuses on four highly influential female artists Eva Hesse Lygia Clark Ana Mendieta and Theresa Hak Kyung Cha and it explores how their art transformed established avant garde protocols by introducing an affective dimension This aspect of their work while often noted has never before been analyzed in detail Visualizing Feeling also addresses a methodological blind spot in art history the interpretation of feeling emotion and affect It demonstrates that the affective dimension alongside other materials and methods of art is part of the artistic means of production and innovation This is the first thorough re appraisal of aesthetic engagement with affect in post 1960s art The Ends of Performance Peggy Phelan, Jill Lane, 1998 Bridging the gap between cultural studies performing arts and anthropology performance studies explores myriad ways in which performance creates meaning and shapes our everyday lives What Is Contemporary Art? Terry Smith, 2012-08-10 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today s multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going NOT THE TRIUMPH BUT THE STRUGGLE Amy Bass, 2002 In this far reaching account Amy Bass offers nothing less than a history of the black athlete Beginning with the racial eugenics discussions of the early twentieth century and their continuing reverberations in popular perceptions of black physical abilities Bass explores ongoing African American attempts to challenge these stereotypes Although Tommie Smith and John Carlos were reviled by Olympic officials for their demonstration Bass traces how their protest has come to be the defining image of the 1968 Games with lingering effects in the sports world and on American popular culture gen Global Design History Glenn Adamson, Giorgio Riello, Sarah Teasley, 2011-03-15 This book gathers together a number of leading design historians whose research points the way forward aiming to address and promote changes to design history Cuban Studies 31 Lisandro Perez, Uva de Aragon, 2000-12-15

Here Is a Figure Sarah Dowling, 2024-12-15 A study of supine prone and recumbent figures in contemporary literature The prostitute

the protester the murder victim the invalid the layabout the depressive all are associated with lying down Skewing and flattening the perpendicular axis that defines the human in Western philosophy art and humanist inquiry these downward directed figures refusals or failures to hew to the moral and postural logics of uprightness enable a reassessment of subjectivity ecological relation and representation that last of which is after all a process of standing in for Here Is a Figure Grounding Literary Form works across an array of well known and counter canonical texts showing that recumbent figures saturate the literary arts of the present and respond to the proliferation of contemporary forms of grounding in all its meanings Reading these figures in dialogue with critical Indigenous studies disability studies and horizontalist feminisms Sarah Dowling reveals the potential in thinking with and through a position stretched out across dependent on and undetachable from the earth

Dictator's Dreamscape Joseph R. Hartman, 2019-04-23 Joseph Hartman focuses on the public works campaign of Cuban president and later dictator Gerardo Machado Political histories often condemn Machado as a US puppet dictator overthrown in a labor revolt and popular revolution in 1933 Architectural histories tend to catalogue his regime's public works as derivatives of US and European models Dictator's Dreamscape reassesses the regime's public works program as a highly nuanced visual project embedded in centuries old representations of Cuba alongside wider debates on the nature of art and architecture in general especially in regards to globalization and the spread of US style consumerism The cultural production overseen by Machado gives a fresh and greatly broadened perspective on his regime's accomplishments failures and crimes The book addresses the regime's architectural program as a visual and architectonic response to debates over Cuban national identity US imperialism and Machado's own cult of personality

Crossings João Florêncio, Liz Rosenfeld, 2025 A creative dialogue between a queer artist and a queer academic reminiscing about and thinking with their cruising experiences Crossing takes queer sex practices seriously as ways of knowing and world making The result is an erotic hybrid form hovering between scholarship and avant garde experimentation between critical manifesto and sex memoir

Performance Art Angeliki Avgitidou, 2023-03-30 Performance Art Education and Practice is an introduction to performance art through activities and practice prompts that are framed by seminal moments in the history of the medium as well as the current theoretical discussions surrounding performance The book begins by introducing the terminology related to performance art and its early history The basic elements of performance including the body objects space the public and the public sphere are approached through thematic and conceptual correlations such as objects as autobiography body as an expression of gendered identity performance and the everyday the augmented body the archive of performance and public space as space for intervention Case studies analysed in each chapter are accompanied by reflective questions and discussion topics The book proposes a wide range of exercises and comprehensive practice prompts that aim to enhance performance skills promote experimentation and encourage an experiential understanding of the theory history and concepts relating to performance art Performance Art Education and Practice is addressed to students of Fine Arts and
