Language Cinzia Russi, 2020-10-14 Sicilian Elements in Andrea Camilleri's Narrative Language examines Camilleri's unique linguistic repertoire and techniques over his career as a novelist It focuses on the intensification of Sicilian linguistic features in Camilleri's narrative works in particular features pertaining to the domains of sounds and grammar since these have been marginalized in linguistic centered research on the evolution of Camilleri's narrative language and remain overall understudied Through a systematic comparative analysis of the distribution patterns of selected Sicilian features in a selection of Camilleri's historical novels and novels of the Montalbano series the author identifies the individual features that have become most widespread and the lexical items that are targeted with highest frequency and consistency The results of the analysis show that in the earlier novels Sicilian features are rather sparse and can be attributed to linguistic situational functionality that is they function as indices of salient distinctive aspects of topics settings events situations and characters Conversely in the latest novels Sicilian elements pervade the entire novels and the texts are written almost entirely in Camilleri's own Sicilian vigatese so that Sicilian is stripped of any linguistic situational functionality Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation Robin Healey, 2019-03-14 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature Lacerba, 1914 Archeologia e Calcolatori, 22, 2011, 2012-02-01 L'energia elettrica, 1929 Verginità Fausto Maria Martini, 1921 Antonio Fogazzaro Marina
