Uncle Boris In The Yukon And Other Shaggy Dog Stories:

Uncle Boris in the Yukon, and Other Shaggy Dog Stories Daniel Manus Pinkwater, 2001 From the hilarious and subversive children's author, essayist and NPR commentator, true tales drawn from his cordial if dysfunctional relationships with the dogs in his life. Illustrations by the author. Uncle Boris in the Yukon and Other Shaggy Dog Stories Daniel Pinkwater, 2011-03-07 There have been books about dogs since books began: manuals on training and raising them, stories featuring dogs, and memoirs seen through the eyes of dogs. Lately there has been a rash of books that purport to tell us what dogs are thinking, such as the bestselling What Dogs Are Thinking. This is a book about a Jewish boy and his sled dogs, also a couple of wolves, a parrot, or two, and Pinkwater's uncle and his father. Daniel Pinkwater, prodigious author of books for children, popular commentator on National Public Radio, and dog trainer to the stars, is unclear about what dogs are thinking. In fact, he appears to be completely baffled by them. He considers himself lucky that his dog does not foul the carpet, bite people, or run in traffic. Unlike every other dog book ever written, this one does not make the reader feel more stupid than the author. Animals in Young Adult Fiction Walter Hogan, 2009-07-01

Of the many themes occurring in young adult literature, one that bears more extensive exploration is the adolescent animal connection. Although substantial critical commentary has addressed children's animal stories and animals in adult fiction, very few studies have been devoted to adolescent animal encounters. In Animals in Young Adult Fiction, Walter Hogan examines several hundred novels and stories to explore the ways in which animals are represented in these works. In addition to providing an historical survey, Hogan looks at both realistic fiction and speculative works, including fantasy, supernatural horror, and science fiction. Hogan reviews stories that feature wild animal encounters, stories centered on relationships with horses, dogs, and other working and performing animals, and those featuring relationships with pets. Drawing upon established scholarship, this book examines human-animal relationships from multiple angles, making it an invaluable resource for librarians, teachers, and students of children's and young adult literature. River of Words Nina Shengold, 2010-08-01

Silver Medalist 2011 Independent Publisher Book Awards in U.S. North East Best Regional Non-Fiction Category. When you truly fall in love, whether with a person or a place, you make everything else fit around it. The last eight years of my life have been a love affair with this place. Gwendolyn Bounds, author of The Little Chapel by the River. For centuries, writers have drawn inspiration from the Hudson River and its surroundings. John Burroughs, James Fenimore Cooper, Washington Irving, Edna St. Vincent Millay, and Edith Wharton all lived and worked in the region immortalized by the Hudson River School of painters. In River of Words, author Nina Shengold and photographer Jennifer May explore the current crop of Hudson Valley writers, offering intimate portraits of seventy-six contemporary writers who live and work in this magnificent and storied region. Included in this rich collection of emerging and established novelists, memoirists, poets, journalists, and screenwriters are Pulitzer Prize winners John Ashbery and the late Frank McCourt; bestselling memoirists Julie Powell and Susan Orlean; and distinguished emigres Chinua Achebe and Da Chen. What draws these writers together is not only their devotion to their art but their love and affection for the Hudson Valley Through words and photographs River of Words offers an inside perspective on the literary life the craft of writing and the pull of this distinctive American landscape For Younger Readers ,2004 The New Yorker ,2001 The Virginia Quarterly Review ,2002 Literature for Today's Young Adults Kenneth L.
