Witnessing Their Faith Witnessing Their Faith:

Witnessing Their Faith Jay Alan Sekulow, 2007-12-13 When it was ratified in 1791 the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States sought to protect against two distinct types of government actions that interfere with religious liberty the establishment of a national religion and interference with individual rights to practice religion Since that time no question has so bedeviled the U S Supreme Court as finding the best way to interpret and apply the Establishment Clause and the Free Exercise Clause of the First Amendment In this unique and timely book Jay Sekulow examines not only the key cases and their historical context that have shaped the law concerning church state relations but also for the first time the impact of the religious faith and practices of Supreme Court Justices who have ruled in each case Covering cases from the teaching of religion in public schools and the use of federal funds for parochial schools to today s debates about the Pledge of Allegiance and public displays of the Ten Commandments Witnessing Their Faith is essential reading for anyone interested in the history and future of religious freedom in America Transforming God's People IV: Witnessing Community Through the Years, Joyful Witness in the Muslim World (Mission in Global Community) Evelyne A. Reisacher, 2016-09-20 This up to date textbook features global perspectives on current Christian engagement with Islam equipping readers for mission among Muslims Evelyne Reisacher who has worked extensively with Muslims in Europe helps readers move from fear to joy as they share the gospel with Muslims Reisacher surveys areas where Muslims and Christians encounter one another in the twenty first century highlighting innovative models of Christian witness in everyday life Drawing on insights from global Christianity this survey takes account of diverse conceptions of Muslim Christian relations The book may surprise those who believe mission among Muslims is nearly impossible This is the first book in the Mission in Global Community series which reframes missiological themes and studies for students around the common theme of mission as partnership with others Series authors draw upon their own global experience and that of their global colleagues to illumine present realities and chart a course into the future Series editors are Scott W Sunquist and Amos Yong At Last I Can Witness! Robert Davis, 2013-03 If you are one of the millions of Christians who love the Lord but have held back from sharing your faith even when you wanted to At Last I Can Witness is the book you have been waiting for At last you ll be able to share Jesus with those in your personal Jerusalem your family relatives and friends with compassion and confidence You ll fearlessly reach out to your Judean neighbors and co workers with the Good News you have been longing to give them You ll also learn how to reach the fellow travelers in your personal Samaria your frequent flyer contacts and even your enemies to introduce them to your best friend and theirs And if you dare you may even venture out to the uttermost parts of your world to take the gospel to every creature Find out how you can go bowling or fishing camping picnicking for Jesus how to let your fingers do the walking while dialing the Good News how to write letters for God you ll even learn how to beat the Mormons and Jehovah s Witnesses at their own game and for those who love a mystery the tract that nobody is using In short you ll learn how to witness to anyone anywhere anytime and love doing it At Last I Can Witness will make the thought of sharing the Good News good news to you Called to Witness Hope Ospino, Hosffman,2023 This is a meditation about the vocation of the catechist Whether you are a seasoned catechist or considering the invitation to become one Called to Witness Hope reflects on the joy as well as the responsibilities of being someone who echoes the faith to others A catechist is first and foremost a person living the grace of Baptism in the everyday a joyful missionary disciple a passionate witness of God s love in history Starting with some thoughts on the calling to be a catechist the book invites readers to contemplate four images meant to inspire deeper appreciation for this ministry evangelizer bridge companion and prophet of hope Called to Witness Hope builds upon the impetus generated by Pope Francis s institution of the ministry of catechist in his apostolic letter Antiquum Ministerium 2021 the text of which is part of the book This book is neither a commentary on the apostolic letter nor an analysis of the specialized ministry of the instituted catechist This is a work about all catechists and for all catechists a meditation on the beauty and power of this vocation Revealing the Sacred in Asian and Pacific America Jane Iwamura,Paul Spickard,2013-10-11 Asian and Pacific Islander Americans constitute the fastest growing racial group in the United States They are also one of the most religiously diverse Through them Asian traditions such as Hinduism Sikhism Confucianism and Buddhism have been introduced into every major city and across a wide swath of Middle America The contributors to this volume provide an essential inter disciplinary resource for the study of Asian and Pacific Islander American religion Called to Witness Jerry L. Schmalenberger,1993 The Number one priority for many parishes at the present time needs to emphasize moving he new member and or new Christian from loyalty to the local organization to faithfulness in discipleship This work is an attempt to look at the evangelism side of that fellowship call from the Foreword Jerry L Schmalenberger offers insight to all congregations seeking to grow Called To Witness offers a blend of three themes These are parish program emphasis church growth methodology and disciplining In addition the author provides a helpful critique of the church growth movement Chapters focus on Reclaiming the witness Congregational witness Multicultural witness Pastoral witness Jerry L Schmalenberger Berkley California is president and professor of parish ministry at Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary and formerly a parish pastor for 29 years He served as pastor director of evangelical outreach for the Evangelical Lutheran Church and as an evangelist for many years He is in demand as a preacher and lecturer on evangelism and stewardship across the United States The Art of Surrender Robin Wagner-Pacifici,2005-10 Explores the ritual concessions as acts of warfare performances of submission demonstrations of power and representations of shifting unstable worlds The author considers the limits of sovereignty at conflict s end showing how the ways we concede loss can be as important as the ways we claim victory Theopolitics and the Era of the Witness Jane Barter,2025-06-30 Theopolitics and the Era of the Witness focuses on witnessing in the aftermath of political atrocity or genocide It offers a diachronic study of the relationship between theological forms of witnessing within Jewish and Christian traditions and public forms of witnessing in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book explores the ways in which various witnesses to political atrocity and their mediators tacitly drew on religious themes of salvation to make sense of their suffering It investigates survivor testimony and the use made of it through scholarly interpretations of testimony within the Hebrew Bible New Testament and theological and philosophical traditions within Judaism and Christianity The chapters move from a consideration of the early post Shoah writings of Paul Celan and Primo Levi through to a discussion of the Truth and Reconciliation Commissions of South Africa and Canada The author makes the case for a weak messianism or remnant witnessing as an antidote to overdetermined and politicized uses made of survivor testimonies This book makes a valuable contribution to the work of theopolitics which claims that theology despite its persistent misuse can serve a constructive and critical force within public life albeit in a chastened key

War and Memory at the Time of the Fifth Crusade Megan Cassidy-Welch, 2019-07-01 In this book Megan Cassidy Welch challenges the notion that using memories of war to articulate and communicate collective identity is exclusively a modern phenomenon War and Memory at the Time of the Fifth Crusade explores how and why remembering war came to be culturally meaningful during the early thirteenth century By the 1200s discourses of crusading were deeply steeped in the language of memory crusaders understood themselves to be acting in remembrance of Christ's sacrifice and following in the footsteps of their ancestors At the same time the foundational narratives of the First Crusade began to be transformed by vernacular histories and the advent of crusading romance Examining how the Fifth Crusade was remembered and commemorated during its triumphs and immediately after its disastrous conclusion Cassidy Welch brings a nuanced perspective to the prevailing historiography on war memory showing that remembering war was significant and meaningful centuries before the advent of the nation state This thoughtful and novel study of the Fifth Crusade shows it to be a key moment in the history of remembering war and provides new insights into medieval communication It will be invaluable reading for scholars interested in the Fifth Crusade medieval war memory and the use of war memory
