Rethinking Contemporary Warfare Eyal Ben-Ari, Zeev Lerer, Uzi Ben-Shalom, Ariel Vainer, 2010-05-17 The combat experience of Israel's ground forces in the second Palestinian uprising the Al Aqsa Intifada 2000-2006 is given full critical attention in this engaging study. Based on extensive interviews and observations, Rethinking Contemporary Warfare explores the ongoing debate about how the armed forces of industrial democracies wage contemporary military operations. Irregular warfare presents challenges as routine activities can suddenly turn into violent action, forcing military forces to quickly adapt under the changing circumstances of the conflict. Such new wars are a messy reality consisting of high and low intensity conflict, the involvement of media and human rights movements, and the martial administration of civilian populations. Exploring the broad social and organizational features of these militaries, this volume sets forth new analytical tools to understand the peculiarities of irregular warfare in the post-Cold War era. These critical concepts include loose coupling between units, organizations that mediate between ground forces and civilian environments, and the militarization of civilian environments in urban warfare.

Israel's Colonial Project in Palestine Elia Zureik, 2015-11-19 Colonialism has three foundational concerns: violence, territory, and population control, all of which rest on racist discourse and practice. Placing the Zionist project in Israel/Palestine within the context of settler colonialism reveals strategies and goals behind the region's rules of governance that have included violence, repressive state laws, and racialized forms of surveillance. In Israel's Colonial Project in Palestine: Brutal Pursuit, Elia Zureik revisits and reworks fundamental ideas that informed his first work on colonialism and Palestine three decades ago. Focusing on the means of control that are at the centre of Israel's actions toward Palestine, this book applies Michel Foucault's work on biopolitics to colonialism and to the situation in Israel/Palestine in particular. It reveals how racism plays a central role in colonialism and biopolitics, and how surveillance in all its forms becomes the indispensable tool of governance. It goes on to analyse territoriality in light of biopolitics, with the dispossession of indigenous people and population transfer advancing the state's agenda and justified as in the interests of national security. The book incorporates sociological, historical, and postcolonial studies into an informed and original examination of the Zionist project in Palestine from the establishment of Israel through to the actions and decisions of the present-day Israeli government. Providing new perspectives on settler colonialism informed by Foucault's theory and with particular focus on the role played by state surveillance in controlling the Palestinian population, this book is a valuable resource for students and scholars interested in the Arab-Israeli Conflict and Colonialism.

The One-State Condition Ariella Azoulay, Adi Ophir, 2012-11-28 Since the start of the occupation of Palestinian territories in 1967, Israel's domination of the Palestinians has deprived an entire population of any political status or protection. But even decades on, most people speak of this rule both in everyday political discussion and in legal and academic debates as temporary, as a state of affairs incidental and external to the Israeli regime. In The One-State Condition, Ariella Azoulay and Adi Ophir directly challenge this belief. Looking closely at the history and contemporary formation of the ruling apparatus, the technologies and operations of the Israeli army, the General Security Services and the legal system imposed in the Occupied Territories Azoulay and Ophir outline the one state condition of Israel Palestine the grounding principle of Israeli governance is the perpetuation of differential rule over populations of differing status Israeli citizenship is shaped through the active denial of Palestinian citizenship and civil rights Though many Israelis on both political right and left agree that the occupation constitutes a problem for Israeli democracy few ultimately admit that Israel is no democracy or question the very structure of the Israeli regime itself Too frequently ignored are the lasting effects of the deceptive denial of the events of 1948 and 1967 and the ways in which the resulting occupation has reinforced the sweeping militarization and recent racialization of Israeli society Azoulay and Ophir show that acknowledgment of the one state condition is not only a prerequisite for considering a one or two state solution it is a prerequisite for advancing new ideas to move beyond the trap of this false dilemma The Government and Politics of the Middle East and North Africa Mark Gasiorowski, 2016-08-02 A comprehensive country by country examination of the history domestic politics and foreign policies of the Middle East and North Africa Everywhere a Guest, Nowhere at Home Kim Chernin, 2009 The title of this book is a phrase often used to describe the fate of the Jewish people in the world and invokes one of the central arguments for the creation of the state of Israel In this thoughtful collection of essays Kim Chernin suggests that the Zionist struggle has left the Palestinian people in a similar predicament now they too are merely guests in their former homeland Confronting her own uncritical support of Israel Chernin tries to reconcile her desire for a Jewish homeland with the reality of the violence carried out in order to secure it Following an in depth examination of the perspectives of both Jews and Palestinians Chernin writes eloquently of the process by which she gradually learned to hear once ignored Palestinian voices By combining her knowledge of Jewish history with her insights as a psychotherapist Chernin discovers the psychological mechanisms that have kept her and other Jews from fully comprehending the suffering of both parties in this seemingly endless conflict She argues persuasively that by overcoming the mental blocks that prevent so many from seeing the Palestinian point of view Jews can learn to feel empathy for them without diminishing their love and support for Israel Palestine and the Palestinians Samih K. Farsoun, 2018-05-04 Palestine and the Palestinians is a sweeping social economic ideological and political history of the Palestinian people from antiquity to the Road Map to Peace This second edition is thoroughly revised and updated including entirely new chapters on the most current issues confronting Palestine today including Palestinians in Israel the Oslo Accords and the Second Intifada Palestinian refugees and the right to return Jerusalem the diplomatic peace process and two state single state solutions Constructions of Masculinity in the Middle East and North Africa Mohja Kahf, Nadine Sinno, 2021-04-06 A multi disciplinary exploration of how masculinity in the MENA region is constructed in film literature and nationalist discourse Constructions of masculinity are constantly evolving and being resisted in the Middle East and North Africa There is no before that was a stable gendered environment This edited collection examines constructions of both hegemonic and marginalized masculinities in the MENA region through literary criticism film studies discourse analysis anthropological accounts and studies of military culture Bringing together contributors from the disciplines of linguistics comparative literature sociology cultural studies queer and gender studies film studies and history Constructions of Masculinity in the Middle East and North Africa spans the colonial to the postcolonial eras with emphasis on the late twentieth century to the present day This collective study is a diverse and exciting addition to the literature on gender and societal organization at a time when masculinities in the Middle East and North Africa are often essentialized and misunderstood Contributors Jedidiah Anderson Furman University Greenville South Carolina USA Amal Amireh George Mason University Fairfax Virginia USA Kaveh Bassiri University of Arkansas Fayetteville USA Oyman Basran Bowdoin College Brunswick Maine USA Alessandro Columbu University of Manchester England Nicole Fares independent scholar Robert James Farley UCLA Los Angeles CA USA Andrea Fischer Tahir independent scholar Nouri Gana UCLA Los Angeles CA USA Kifah Hanna Trinity College Hartford Connecticut USA Sarah Hudson Connors State College Warner Oklahoma USA Mohja Kahf University of Arkansas Fayetteville USA John Tofik Karam University of Illinois Urbana Champaign USA Kathryn Kalemkerian McGill University Montreal Canada Ebtihal Mahadeen University of Edinburgh Scotland Matthew Parnell American University in Cairo Egypt Nadine Sinno Virginia Tech Blacksburg Virginia USA
