Elizabeth Bishop in Brazil and After George Monteiro, 2012-09-18 The life and career of American poet and writer Elizabeth Bishop falls into two distinct segments the pre Brazil years and the Brazil years and beyond A creature of displacement from childhood Bishop traveled to Brazil at the age of 40 for a two week trip and unexpectedly stayed for most of the next two decades a sojourn that marked her work indelibly This study explores how Bishop s personal and literary experience in Brazil influenced her work culturally historically and linguistically while she was in Brazil and following her return to the United States Focusing on the Brazilian characteristics of Bishop s work as well as some of the major poems she composed before settling in Brazil this volume offers fresh perspective on one of the 20th century s most celebrated writers

The History of Cartography, Volume 6 Mark Monmonier, 2015-05-18 For more than thirty years the History of Cartography Project has charted the course for scholarship on cartography bringing together research from a variety of disciplines on the creation dissemination and use of maps Volume 6 Cartography in the Twentieth Century continues this tradition with a groundbreaking survey of the century just ended and a new full color encyclopedic format The twentieth century is a pivotal period in map history The transition from paper to digital formats led to previously unimaginable dynamic and interactive maps Geographic information systems radically altered cartographic institutions and reduced the skill required to create maps Satellite positioning and mobile communications revolutionized wayfinding Mapping evolved as an important tool for coping with complexity organizing knowledge and influencing public opinion in all parts of the globe and at all levels of society Volume 6 covers these changes comprehensively while thoroughly demonstrating the far reaching effects of maps on science technology and society and vice versa The lavishly produced volume includes more than five hundred articles accompanied by more than a thousand images Hundreds of expert contributors provide both original research often based on their own participation in the developments they describe and interpretations of larger trends in cartography Designed for use by both scholars and the general public this definitive volume is a reference work of first resort for all who study and love maps

The poems and songs, and correspondence, of Robert Tannahill, with life and notes by D. Semple Robert Tannahill, 1876 Citizen Poet Eavan Boland, 2024-09-03 A landmark volume of essays from Ireland s leading feminist poet New York Times Book Review that celebrates a transformative vision of womanhood nation and poetry Eavan Boland was a trailblazing poet critic teacher and essayist Carving a path for the next generation she broke open the male dominated canon of Irish literature and mapped her poetic journey through the contours of life as a mother daughter and citizen This generous and wise volume contains essays selected from Object Lessons 1995 and A Journey with Two Maps 2011 later writings addressing the changing nature of poetry and a draft of a reflective memoir called Daughter on which Boland was working at the time of her death A compelling blend of memoir analysis and argument Citizen Poet traces the arc of Boland s pioneering view of nationhood through the lens of womanhood
