Watertight How I Survived The Submarine Service Without Losing My Mind:

Watertight Karl Heckman, 2014-07-04 Memoir of a U S Navy submarine sailor 1980 1990 Character driven this book focuses on what it s like to go to sea on a nuclear submarine including selection training and family life of USN submarine sailors The Saturday Evening Post ,1919 The American Marine Engineer ,1914 Deadline Disaster Michael Wynn Jones,1976 The Engineer ,1912 Harper's Weekly John Bonner, George William Curtis, Henry Mills Alden, Samuel Stillman Conant, Montgomery Schuyler, John Foord, Richard Harding Davis, Carl Schurz, Henry Loomis Nelson, John Kendrick Bangs, George Brinton McClellan Harvey, Norman Hapgood, 1897 Backpacker ,2002-06 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader s doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world s first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker s Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured Backpacker ,2000-03 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader s doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world s first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker s Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured Our Navy ,1960 Page One New York Times, 1995 Exciting living history as revealed through the front pages of The New York Times makes for a definitive introduction to the major events of the 20th century covering headlines from the peace treaty signed in Paris ending the First World War to the death of Lenin from the assassination of JFK to the Persian Gulf War Photos Page One Arno Press, New York Times Company, 1976 Divided by decades this presents the front page of the New York Times on important days from 1920 to 1975 The Silent Service Speaks Frank Hood, Charles Hood, 2020-06-16 The inspiration for compiling this book The Silent Service Speaks Vol 1 came from a simple premise Imagine yourself meeting with a Cold War era submariner at a neighborhood bar for an evening of conversation over a pitcher of cold beer What would you ask him that he could truthfully answer and what would most interest you about his story Such story telling comes easy for most seamen but in the case of our submariner there s a catch a lot of topics that you might want to discuss are entirely off limits Such is the submariner s lament He has so many stories that he could share but he must constantly exercise tremendous discretion in determining what can and cannot be disclosed Your imaginary evening at the local bar might be interrupted by fits and starts as he chooses his words very carefully But what if we changed the ground rules declaring upfront that we didn t want to delve into details that could compromise his oath of secrecy instead just focusing on the many other non classified aspects of submarine life that are fair game For example the pranks or the camaraderie or the intense training or the meaning of the dolphins insignia By keeping the focus on those experiences that didn't involve intrigue and confidentiality we could get some sense of what it was like on board a submarine while still respecting those forbidden boundaries Stated in another way we sought to describe the day to day and not the cloak and dagger of submarine service The stories presented here run the gamut from harsh to tender unsettling to sublime and sad to hilarious They contain several common themes including love for country a sense of adventure an affinity for gallows humor the pride of well honed teamwork and a profound sense among shipmates that they were all key participants in a larger mission Several of the contributors reflected that their lives were never more meaningful or focused and that some of their very best years were spent in the US Navy As these Cold War era submarine veterans have grown older their senses of nostalgia and mortality have deepened Those who wrote stories for The Silent Service Speaks Vol 1 did so because they believe that their memories have intrinsic historical value They understand that although certain parts of their submarine experiences may never be discussed a far greater percentage of their memories are worthy of sharing Their stories are not tell all narratives but they do provide many important insights into the struggles sacrifices and rewards of submarine service In that sense this volume represents an important contribution to the written history of submarines in the modern era The 33 contributors to our book span the entire Cold War period from the late 1940s to the 1990s and beyond The book contains more than 150 stories and over 300 photographs most submitted by the authors themselves It also includes several poems interviews and other recollections The editorial process centered on readability consistency in terminology and historical accuracy while maintaining the authenticity of each contributor's voice Nearly a full year in the making The Silent Service Speaks Vol 1 paints an intimate portrait of life below the sea in the US Submarine Force As with the previous two submarine books written by Charles and Frank Hood Poopie Suits Cowboy Boots and Sub Tales Stories that Seldom Surface all proceeds from the sale of The Silent Service Speaks Vol 1 are donated to the United States Submarine Veterans Inc USSVI Scholarship Fund This practice continues the authors commitment to philanthropy and the desire to increase public awareness about the significance of the submarine community at large As of June 2020 at the time of the initial publication of this book the total proceeds raised for the USSVI Scholarship Fund have exceeded 32 000 Thanks for your interest
