years in the role of race in Western culture scholars have neglected much of the body of work produced in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries by black intellectuals For example while DuBois thoughts about Africa may be familiar to contemporary academics those of his important precursors and contemporaries are not widely known Similarly although contemporary figures such as Martin Bernal Molefi Assante and other Afrocentrists are the subject of heated debate such debates are rarely illuminated by an awareness of the traditions that preceded them Race and The Writing of History redresses this imbalance using Bernal s Black Athena and its critics as an introduction to the historical inquiries of African American intellectuals and many of their African counterparts Keita examines the controversial legacy of writing history in America and offers a new perspective on the challenge of building new historiographies and epistemologies As a result this book sheds new light on how ideas about race and racism have shaped the stories we tell about ourselves

The World of Science Education Femi S. Otulaja, Meshach B. Ogunniyi, 2017-09-12 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on research in science education in mostly former British colonies in Sub Saharan Africa and the scholarship that most closely support this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Sub Saharan Africa rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next
