Water And Sanitation Services Public Policy And Management:

Water and Sanitation Services José Esteban Castro, Leo Heller, 2012 First Published in 2012 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company      Water and Development Ronaldo Munck, Narathius Asingwire, Honor Fagan, Consolata Kabonesa, 2015-09-15 Water has always been a crucial catalyst for human development In Africa competition among different sectors for this scarce resource remains a critical challenge to water managers and decision makers Water and Development examines a range of issues from governance to solar distillation from gender to water pumps using a range of research methods from participant observation to GIS and SPSS data analysis Throughout however there is the unifying thread of developing a participatory and sustainable approach to water which recognises it as an essential public necessity The result is essential reading both for students of development and the environment and for NGOs and policy makers seeking a robust and transformational approach to water and development      The Human Rights to Water and Sanitation Léo

Heller, 2022-05-12 This analysis of the human rights to safe drinking water and sanitation HRtWS uncovers why some groups around the world are still excluded from these rights L o Heller former United Nations Special Rapporteur on the human rights to water and sanitation draws on his own research in nine countries and reviews the theoretical legal and political issues involved The first part presents the origins of the HRtWS their legal and normative meanings and the debates surrounding them Part II discusses the drivers mainly external to the water and sanitation sector that shape public policies and explain why individuals and groups are included in or excluded from access to services In Part III public policies guided by the realization of HRtWS are addressed Part IV highlights populations and spheres of living that have been particularly neglected in efforts to promote access to services      Water Services Disputes in International Arbitration Xu

Qian, 2020-05-12 Water Services Disputes in International Arbitration Reconsidering the Nexus of Investment Protection Environment and Human Rights by Xu Qian The argument that universal access to water is a human right is based on the fact that life on Earth cannot exist without water Yet the enormous cost of building and maintaining water service infrastructure purifying monitoring quality and providing sanitation services is beyond the means of many of the States most in need Foreign investment is thus mandated hence the often acrimonious tension manifest in investor State disputes over water rights This book offers the first in depth analysis of both international treaty norms and their interpretation by arbitral tribunals applicable to investment in water and sanitation services complete with thoroughly researched recommendations for those arbitral practitioners in the eye of the storm Like no previous study the book clearly reveals how to reconcile the economic and fundamental human interests arising from investment in water and sanitation services under the international investment regime Among many vital issues the author highlights the importance of the following legitimacy of a State s alleged regulatory objectives the suitability of the measures undertaken to achieve the objective and whether there are less restrictive means available legal framework and stability of the State applicable law changes in law and emergency circumstances economic issues such as water pricing profit driven private companies reluctance to serve the poor investment tribunals generation of a regulatory and jurisprudential regime on water and sanitation services and determination of liability in relation to expropriation fair and equitable treatment and necessity Arguing that the current investment treaty and arbitral case law framework can regulate water and sanitation services if certain interpretations are favored by adjudicators the author offers viable sustainable and reasonable legal solutions A detailed annex presents cases decided before a variety of arbitral tribunals as well as relevant WTO and ICJ cases and reviews critical literature in the field The increasing number of cases involved with States regulatory measures shows that stakes around water services generate specific legal problems which are new in the world of international economic law As an incisive investigation of what has been called the incursion of investment tribunal decisions into the regulatory autonomy of host States this profound and innovative analysis provides a coherent and consistent method of review that provides greater certainty to both States and investors and deters abuse of power It will be welcomed by policymakers and stakeholders interested in the implications of globalization of water services for the capacity to adapt to climate change and will suggest ways to enable States to better manage vital water services even after privatization to foreign companies

Regenerative Sanitation Thammarat Koottatep, Peter Emmanuel Cookey, Chongrak Polprasert, 2019-02-15 This book proposes Regenerative Sanitation as the next era of sanitation management and attempts to provide a foundation for the study of sanitation on the premise that sanitation is a complex and dynamic system that comprises of social ecological technological and resource systems The preconception is that sanitation will deliver maximal benefits to society only when there exists a cyclical integration of the three subsystems to enable appropriate linkages between technological design and the delivery platform so as to achieve optimal and sustained sani solutions It also calls for the rethinking of sanitation to change the narrative towards more progressive trajectories such as resource recovery and reuse rather than just amelioration It explores the contributions to food security livelihood support urban regeneration rural development and even local economies A new paradigm theory and ten principles for ensuring practical and effective sanitation solutions and management is presented In addition is a unique conceptual framework applicable to both developed and developing countries and to all stages processes and cycles of delivering sanitation solutions that could critically evaluate analyse and provide credible adequate and appropriate sanitation solutions All of which culminates in a strategic and practical application platform called Sanitation 4 0 that advocates for total rejuvenation and comprehensive overhaul with eight key strategic considerations for the implementation Regenerative Sanitation A New Paradigm For Sanitation 4 0 is inter and trans disciplinary and encourages collaboration between engineers scientists technologists social scientists and others to provide effective and practical user centred solutions It includes relevant case studies examples exercise and future research recommendations It is written as both a textbook for researchers and students as well as a practitioners guide for policymakers and professionals

Democracy and Global Water Politics in Historical Perspective Jose Esteban Castro, 2024-12-23 This book addresses water privatization from a historical sociological perspective and argues against the unrelenting imposition of neoprivatist water politics worldwide Water is essential for life but it is also a source of economic and political power Prevailing water politics continues to erode the conditions of dignified living conditions of millions of human beings around the world including many living in Western capitalist democracies The book revisits water related myths fake truths and authoritarian practices promoted or employed by International Financial Institutions governments and other powerful actors to keep enforcing long failed policies grounded on ideological dogmas and short term interests and argues for the substantive democratization of water politics and management It rejects claims of scientific neutrality from academics and other actors across the political spectrum who are co responsible for the perpetuation of these conditions interrogating the ethics of scientific political pragmatism

Planning Major Infrastructure Tim Marshall, 2013 This book analyses the planning and policy world of major infrastructure as it is moving now in Europe and the UK Have some countries managed to generate genuine consensus on how the large changes are progressed What can we learn from the different ways countries manage these challenges to inform better spatial planning and more intelligent political steering Case studies of the key features of policy and planning approaches in France Germany the Netherlands Spain and the UK are at the core of Planning Major Infrastructure This includes the different regimes introduced in England and Wales and Scotland brought in by reforms since 2006 High speed rail renewable energy deployment water management waste treatment all raise critical planning issues The case studies connect to the big issues of principle which haunt this field of public policy how can democratic legitimacy be secured How can ecological and economic transitions be managed What is the appropriate role of the national government in each of these areas as against other levels What part has the EU played and should it be involved in the future These are some of the central themes raised in this innovating exploration of this currently high profile field

The Berlin Reader Matthias Bernt, Britta Grell, Andrej Holm, 2014-04-09 By drawing together widely dispersed yet central writings the Berlin Reader is an essential resource for everyone interested in urban development in one of the most interesting and important metropolises in Europe It provides scholars as well as students journalists and visitors with an overview of the most central discussions on the tremendous changes Berlin experienced since the fall of the wall It covers a wide range of issues including inner city renewal housing and the local economy gentrification and other urban conflicts The book breaks ground in two dimensions first by offering also non German speakers an insight into the very controversial debates after reunification and second by highlighting the ambivalent consequences of Berlin's urban transformation in the past decades

Water Services Management and Governance Tapio Katko, Petri S. Juuti, Klaas Schwartz, 2012-10-14 Water Services Management and Governance focuses on water services water supply wastewater services and deals with connections between water resources and services and water resources It covers water supply mainly in urban communities sanitation and pollution control and water resources and their linkages to water services This book is divided into four key sections relating to governance frameworks technology and socio ecological interactions government and governance and long terms policies The chapters analyse the complexity of the water services sector based on a historical analysis of developments within the sector The underlying conviction is that only by understanding past trends processes and developments can the current situation in the water services be understood Only through this understanding can policies for sustainable water services in the future be formulated The four key sections relate to governance frameworks technology and socio ecological interactions government and governance and long terms policies Water Services Management and Governance raises awareness that an understanding of the past is a necessity to explore potential probable and preferable futures It is an essential basis for water sector reforms in any country region or community The book is written for experts in water utilities ministries municipalities NGOs donor agencies private companies and regulators as well as students and researchers in water policy and governance and the management of water resources services and infrastructure Editors Dr Petri S Juuti is a historian and Adjunct Professor in the universities of Tampere Oulu and Turku Tapio S Katko Civil engineer Adjunct Professor UNESCO Chairholder in Sustainable Water Services at Tampere University of Technology Finland Klaas Schwartz Senior Lecturer Urban Water Governance in the Department of Integrated Water Systems and Governance at the UNESCO IHE Institute for Water Education Delft the Netherlands Assistant Editor Riikka P Rajala Environmental Engineer Post Doctoral researcher in University of Tampere Finland Routledge Handbook of Water Law and Policy Alistair Rieu-Clarke, Andrew Allan, Sarah Hendry, 2017-02-24 Water plays a key role in addressing the most pressing global challenges of our time including climate change adaptation food and energy security environmental sustainability and the promotion of peace and stability This comprehensive handbook explores the pivotal place of law and policy in efforts to ensure that water enables positive responses to these challenges and provides a basis for sound governance The book reveals that significant progress has been made in recent decades to strengthen the governance of water resource management at different scales including helping to address international and sub national conflicts over transboundary water resources It demonstrates that effective laws and policies are fundamental drivers for the safe equitable and sustainable utilization of water However it is also shown that what might constitute an effective law or policy related to water resources management is still hotly debated As such the handbook provides an important and definitive reference text for all studying water governance and management Neoliberalism and Unequal Development Roser

Manzanera-Ruiz, Carmen Lizárraga, Fernando López-Castellano, 2022-04-07 Since the 1970s neoliberalism has evolved from ideology to political programme from political programme to public policy and from public policy to constitutional rule This process of change has been made possible through the endorsement of an uncritical a historical and apolitical economic theory that legitimized technocratic despotism financial deregulation precarious labour and constitutional political emptying This book examines critical perspectives in mainstream neoliberal development analysis It examines the neoliberal experiment as a global historical construct through the cases of Africa Latin America and Europe The analysis begins in 1980 with the Structural Adjustment Plans in Latin America and Africa followed in 1990 by Maastricht in the case of Europe and the euphoric shift that took place typified by the Africa Rising narrative which attempts to promote the idea of an economically emerging continent It also considers the weakness of the state resulting from neo liberal austerity and fiscal stabilization policies which have amplified the inability to collectively deal with the social economic and political impact of the COVID 19 crisis One of the key features of the book is the extensive comparative analysis between regions using case studies including examples from African countries The authors connect the different regional perspectives included in the book in a clear and coherent way such that it will appeal to students and scholars interested in the social economic and political outcomes of globalization and will also be of interest to official development agencies and third sector organizations in Latin America Sub Saharan Africa and Europe Encyclopedia of Public Administration and Public Policy - 5 Volume Set
