Torbic,2012 TRBs National Cooperative Highway Research Program NCHRP Report 737 Design Guidance for High Speed to Low Speed Transitions Zones for Rural Highways presents guidance for designing the transition from a high speed rural highway to a lower speed section typically approaching a small town The report includes a methodology for assessing these highway sections and a catalog of potential treatments for addressing problems Publisher s description Parents and School Technology Gerard Giordano,2021-05-15 Parents had reasons to be alarmed about school technology They had been warned that these abuses could influence their children s academic progress motivation communication creativity critical thinking job preparedness and even their safety at school They had been told that it was linked to controversial instruction faulty testing inadequate textbooks and invasive spyware Upset by these claims the parents had numerous questions This book identifies their questions the groups to which they directed them the answers they elicited and the educational changes they prompted Livable Streets 2.0 Bruce Appleyard,2021-03-22 Livable Streets 2 0 offers a thorough examination of the struggle between automobiles residents pedestrians and other users of streets along with evidence based practical strategies for redesigning city street networks that support urban livability In 1981 when Donald Appleyard s Livable Streets was published it was globally recognized as a groundbreaking work one of the most influential urban design books of its time Unfortunately he was killed a year later by a speeding drunk driver This latest update Livable Streets 2 0 revisited by his son Bruce updates the topic with the latest research new case studies and best human centered practices for creating more livable streets for all It is essential reading for those who influence future directions in city and transportation planning urban design and community regeneration and placemaking Incorporates the most current empirical research on urban transportation and land use practices that support the need for more livable communities Includes recent case studies from around the world on successful projects campaigns programs and other efforts Contains new coverage of vulnerable populations Envisioning Better Communities Randall Arendt,2017-11-08 The author s work has shaped a generation of planners designers and landscape architects In this book the author brings his insights to a broader public with a profusely illustrated demonstration of how local officials planning commissioners and everyday citizens can work to make their communities more attractive more habitable and more sustainable Despite the widespread acceptance of good design and planning principles throughout the professions too many of our towns and rural areas remain needlessly ugly and inefficient In side by side comparisons of similar places and kinds of buildings the author shows that we need not live amid sprawling characterless visual blight Simple design choices and effective municipal decisions can have tremendous impacts on the quality of our communities Written in the author s well known clear accessible nontechnical style this book creates a sense of hope for those who face the everyday challenges of working with developers and landowners to create places that make economic environmental and aesthetic sense The author shows us that with diligence thoughtfulness and care we can make our communities better in countless ways Cycling for Sustainable Cities Ralph Buehler,John Pucher,2021-02-02 How to make city cycling the most sustainable form of urban transportation safe practical and convenient for all cyclists Cycling is the most sustainable mode of urban transportation practical for most short and medium distance trips commuting to and from work or school shopping visiting friends going to the doctor s office It s good for your health spares the environment a trip s worth of auto emissions and is economical for both public and personal budgets Cycling with all its benefits should not be reserved for the fit the spandex clad and the daring Cycling for Sustainable Cities shows how to make city cycling safe practical and convenient for all cyclists Urban Bikeway Design Guide, Second Edition National Association of City Transportation Officials,2014-03-24 NACTO s Urban Bikeway Design Guide quickly emerged as the preeminent resource for designing safe protected bikeways in cities across the United States It has been completely re designed with an even more accessible layout The Guide offers updated graphic profiles for all of its bicycle facilities a subsection on bicycle boulevard planning and design and a survey of materials used for green color in bikeways The Guide continues to build upon the fast changing state of the practice at the local level It responds to and accelerates innovative street design and practice around the nation

Law, Space, and the Vehicular Environment Sarah Marusek,2022-11-15 This book examines the paved road as a liminal space and legal frontier for enlivened everyday struggles over property power and place definition Through pavement itself and the pavement based practices of pavementalities and pavementeering the road is legally framed as a place for movement Paved terrain is a site of dynamism between law and place that engenders the road as legal metaphor by calling forth the kinetic notion of jurisprudence in which law can be understood through the fluidity of everyday life In Western and particularly American society roads are a material locus of governance in which rights of way are determined communicated and enforced However roads also constitute a site of resistance or disruption beyond regulation Addressing phenomena such as travel political protest public memory and community governance this book explores the paved medium of asphalt as a complex surface for legality that constitutively frames order against disorder involving jurisdiction tensions property ownership and cultural identities in vehicular environments The target audience of this book are those students and scholars who consider how law works in society whether through frameworks of auto mobility and legal geography or through the interdisciplinary approaches of legal semiotics legal culture and or new materialism
