War Against The Animals A Novel:

War Against the Animals Paul Russell, 2025-06-25 From the author of the acclaimed Boys of Life and the award winning The Coming Storm comes a novel about a small town in upstate New York riven by tensions between the old residents and the newcomers Cameron Barnes formerly of New York City lives in a small town in upstate New York He s regained a measure of his health after nearly dying but his long term lover has moved away and he now faces the daunting prospect of relearning how to live with the prospect of a future alone As a tentative step Cameron hires two local young men brothers Kyle and Jesse Vanderhof to do some renovation work on his property With the area s depressed economy the town s changing population and recent deaths in the family the Vanderhofs are facing hard times and tough decisions The older brother Kyle sees an opportunity in Cameron pushing Jesse to befriend him and take advantage of his boredom and directionlessness Caught between the opposing worlds embodied by Cameron and Kyle Jesse is torn by his brother s demands community and family expectations and his own mix of volatile contradictory emotions Mirroring the town s own increasingly tense split between long term residents and new arrivals this trio moves inexorably towards crisis and potential tragedy that will transform each of their lives Widely praised for his deft prose and brilliant characterizations Paul Russell has become regarded as one of the finest contemporary American novelists Now with War Against the Animals he returns with his richest most accomplished and most compelling novel yet War Against the Animals Paul Russell, 2003-08-27

The War against Animals Dinesh Wadiwel, 2015-06-24 Are non human animals our friends or enemies In this provocative book Dinesh Wadiwel argues that our mainstay relationships with billions of animals are essentially hostile The War against Animals asks us to interrogate this sustained violence across its intersubjective institutional and epistemic dimensions Drawing from Foucault Spivak and Derrida The War against Animals argues that our sovereign claim of superiority over other animals is founded on nothing else but violence Through innovative readings of Locke and Marx Dinesh Wadiwel argues that property in animals represents a bio political conquest that aims to secure animals as the spoils of war The goal for pro animal advocacy must be to challenge this violent sovereignty and recognize animal resistance through forms of counter conduct and truce The American Novel of War Wallis R. Sanborn, III, 2012-10-30 In song verse narrative and dramatic form war literature has existed for nearly all of recorded history Accounts of war continue to occupy American bestseller lists and the stacks of American libraries This innovative work establishes the American novel of war as its own sub genre within American war literature creating standards by which such works can be classified and critically and popularly analyzed Each chapter identifies a defining characteristic analyzes existing criticism and explores the characteristic in American war novels of record Topics include violence war rhetoric the death of noncombatants and terrain as an enemy

Creaturely Forms in Contemporary Literature Dominic O'Key, 2022-01-13 We are living through a period of planetary crisis a time in which the mass production and consumption of some animals is made possible by the mass extinction of many others What is the role of literature in responding to this war against animals How might literary criticism read for animals In Creaturely Forms in Contemporary Literature Dominic O Key develops the bold argument that deep attention to literary form enables us to rethink human animal relations Through chapters on W G Sebald J M Coetzee and Mahasweta Devi as well as close readings of works by Arundhati Roy and Richard Powers O Key reveals how literary forms can unsettle the fictions of human supremacy and craft alternative creaturely forms of relation An intervention into both the humanism of literary theory and the representational focus of animal studies this provocative work makes the case for a new formalism in light of our obligation to fellow creatures

The War Against Nonhuman Animals Stacy Banwell, 2023-05-09 We are currently engaged in an existential species war against nonhuman animals This book argues that during this war nonhuman animals should be granted legal personhood and treated as protected persons rather than the property of protected persons The main argument is that War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity rape forced pregnancy and other acts of sexual violence are being committed within the meat egg and dairy industries Avoiding dreaded comparisons the book explores shared sources of oppression between human and nonhuman animals who are subject to the expressions and consequences of reproductive violence It asks what drives and facilitates the war against nonhuman animals And what are the global consequences of this war Throughout it demonstrates how racism sexism and speciesism informs both intrahuman violence and the violence s of the animal industrial complex Ultimately the book asks us to reconsider what it means to be human

Esthetic Experiments Marek Wojtaszek, 2014-08-26 Contemporary American landscape is wrought with ongoing processes and phenomena of technicization observable at the intersections of multiple layers of society This book brings to attention their cultural and political aspects emphasizing timeliness and necessity of academic intervention into and evaluation of their specificity and ramifications Presenting critical and analytical account of cultural narratives which define speak of and use diverse technologies of writing sound media representations surveillance war the texts compiled in this volume investigate the coalescence between technological production on the one hand and the textual on the other The idea of the book responds to the current academic appeal inspired by postmodern questioning of the foundations and realized most importantly by deconstruction to dismantle one of the constitutive pillars of Western civilization namely between techne and episteme In their interpretative mode the texts proceed largely experimentally bridging the gap between techne and episteme In doing so they endeavor to reformulate and complexify an experience of American culture The book aims to clarify and exemplify that the junction of text and technology implies that meanings are embedded in a material Consequently the publication introduces and popularizes the assumption that American cultural experience emerges as a genuine experiment of an esthetic nature

Fiction and Truth in Transition Oscar Hemer, 2012 What can fiction tell us about the world that journalism and science cannot This simple yet vast question is the starting point for an interrogation of the relationship between literary fiction and society's dramatic transformation in South Africa and Argentina over the past several decades The resulting discursive text borders on both journalism and literature incorporating reportage essay and memoir Series Freiburg Studies in Social Anthropology Vol 34

Animals in Literary Education John Drew, 2025-09-24 This book examines the complicated place of animals in literary analysis and education and shows how an ethically engaged approach to animals representation could be pursued to challenge anthropocentrism and cultivate multispecies empathy Other species are represented in the literary education canon including farmed animals Yet the animals are typically anthropomorphized to guide students toward humanist readings and away from consideration of animals experiences or subjectivities This reproduces the idea that animals are mere objects meant to be exploited for human purposes even metaphorical and educational ones John Drew develops the term anthro allegory to capture and critique the process through which students are taught to read animal literary representations exclusively as symbolic analogues for humans and human themes The concept serves as an analytical lens for critically interrogating significant texts taught across educational levels and exposing the deeply engrained educational anthropocentrism that silences animal issues even when animals are represented Crucially Drew identifies texts and pedagogical strategies that can help cultivate a literary educational animal ethic that simultaneously encourages analytical rigour and multispecies concern
