The Battle for Bonhoeffer Stephen R. Haynes, 2018-09-13 The figure of Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1906-1945 has become a clay puppet in modern American politics Secular radical liberal and evangelical interpreters variously shape and mold the martyr's legacy to suit their own pet agendas Stephen Haynes offers an incisive and clarifying perspective A recognized Bonhoeffer expert Haynes examines populist readings of Bonhoeffer including the acclaimed biography by Eric Metaxas Bonhoeffer Pastor Martyr Prophet Spy In his analysis Haynes treats among other things the November 2016 election of Donald Trump and the Bonhoeffer moment announced by evangelicals in response to the US

Supreme Court's 2015 decision to legalize same sex marriage The Battle for Bonhoeffer includes an open letter from Haynes pointedly addressing Christians who still support Trump Bonhoeffer's legacy matters Haynes redeems the life and the man

Theology as Hope Ryan A. Neal, 2009-01-01 Hope is the leitmotiv of Jurgen Moltmann's theology Not merely one aspect of his project hope is the whole of it the supreme doctrine interpenetrating all others Indeed hope is his method The present study is both historical and developmental while also being analytical and interrogative This chronological exploration seeks to show the nature composition and development of Moltmann's doctrine of hope as the distinctive doctrine of his theology implicating all others Part I establishes Moltmann's doctrine of hope as grounded in God's faithfulness in the cross and resurrection Part II investigates major doctrines in his project in light of this ground This design seeks to take advantage of the chronological approach while also integrating the best elements of a topical approach This Child of Faith Sophronia Scott,Tain Gregory,2017-12-14 Tain Gregory was present in his third grade classroom on the morning of December 14 2012 the date of the Sandy Hook shootings As part of the healing process for the community after the tragedy Tain was asked What s the most important thing in the world to you His mother expected an answer about a video game or Pokemon trading card Tain thought for a moment then answered with one word God Until that moment Tain s mother had no idea how close to the surface Tain s faith existed for him This is a fascinating look at the journey of two souls both Tain s and his mother s that began with Tain enrolling in Sunday School and led to a strong life of faith for both of them In This Child of Faith Sophronia and Tain share stories experience and ideas to help parents get to the heart of a question that becomes more perturbing as our world grows ever more complicated How do you help a child have faith real faith something he or she owns and not a regurgitation of something they ve heard How do you create a life space where they can learn to understand what they believe Tain s stories include early encounters with death and of course the shootings at Sandy Hook where he was present in his third grade classroom on the morning of December 14 2012 Tain is now entering an age where his peers are questioning everything and saying everything just goes black when you die but because of his faith Tain knows differently In this beautiful and timely memoir mother and son share insights from a family s spiritual awakening a journey that led to a deep experience of God and a new way of life in the world Not only do they offer practical advice on faith formation but they tackle a difficult question How does faith prepare us not only life s joys but for its most shocking tragedies The answer is deceptively simple by paying attention to the Spirit and trusting one another Read this one and weep And discover the hope of a child Diana Butler Bass Author Grounded Finding God in the World A Spiritual Revolution When children begin to ask the big questions in life many parents feel unprepared What s more their own yearning to find meaning hope and a deeper faith may be ignited In this unblinkingly honest and tender work Sophronia Scott and her son Tain share their journey of faith From her roots growing up in a large Baptist family in Ohio to her spiritual curiosity as a Harvard undergrad to her commitment to honor her young son s request to attend Sunday School Sophronia gently models how to nurture the innate spirituality and faith of a child In doing so her own faith grows and deepens as well And when the trials come such as the deaths of several people close to her and her family she is more prepared to help Tain understand and accept these losses This Child of Faith doesn t claim to know all the answers but it serves as a moving testimony to the power of faith when a family embarks upon the journey together Rev Andrea Raynor author of Incognito Lost and Found at Harvard Divinity School

Mary Kathy Coffey,2009 An internationally known author and inspirational speaker Catholic Online inspires us to see the mother of Jesus as our spiritual mother and as a model for women everywhere Helpers rescuers saviors and moms sometimes lose track of who they really are Mary is the mirror that shows us our finest self From the book Re-Imagining Mary Mariann Burke,2009 Artists plumb the depths of soul which Jung calls the collective unconscious the inheritance of our ancestors psychic responses to life's drama. In this sense the artist is priest mediating between us and God. The artist introduces us to ourselves by inviting us into the world of image. We may enter this world to contemplate briefly or at length. Some paintings invite us back over and over again and we return never tiring of them. It is especially these that lead us to the Great Mystery beyond image. Re-Imagining Mary: A Journey through Art to the Feminine Self is about meeting the Cosmic Mary in image and imagination, the many facets of the Mary image that mirror both outer reality and inner feminine soul. Jungian analyst Mariann Burke offers personal reflections and suggests symbolic meanings in works by several artists including Fra Angelico, Albrecht Dürer, Henry Ossawa Tanner, Nicolas Poussin, Parmigianino, Duccio di Buoninsegna, Salvador Dalí, Andy Warhol, and Frederick Franck. Aspects of Mary explored include Mary not only as Mother of God, a title from the Judeo-Christian tradition, but as Mother God, a title reaching back to an ancient longing for a Female Divinity. In western Christianity this Mary bears the titles and the qualities worshipped for thousands of years in the Female images of God and Goddess. These titles include Mary as Sorrowful One and as Primordial Mother. Recovering Mary both as light and dark Madonna plays a crucial role in humanity's search for a divinity who reflects soul. Also discussed is Mary as the sheltering Great Mother that Piero della Francesca suggests in the Madonna del Parto and Mater Misericordia. Frederick Franck's The Original Face and the Medieval Vierge Ouvrante also suggest this motif of Mary as Protector of the mystery of our common Origin. Franck's inspiration for his sculpture of Mary was the Buddhist koan: What is your original face before you were born? What is spirituality? What does it mean to grow spiritually and psychologically closer to the Feminine Self? How can we begin to see the outer image as a manifestation, a projection of the psyche? Can we be challenged by being betwixt and between a male-dominated Church without a recognized female divinity where God is generally imagined external to the soul and a more feminine depth psychological approach to the Marian mystery and to the Feminine Self? Will we answer the call of the mystic within us? If so, how will we be changed?

This Too Shall Last K.J. Ramsey, 2020-05-12. This book is not a before and after story. Our culture treats suffering like a problem to fix, a blight to hide or the sad start of a transformation story. We silently, secretly wither under the pressure of living as though suffering is a predicament we can avoid or annihilate by working hard enough or having enough faith. When your prayers for healing haven't been answered, the fog of depression isn't lifting, your marriage is ending in divorce, or grief won't go away, it's easy to feel you've failed God and worse, he's failed you. If God loves us, why does he allow us to hurt? Over a decade ago, chronic illness plunged therapist and writer K.J. Ramsey straight into this paradox. Before her illness, faith made sense. But when pain came and never left, K.J. had to find a way across the widening canyon that seemed to separate God's goodness from her excruciating circumstances. She wanted to conquer suffering. Instead, she encountered the God who chose it. She wanted to make pain past tense. Instead, God invited her into a bigger story. This Too Shall Last offers an antidote to our cultural idolatry of effort and ease. Through personal story and insights from neuroscience and theology, Ramsey invites us to let our tears become lenses of the wonder that before God, ever rescues us he stands in solidarity with us We are all mid story in circumstances we did not choose wondering when our hard things will end and where grace will come if they don't We don't need to make suffering a before and after story Together we can encounter the grace that enters the middle of our stories where living with suffering that lingers means receiving God's presence that lasts

Flunking Sainthood Jana Riess, 2011-11-01 This wry memoir tackles twelve different spiritual practices in a quest to become more saintly including fasting fixed hour prayer the Jesus Prayer gratitude Sabbath keeping and generosity Although Riess begins with great plans for success Really how hard could that be she asks blithely at the start of her saint making year she finds to her growing humiliation that she is failing not just at some of the practices but at every single one What emerges is a funny yet vulnerable story of the quest for spiritual perfection and the reality of spiritual failure which turns out to be a valuable practice in and of itself Praise for Flunking Sainthood Flunking Sainthood is surprising and freeing it is fun and funny and it is full of wisdom It is in fact the best book on the practices of the spiritual life that I have read in a long long time Lauren Winner author of Girl Meets God and Mudhouse Sabbath Jana Riess reminds us that saints are different from most of us They are special we are barely normal They get it right we rarely get it They see God we strain to see much of anything And Jana is no saint Rather than climbing to the pinnacle and sitting on a pedestal to tell us how it could be Jana slides right next to us and reminds us that sainthood is overrated With humor and insight she whispers to us that our lives matter just as they are She prods us to never let our failures hold us back She calls us to something greater than spiritual success ordinary faithfulness Flunking Sainthood is the book I'm giving to my friends who are seeking to make sense of their emerging faith Doug Pagitt author of A Christianity Worth Believing Jana Riess may have flunked at sainthood

but she's written a wonderful book. It's both reverent and irreverent and it will make you want to become a better Christian or Jew or Muslim or Zoroastrian or Jedi or whatever you happen to be. AJ Jacobs author of The Year of Living Biblically Warm light hearted and laugh out loud funny. Jana Riess may indeed have flunked sainthood but this memoir assures us that she is utterly and deeply human and that is something even more wonderful. Honest and sincere she will endear you from page one. Donna Freitas author of The Possibilities of Sainthood With a helpfully hilarious account of her own grappling with godliness. Jana Riess proves to be a standup historian well practiced in the art of oddly revivifying self deprecation. She loves her guides historical and contemporary even as she finds them alternately impractical harsh or infuriatingly jolly. The book is freaking wonderful a candid and committed tale of prayers that resists supersizing and spirituality that has no home save the glory and the muck of the everyday. David Dark author of The Sacredness of Questioning Everything Jana Riess's new book is a delight fun funny engaging and a powerful reminder that the greatest work in our lives is not what we'll do for God but what God is doing in us. Margaret Feinberg www.margaretfeinberg.com author of Scouting the Divine and Hungry for God Flunking Sainthood allows those of us who have attempted new spiritual practices and failed to breathe a great sigh of relief and to laugh out loud. Jana Riess's exposé of her year long and less than successful attempts at eleven classic spiritual practices entertains and educates us with its honesty and down to earthiness. In spite of Jana's paltry attempts at piety and her botched prayer makeovers God showed up in the surprising sneaky ways that only God does. Jana is the kind of girlfriend I like to have hilarious smart stubborn irreverent and totally gaga over God. She writes in the unfiltered uncensored way I'd write if I had the skill and the guts. Oh sorry Mom I meant gumption not guts. Sybil MacBeth author of Praying in Color

Unfettered Hope Marva J. Dawn, 2003-03-31 In this prophetic call to faithful Christian living Marva Dawn identifies the epidemic socio cultural attitudes that destroy hope in our modern lives. Because affluent persons don't know what to value how to choose what's important and weed out the rest we remain dissatisfied with what we have and are compelled to want more. Dawn demonstrates however how Christians can organize their lives to live in ways that allow them to love God and neighbor and in the process alleviate the despair in their lives and in the lives of others in the world. The Abingdon Preaching Annual 2021 Ms. Tanya Linn Bennett, 2020-04-21 The Abingdon Preaching Annual is lectionary based and follows the calendar year January-December. Each week's entry includes Primary Theme Secondary Themes and Worship Helps. The volume also includes essays on preaching topics full sermons and sermon series ideas. The Abingdon Preaching Annual is designed to stir the preacher's imagination offer fresh intriguing ideas and point the preacher in a good direction.
