The Rescue Turn and the Politics of Holocaust Memory Natalia Aleksion, Zofia Wóycicka, Raphael Utz, 2024-03-05

While many of the essays focus on recent developments they shed light on the evolution of this phenomenon since 1945

Lives Reclaimed Mark Roseman, 2025-08-22 From the celebrated historian of Nazi Germany the story of a remarkable but completely unsung group that risked everything to help the most vulnerable In the early 1920s amidst the upheaval of Weimar Germany a small group of peaceable idealists began to meet practicing a quiet communal life focused on self improvement For the most part they had come to know each other while attending adult education classes in the city of Essen But the Bund as they called their group had lofty aspirations under the direction of their leader Artur Jacobs its members hoped to forge an ideal community that would serve as a model for society at large But with the ascent of the Nazis the Bund was forced to reevaluate its mission focusing instead on offering assistance to the persecuted despite the great risk Their activities ranged from visiting devastated Jewish families after Kristallnacht to sending illicit letters and parcels of food and clothes to deportees in concentration camps to sheltering political dissidents and Jews on the run What became of this group And how should its deeds often small seemingly insignificant acts of kindness and assistance be evaluated in the broader history of life under the Nazis Drawing on a striking set of previously unpublished letters diaries Gestapo reports other documents and his own interviews with survivors historian Mark Roseman shows how and why the Bund undertook its dangerous work It is an extraordinary story in its own right but Roseman takes us deeper encouraging us to rethink the concepts of resistance and rescue under the Nazis ideas too often hijacked by popular notions of individual heroism or political idealism Above all the Bund's story is one that sheds new light on what it meant to offer a helping hand in this dark time

Flight and Concealment Susanna Schrafstetter, 2022-09-06 Between ten thousand and twelve thousand Jews tried to escape Nazi genocide by going into hiding With the help of Jewish and non Jewish relatives friends or people completely unknown to them these U boats as they came to be known dared to lead a life underground Flight and Concealment brings to light their hidden stories Deftly weaving together personal accounts with a broader comparative look at the experiences of Jews throughout Germany historian Susanna Schrafstetter tells the story of the Jews in Munich and Upper Bavaria who fled deportation by going underground Archival sources and interviews with survivors and with the Germans who aided or exploited them reveal a complex often intimate story of hope greed and sometimes betrayal Flight and Concealment shows the options and strategies for survival of those in hiding and their helpers and discusses the ways in which some Germans enriched themselves at the expense of the refugees
