

A tall, rusted metal water tower stands against a sky with soft, colorful clouds in shades of blue, orange, and purple. The tower's structure is made of dark metal beams, and the tank itself is heavily rusted, showing a mix of brown and orange tones. The overall mood is nostalgic and atmospheric.

Ray,2010-02-16 This follow up to the bestselling The Weekend Novelist will guide writers of all levels through the next phase in crafting their novel the rewrite You ve finished your first draft congratulations Think it s ready for publication Think again The next stage is all about revising and reworking your manuscript fine tuning the plot adding or improving subplots and fleshing out characters in short addressing important structural issues that make or break a novel Robert J Ray who helped thousands of writers get from blank page to first draft in The Weekend Novelist now guides the same audience through a series of seventeen weekend revision exercises designed to fit into any busy lifestyle focusing on everything from rewriting scenes to developing sound flashbacks to refining characters back stories Throughout the book Ray illustrates his lessons with examples from such great works of literature as Jane Eyre Gorky Park and The Great Gatsby so that writers may more easily identify how and why a certain technique or structural element helps or hinders their own work Also included are checklists timed exercises plot diagrams and charts all aimed to get you rewriting and revising your draft with confidence Whether you re an amateur novelist a seasoned writer who s hit a mental block or a creative writing teacher looking for proven exercises for better instruction The Weekend Novelist Rewrites the Novel provides the tools to transform first drafts into successful novels Homesickness Ryan Hediger,2019-10-15 Introducing a posthumanist concept of nostalgia to analyze steadily widening themes of animality home travel slavery shopping and war in U S literature after 1945 In the Anthropocene as climate change renders environments less stable the human desire for place underscores the weakness of the individual in the face of the world In this book Ryan Hediger introduces a distinctive notion of homesickness one in which the longing for place demonstrates not only human vulnerability but also intersubjectivity beyond the human Arguing that this feeling is unavoidable and characteristically posthumanist Hediger studies the complex mix of attitudes toward home the homely and the familiar in an age of resurgent cosmopolitanism especially eco cosmopolitanism Homesickness closely examines U S literature mostly after 1945 including prominent writers such as Annie Proulx Marilynne Robinson and Ernest Hemingway in light of the challenges and themes of the Anthropocene Hediger argues that our desire for home is shorthand for a set of important hopes worth defending serious and genuine relationships to places and their biotic regimes and landforms membership in vital cultures human and nonhuman resistance to capital infused forms of globalization that flatten differences and turn life and place into mere resources Our homesickness according to Hediger is inevitable because the self is necessarily constructed with reference to the material past Therefore homesickness is not something to dismiss as nostalgic or reactionary but is rather a structure of feeling to come to terms with and even to cultivate Recasting an expansive range of fields through the lens of homesickness from ecocriticism to animal studies and disability studies eco philosophy to posthumanist theory Homesickness speaks not only to the desire for a physical structure or place but also to a wide range of longings and dislocations including those related to subjectivity memory bodies literary form and language

The Art of Disappearing Ivy Pochoda,2025-06-25 Ivy Pochoda s spellbinding and cinematic storytelling seamlessly fuses timeless magic to modern day passion Haunting and beautiful The Art of Disappearing is an imaginative and captivating love story destined to enchant readers for years to come How do you know if love is real or just an illusion When Mel Snow meets the talented magician Toby Warring in a dusty roadside bar she is instantly drawn to the brilliant performer whose hands can effortlessly pull stray saltshakers and poker chips from thin air and conjure castles out of the desert sands Just two days later they are married beginning their life together in the shadow of Las Vegas where Toby hopes to make it big Mel knows that magicians are a dime a dozen but Toby is different his magic is real As Toby s renown grows and Mel falls more and more in love with his wonderments she starts to realize that Toby s powers are as unstable as they are dazzling She learns that he once made his assistant disappear completely and couldn t bring her back And then just as Mel becomes convinced that his magic is dangerous a trick goes terribly awry during his Strip debut Exiled from the stage Mel and Toby flee the lights of Las Vegas for the streets of Amsterdam where a cabal of old time magicians real magicians like Toby try to rescue him from his despair But he s haunted by the trick that failed and obsessed with using his powers to right his mistakes leaving Mel to wonder if the love they share is genuine or merely a fantasy conjured up by a lost magician looking to save himself from being alone

The Book of Iowa Films Marty Knepper,John Lawrence,2014-08-04

This is the first comprehensive history of films made in or about Iowa. It reflects some twenty years of collecting, lecturing and talking with some of Iowa's current generation of independent filmmakers. It covers the span from 1918 to 2013 and gives important background information on dozens of high profile films such as the STATE FAIR films of 1933 and 1945, THE BRIDGES OF MADISON COUNTY, FIELD OF DREAMS and many others. It is designed as a companion for the State Historical Society's blockbuster Hollywood in the Heartland exhibition in Des Moines that is scheduled to run at least through 2016. The book has an interpretive essay covering the entire history as well as paragraph length descriptions of each film. A user friendly feature is the Index of Films which makes it easy to locate discussions of individual films. Marty Knepper is a featured commentator on video screens in the Hollywood in the Heartland exhibition.

Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume Two Philip A. Greasley, 2016-08-08 The Midwest has produced a robust literary heritage. Its authors have won half of the nation's Nobel Prizes for Literature plus a significant number of Pulitzer Prizes. This volume explores the rich racial, ethnic and cultural diversity of the region. It also contains entries on 35 pivotal Midwestern literary works, literary genres, literary cultural, historical and social movements, state and city literatures, literary journals and magazines as well as entries on science fiction, film, comic strips, graphic novels and environmental writing. Prepared by a team of scholars, this second volume of the Dictionary of Midwestern Literature is a comprehensive resource that demonstrates the Midwest's continuing cultural vitality and the stature and distinctiveness of its literature.

Asexualities Karli June Cerankowski, Megan Milks, 2014-03-14 What is so radical about not having sex? To answer this question, this collection of essays explores the feminist and queer politics of asexuality. Asexuality is predominantly understood as an orientation describing people who do not experience sexual attraction. In this multidisciplinary volume, the authors expand this definition of asexuality to account for the complexities of gender, race, disability and medical discourse. Together, these essays challenge the ways in which we imagine gender and sexuality in relation to desire and sexual practice. Asexualities provides a critical reevaluation of even the most radical queer theorizations of sexuality. Going beyond a call for acceptance of asexuality as a legitimate and valid sexual orientation, the authors offer a critical examination of many of the most fundamental ways in which we categorize and index sexualities, desires, bodies and practices. As the first book-length collection of critical essays ever produced on the topic of asexuality, this book serves as a foundational text in a growing field of study. It also aims to reshape the directions of feminist and queer studies and to radically alter popular conceptions of sex and desire. Including units addressing theories of asexual orientation, the politics of asexuality, asexuality in media culture, masculinity and asexuality, health, disability and medicalization and asexual literary theory, Asexualities will be of interest to scholars and students in sexuality, gender, sociology, cultural studies, disability studies and media culture.
