Parameters, 2003 Memories of the Quaker Past: Stories of Thirty-Seven Senior Quakers Christine Ayoub, 2014-02 The book consists of excerpts from interviews of senior members of State College Friends Meeting The narrators who lived through the Great Depression tell of their difficult childhood and yet in most cases one they regarded as happy Some of the conscientious objectors during WWII tell of life in CPS camps others speak of using nonviolent methods with mental patients while still others relate the story of the human guinea experiments some of them participated in Of those who did relief work after the war overseas probably the most exciting tales are told by the four who worked with the Friends Ambulance Unit in China They happened to be located close to where the Nationalists and the Communists were fighting

The War Geoffrey C. Ward, Ken Burns, 2020-02-04 The vivid voices that speak from these pages are not those of historians or scholars They are the voices of ordinary men and women who experienced and helped to win the most devastating war in history in which between 50 and 60 million lives were lost Focusing on the citizens of four towns Luverne Minnesota Sacramento California Waterbury Connecticut Mobile Alabama The War follows more than forty people from 1941 to 1945 Woven largely from their memories the compelling unflinching narrative unfolds month by month with the outcome always in doubt All the iconic events are here from Pearl Harbor to the liberation of the concentration camps but we also move among prisoners of war and Japanese American internees defense workers and schoolchildren and families who struggled simply to stay together while their men were shipped off to Europe the Pacific and North Africa Enriched by maps and hundreds of photographs including many never published before this is an intimate profoundly affecting chronicle of the war that shaped our world From the Hardcover edition From Omaha Beach to Dawson's Ridge Cole Kingseed,2013-09-23 An infantry company commander in the U S Army s heralded 1st Infantry Division Capt Joseph Turner Dawson led his men through some of the most brutal battles of World War II From the invasion of North Africa in late 1942 through Sicily and the assault on Normandy to the push toward the German frontier late in 1944 his length of service on the frontlines was extraordinary and his heroism while holding off the Germans on a ridge near Aachen Germany is legendary Based on Dawson s own combat journal this book focuses on leadership in combat during the greatest human drama of the twentieth century Dawson is at the heart of the drama as he describes the strain of constant combat and its effect on the combat infantryman His writings have been edited by the former chief military historian at the U S Military Academy at West Point Col Cole C Kingseed who succeeds masterfully in capturing the essence of combat leadership through the actions of this citizen warrior Although Dawson was an Army officer the lessons his journal offer cut across service lines to help readers understand what makes a good frontline commander The book is published in cooperation with the Association of the U S Army Target Tokyo James M. Scott,2015-03-31 Finalist for the 2016 Pulitzer Prize in History Like Lauren Hillebrand s Unbroken Target Tokyo brings to life an indelible era Ben Cosgrove The Daily Beast On April 18 1942 sixteen U S Army bombers under the command of daredevil pilot Jimmy Doolittle lifted off from the deck of the USS Hornet on a one way mission to pummel Japan s factories refineries and dockyards in retaliation for their attack on Pearl Harbor The raid buoyed America s morale and prompted an ill fated Japanese attempt to seize Midway that turned the tide of the war But it came at a horrific cost an estimated 250 000 Chinese died in retaliation by the Japanese Deeply researched and brilliantly written Target Tokyo has been hailed as the definitive account of one of America s most daring military operations Submarine Stories Paul L Stillwell,2013-05-11 Culled from many never before published narratives and oral histories conducted under the auspices of the U S Naval Institute Submarine Stories presents nearly five dozen first person accounts from men who were involved with gasoline and diesel powered submarines during the twentieth and twenty first centuries The story of these boats their technological evolution and tactical value is also the story of the men who went to sea in them The accounts illustrate the human aspects of serving in diesel boats the training operations in peacetime and war liberty exploits humorous sidelights and special feelings of bonding and camaraderie that grew among shipmates Included here are some familiar names Slade Cutter who earned four Navy Crosses as a skipper in World War II describes the process that made him a capable submariner Dennis Wilkinson first skipper of the nuclear powered Nautilus in the 1950s tells of being in the first missile firing submarine in the 1940s Robert McNitt recalls his experiences as executive officer to Medal of Honor skipper Gene Fluckey Among the other submariners who present their personal memories are Jerry Beckley contemplating the possibility

Radio History Short Stories Spurgeon G. Roscoe, 2023-08-23 It might be hard to imagine the life of a radio officer more than fifty years ago while flying a plane or travelling on ships such as the Royal Navy s HMS Bounty across vast stretches of sea navigating to far flung destinations Author Spurgeon Spud G Roscoe lived that life from the age of seventeen learning the breadth and depth of telecommunications which steadily evolved from flags and Morse code to more sophisticated systems In Radio History Short Stories Roscoe shares his unmatched stories of his life and work with wry humour and encyclopedic knowledge The tales in this book are certainly entertaining in their vibrant detail But more than that they serve to preserve the complex and little known history of the radio operator Written as somewhat of a memoir while delving into some fictional accounts Radio History Short Stories is a companion book to Roscoe s previously published nonfiction work Radio History Ship to Shore a treatise on ships navigational aids and communications systems over the centuries

Looking for the Good War Elizabeth D. Samet, 2021-11-30 A remarkable book from its title and subtitle to its last words A stirring indictment of American sentimentality about war Robert G Kaiser The Washington Post In Looking for the Good War Elizabeth D Samet reexamines the literature art and culture that emerged after World War II bringing her expertise as a professor of English at West Point to bear on the complexity of the postwar period in national life She exposes the confusion about American identity that was expressed during and immediately after the war and the deep national ambivalence toward war violence and veterans all of which were suppressed in subsequent decades by a dangerously sentimental attitude toward the United States exceptional history and destiny Samet finds the war's ambivalent legacy in some of its most heavily mythologized figures the war correspondent epitomized by Ernie Pyle the character of the erstwhile G I turned either cop or criminal in the pulp fiction and feature films of the late 1940s the disaffected Civil War veteran who looms so large on the screen in the Cold War Western and the resurgent military hero of the post Vietnam period Taken together these figures reveal key elements of postwar attitudes toward violence liberty and nation attitudes that have shaped domestic and foreign policy and that respond in various ways to various assumptions about national identity and purpose established or affirmed by World War II As the United States reassesses its roles in Afghanistan and the Middle East the time has come to rethink our national mythology the way that World War II shaped our sense of national destiny our beliefs about the use of American military force throughout the world and our inability to accept the realities of the twenty first century's decades of devastating conflict

Soldiers' Stories David Stutzman,2015-04-16 After the death of two dear military friends I decided that their stories and mine needed to be told as these stories disappear when we depart the earth All these stories have one thing in common the story tellers made it through their experiences and lived to tell their tales These are stories by Soldiers Sailors Marines Air force and Coast Guard with some foreign stories We tell these stories to ease painful memories and to try to explain their experiences to friends and family These stories are from the American Civil War to current conflicts and range from humorous to unbelievable and many are told over many years and many tears We also tell these stories to other veterans as they DO understand as they have been there too

Short Stories About Life in Berkeley County South Carolina William Shuler,2007-02-27 This book contains over one hundred short stories about life in Berkeley County SC You will also find some interesting pictures taken here in this county These are true stories but I used fictitious names for the main characters as I want to get the message out without hurting anyone This book will appeal to the ole folks as well as the young and will be a priceless possession in the future There will never be another book like this as most all of the characters have left Planet Earth and I am now eighty two years old The subjects in each story are different I have covered the days before and during the great depression World War II moonshine whiskey outrunning revenue agents and living through generations of crooked politicians I was born in Shulerville SC on August 4 1924 and was drafted into the army on August 4th 1943 I served twenty eight months in the military eighteen of these in Italy and eight of these were on the front lines with the 91st Infantry Division We were part of the Fifth Army under the command of General Mark Clark After my discharge from the army I went to barber college in Greenville SC I followed this trade until 1947 and then began working for Westvaco I retired from there in 1987and since then I have enjoyed my small farm and working several part time jobs I have written one book The Ole Days in Berkeley County SC which was published by 1st books on 5 13 02 I trust that you will enjoy reading these stories about life in the ole days of Berkeley County

The ^AWar Beat, Europe Steven Casey,2017-03-01 A fast paced narrative of the hard driving American war correspondents who reported the war against

Nazi Germany from the battlegrounds of North Africa Germany Italy and France and shaped the home front's perception of some of the most pivotal battles in American history The Picture Frame, and Other Stories Robert Drake, 2000 In this book of stories most never before published Robert Drake has written his most poignant collection thus far With the theme of the picture frame Drake has included people places and events of a most recent past Crowded in the picture are unforgettable images of memory and grace love and remorse But more than the characters and the subjects of the story the draw of this collection is once again Drake's use of language The language is the language of the South It is the language of humanity While the stories look back they do so without regret They were great times but so is the present From the town of Woodville to St Mark's Square in Venice Drake's powerful language draws the reader not only into the book but also into the photographs
