Maybe things in life haven't gone the way you thought they would The picture perfect life you always planned and dreamed of came to a crashing halt when your actual reality looks nothing like you ever thought it would How do you keep persevering and living a hope filled life when nothing around you feels good and it feels like life may never feel okay again Shannon Moore shares her story of how God met her in the middle of the darkest moment in her life and helped her change her bitter situation into a beautiful story full of hope restoration and faith Now her goal is to help you do the same with your life Shannon will help you place your hope in a God of restoration discover practical ways to overcome the Enemy's schemes learn ways to stay strong when life constantly wants to pull you down and discourage you figure out how to embrace the unfairness that has invaded your life learn how to walk through the messy road of healing Life is full of so much unexpected pain and it can easily make us bitter and leave us feeling like we don't have the strength to continue But this is not the end Life can be good again Restoration is possible The darkness doesn't mean there isn't light ahead Sweet Grapes Jean W. Carter, Michael Carter, 1998

The Infertility Treadmill Karey Harwood, 2007 Infertility Treadmill Feminist Ethics Personal Choice and the Use of Reproductive Technologies The New Arab Man Marcia C. Inhorn, 2012-03-25 Middle Eastern Muslim men have been widely vilified as terrorists religious zealots and brutal oppressors of women The New Arab Man challenges these stereotypes with the stories of ordinary Middle Eastern men as they struggle to overcome infertility and childlessness through assisted reproduction Drawing on two decades of ethnographic research across the Middle East with hundreds of men from a variety of social and religious backgrounds Marcia Inhorn shows how the new Arab man is self consciously rethinking the patriarchal masculinity of his forefathers and unseating received wisdoms This is especially true in childless Middle Eastern marriages where contrary to popular belief infertility is more common among men than women Inhorn captures the marital moral and material commitments of couples undergoing assisted reproduction revealing how new technologies are transforming their lives and religious sensibilities And she looks at the changing manhood of husbands who undertake transnational egg quests set against the backdrop of war and economic uncertainty out of devotion to the infertile wives they love Trenchant and emotionally gripping The New Arab Man traces the emergence of new masculinities

in the Middle East in the era of biotechnology Ready Elizabeth Gregory,2012-08-07 Over the past three decades skyrocketing numbers of women have chosen to start their families in their late thirties and early forties In 2005 ten times as many women had their first child between the ages of 35 and 39 as in 1975 and thirteen times as many had their first between 40 and 44 Women now have the option to define for themselves when they re ready for family rather than sticking to a schedule set by social convention As a society however we have yet to come to terms with the phenomenon of later motherhood and women who decide it makes sense for them to delay pregnancy often find themselves confronted with alarmist warnings about the dangers of waiting too long In Ready Elizabeth Gregory tracks the burgeoning trend of new later motherhood and demonstrates that for many women today waiting for family works best She provides compelling evidence of the benefits of having children later by birth or by adoption Gregory reveals that large numbers of women succeed in having children between 35 and 44 by the usual means one in seven kids born today has a mom in that age range and that many of those who don t succeed nonetheless find alternate routes to happy families via egg donation or adoption And they re glad they waited Without ignoring the complexities that older women may face in their quest to have children Gregory reveals the many advantages of waiting Stronger family focus Having achieved many of their personal and career goals new later moms feel ready to focus on family rather than trying to juggle priorities More financial power New later moms have established careers and make higher salaries Greater self confidence New later moms have more career experience and their management skills translate directly into managing a household and advocating for their children More stable single parenting New later moms who are single have more resources High marriage rate On average 85 percent of new later moms are married lending stability to the family structure Longer lives Evidence indicates that new later moms actually live longer than moms who start their families earlier Based on in depth interviews with more than 100 new later moms and extensive collateral research Ready shatters the myths surrounding later motherhood Drawing on both the statistical evidence and the voices of the new later mothers themselves Gregory delivers surprising and welcome news that will revolutionize the way we think about motherhood
