Recognizing Green Skills Through Non-formal Learning Margarita Pavlova, Madhu Singh, 2022-08-09 This open access book looks into the roles and practices of small and micro enterprises in formal and informal economies across seven countries and one territory in terms of how they contribute to environmental and sustainable development and green skills promotion. By taking into account the perspectives in these four sectors catering automotive waste management and polyvinyl chloride production this book maps environmental green practices in the region identifying mechanisms used to assess existing skills i.e. knowledge skills and competencies and evaluating the potential for green skills inclusion in recognition validation and accreditation Issues in Career, Technical and Vocational Education and Training Halden A. Morris, 2015-12-15 Can Career Technical and Vocational Education and Training CTVET serve as a tool for poverty alleviation and solve economic problems for nations CTVET include a wide range of learning experiences which are relevant to the world of work and which may occur in a variety of learning contexts including educational institutions and the workplace These include learning designed to develop the skills for practicing particular occupations and careers as well as learning designed to prepare for entry or re entry into the world of work in general Adopted from Morris 2015 and UNESCO 2006

Multilingual Learning and Language Supportive Pedagogies in Sub-Saharan Africa Elizabeth J. Erling, John Clegg, Casmir M. Rubagumya, Colin Reilly, 2021-07-01 This edited collection provides unprecedented insight into the emerging field of multilingual education in Sub Saharan Africa SSA Multilingual education is claimed to have many benefits amongst which are that it can improve both content and language learning especially for learners who may have low ability in the medium of instruction and are consequently struggling to learn The book represents a range of Sub Saharan school contexts and describes how multilingual strategies have been developed and implemented within them to support the learning of content and language It looks at multilingual learning from several points of view including translanguaging or the use of multiple languages and especially African languages for learning and language supportive pedagogy or the implementation of a distinct pedagogy to support learners working through the medium of a second language The book puts forward strategies for creating materials classroom environments and teacher education programmes which support the use of all of a student's languages to improve language and content learning The contexts which the book describes are challenging including low school resourcing poverty and low literacy in the home and school policy which militates against the use of African languages in school The volume also draws on multilingual education approaches which have been successfully carried out in higher resource countries and lend themselves to being adapted for use in SSA It shows how multilingual learning can bring about transformation in education and provides inspiration for how these strategies might spread and be further developed to improve learning in schools in SSA and beyond Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
