What Makes Sammy Run By Budd Schulberg Lesson Plans:

Ego Is the Enemy Ryan Holiday, 2016-06-14 The instant Wall Street Journal USA Today and international bestseller While the history books are filled with tales of obsessive visionary geniuses who remade the world in their image with sheer almost irrational force I've found that history is also made by individuals who fought their egos at every turn who eschewed the spotlight and who put their higher goals above their desire for recognition from the prologue Many of us insist the main impediment to a full successful life is the outside world In fact the most common enemy lies within our ego Early in our careers it impedes learning and the cultivation of talent With success it can blind us to our faults and sow future problems In failure it magnifies each blow and makes recovery more difficult At every stage ego holds us back Ego Is the Enemy draws on a vast array of stories and examples from literature to philosophy to history We meet fascinating figures such as George Marshall Jackie Robinson Katharine Graham Bill Belichick and Eleanor Roosevelt who all reached the highest levels of power and success by conquering their own egos Their strategies and tactics can be ours as well In an era that glorifies social media reality TV and other forms of shameless self promotion the battle against ego must be fought on many fronts Armed with the lessons in this book as Holiday writes you will be less invested in the story you tell about your own specialness and as a result you will be liberated to accomplish the world changing work you've set out to achieve

Into the Fray Tom Mearns, 2012 2012 James W Tankard Book Award Winner From 1961 to 1989 a committed group of documentary journalists from the National Broadcasting Company NBC reported the stories of America's overseas conflicts Stuart Schulberg supplied film evidence to prosecute Nazi war criminals and established documentary units in postwar Berlin and Paris NBC newsman David Brinkley created the template for prime time news in 1961 and bore the scars to prove it In 1964 Ted Yates and Bob Rogers produced a documentary warning of the pitfalls in Vietnam Yates was later shot and killed in Jerusalem on the first day of the Six Day War while producing a documentary for NBC News In Into the Fray Tom Mearns vividly recounts the characters and experiences that helped create a unique colorful documentary film crew based at the Washington bureau of NBC News From the Kennedy era through the Reagan years the journalists covered wars rebellions the Central Intelligence Agency covert actions the Pentagon military preparedness and world and American cultures They braved conflicts and crises to tell the stories that Americans needed to see and hear and in the process they changed the face of journalism Mearns also looks at the social changes in and around the unit itself including the struggles and triumphs of women and African Americans in the field of television documentary Into the Fray is the story of adventure loyalty to reason and life and death in the service of broadcast journalism

Literature and Race in Los Angeles Julian Murphet, 2001-03-19 Los Angeles is both the most fragmented and the most minoritized metropolis in America and its most luridly abstract and aestheticized city With more than eighty five languages being spoken in its classrooms and one homogeneous visual language emanating from its entertainment industry LA radically challenges the prospects of that archaic representational medium literature In its investigation of the work of Bret Easton Ellis James Ellroy Anna Deveare Smith and others Literature and Race in Los Angeles articulates their aesthetic preoccupations with the structures of social space in the city Harnessing some of the theoretical insights of Henri Lefebvre and the LA school of geographers Murphet demonstrates the versatility of literary production in LA and speculates about the fortunes of literature in a predominantly visual culture Catalog of Copyright Entries.
