Torture As Tort Comparative Perspectives On The Development Of Transnational Tort Litigation:

Torture as Tort Comparative Perspectives on the Development of Transnational Human Rights Litigation, 2015 Globalization and Health Belinda Bennett, George F. Tomossy, 2006-06-21 Within contemporary society globalization has emerged as a key concern at the centre of ethical legal and policy debates relating to health care Conflicts between public interests and individual rights the challenge of regulating health professionals and access to health services and the effects of a global market all feature prominently in these discussions As a result of globalization these issues can no longer be understood solely within the political boundaries that define traditional notions of individuals and communities Rather solutions demand a global conception of rights and obligations which in turn requires new approaches to health policy formulation and a reevaluation of existing ethical and legal frameworks In essence the impact of globalization on human health is testing the robustness of modern regulatory systems legal doctrines and ethical paradigms PUBLIC HEALTH DEVELOPING GLOBAL CONCERNS The interconnectedness of the global economy presents new challenges in public health While globalization has facilitated improvements in health care it has also created new hazards and avenues for the exploitation of vulnerable persons It is becoming increasingly apparent that both national and international responses are required Indeed as the chapters in this section convey public health is rightly a global concern Globalization has led to a sharing of both risks and responsibilities in public health Belinda Bennett reminds us of the ease with which infectious diseases can spread within the global community given the speed of modern travel and trade Hague Yearbook of International Law / Annuaire de La Haye de droit international, Vol. 36 (2023) Jure Vidmar, 2024-10-02 The aim of the Hague Yearbook of International Law is to offer a platform for review of new developments in the field of international law In addition it devotes attention to developments in the international law institutions based in the international City of Peace and Justice The Hague Beyond Territoriality Gunther Handl, Joachim Zekoll, Peer Zumbansen, 2012 This book traces the evolution of transnational legal authority in the course of globalization Representative case studies buttress its conclusion that today transnational authority is multifaceted a phenomenon that renders unreliable the concepts of territoriality extraterritoriality as global governance markers Outsourcing War and Peace Laura Anne Dickinson, 2011-01-01 This timely book describes the services that are now delivered by private contractors and the threat this trend poses to core public values of human rights democratic accountability and transparency Liability for Transboundary Pollution at the Intersection of Public and Private International Law Guillaume Laganière, 2022-02-24 This book focuses on how public and private international law address civil liability for transboundary pollution In public international law civil liability treaties promote the implementation of minimum procedural standards in domestic tort law This approach implicitly relies on private international law to facilitate civil litigation against transboundary polluters Yet this connection remains poorly understood Filling the gap this book engages in a meaningful dialogue between the two areas and explores how domestic private international law can reflect the policies developed in international environmental law It begins with an investigation of civil liability in international environmental law It then identifies preferable rules of civil jurisdiction foreign judgments and choice of law for environmental damage using Canadian private international law as a case study and making extensive references to European law Liability for transboundary pollution is a contentious issue of the law both in scholarship and practice international lawyers both private and public as well as environmental lawyers will welcome this important work

Human Rights in Development, Volume 8 Martin Scheinin, Markku Suksi, 2021-11-29 The current edition of Human Rights in Development is the fourteenth in the series Over the years the structure of the yearbook has shifted from that of a journal to a thematic anthology The theme of this year's volume is Empowerment Participation Accountability and Non Discrimination Operationalising a Human Rights Based Approach to Development The Human Rights in Development Yearbook series takes its starting point in a development perspective and aims to be topical comprehensive and multidisciplinary exemplifying the cross fertilisation of theoretical and practical approaches Contributions are sought from researchers and practitioners in both recipient and donor countries To ensure an increased focus on Southern perspectives the editorial group is in a process of enlargement so as to include representatives from recipient countries Human Rights in Development is the result of a joint research project born out of longstanding cooperation between the following research institutes and centres for human rights the Christian Michelsen Institute Bergen the Danish Institute for Human Rights Copenhagen the Icelandic Human Rights Center Reykjavik the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute of Human Rights Vienna the Netherlands Institute of Human Rights Utrecht the Norwegian Centre for Human Rights Oslo the Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law Lund and the bo Akademi University Institute for Human Rights Turku bo As in previous years the publication is aimed at a broad audience including government agencies donor agencies embassies the press non governmental organisations and the academic community

National Courts and the International Rule of Law André Nollkaemper, 2012-10-11 This book explores the way domestic courts contribute to the maintenance of the international of law by providing judicial control over the exercises of public powers that may conflict with international law The main focus of the book will be on judicial control of exercise of public powers by states Key cases that will be reviewed in this book and that will provide empirical material for the main propositions include Hamdan in which the US Supreme Court reviewed detention by the United States of suspected terrorists against the 1949 Geneva Conventions Adalah in which the Supreme Court of Israel held that the use of local residents by Israeli soldiers in arresting a wanted terrorist is unlawful under international law and the Narmada case in which the Indian Supreme Court reviewed the legality of displacement of people in connection with the building of a dam in the river Narmada under the ILO Indigenous and Tribal Populations Convention 1957 nr 107 This book explores what it is that international law requires expects or aspires that domestic courts do Against this backdrop it maps patterns of domestic practice in the actual or possible application of international law and determines what such patterns mean for the protection of the international rule of law Challenges in International Human Rights Law Menno T. Kamminga, 2017-10-23 The main challenges within international human rights law are generally thought to be in the fields of transitional justice non state actors terrorism development poverty and environmental degradation This volume of articles not only covers these mainstream challenges but also a wider and more systematic range including justiciability of social and economic rights extraterritoriality health care and investment arbitration The key literature selected for this collection includes articles that have appeared in mainstream journals and books from leading publishers as well as papers that have appeared in lesser known journals hard to find books and UN documents Some of these are classic essays whilst others are more recent additions that reflect the current state of the debate The papers are put into context by a specially commissioned introduction by the volume editor This volume is an invaluable resource for human rights lawyers in search of the key literature in fields outside their own specialization as well as for students researchers and lecturers seeking an overview of the challenges in human rights law
