We Make Beer Inside The Spirit And Artistry Of Americas Craft Brewers:

We Make Beer Sean Lewis, 2014-09-23 Explores the evolution and nature of America's craft brewing movement from the craftsmen who apply their creativity to expanding the beer landscape to the beverages its brewers have revived including old English ales and Belgian lambics

We Make Beer Sean Lewis, 2014-09-23 An eye opening journey into craft beer making in America and what you can find in the quest to brew the perfect pint Sean Lewis was living in Boston when he first set foot inside the Blue Hills Brewery He was writing for BeerAdvocate magazine about America's craft brewers and the then fledgling Blue Hills was his first assignment Lewis was immediately struck by the spirit of the brewers he met there That visit would lead him first to an intensive study of beer brewing and later to a nation spanning journey into the heart and the art of American beer making What Lewis found along the way was a group of like minded craftsmen creators who weren't afraid to speak their minds who saw their competitors as cherished friends A group who takes sheer joy in their work and who seeks the same kind of balance in their lives as they do in the barrels they brew He shared pints with pioneering upstarts like Paul and Kim Kavulak of Nebraska Brewing Company and talked shop with craft beer stalwarts like Ken Grossman of Sierra Nevada and bombastic innovators like Greg Koch the Arrogant Bastard behind Stone Brewing Co He found in them and others a community that put its soul into its work who sees beer making as an extension of themselves We Make Beer is not just a celebration of American brewing but of the spirit that binds brewers together It's about what you can discover in yourself when you put your hands and your heart into crafting the perfect pint

True Beer Timothy Sprinkle, 2016-08-02 In the 1970s and 80s the brewing industry shifted was from large corporate suppliers to smaller independent microbrewers typified by producers such as the Boston Beer Company and Sierra Nevada Brewing Company Today the market is going even smaller with tiny independent brewers setting up shop in neighborhood brew houses nationwide focusing on crafting unique flavorful brews specifically for their extremely local clientele The reality is that beer is in the midst of a renaissance in this country driven by a new class of these dedicated craft nanobrewers and growing communities of drinkers looking for something more from their daily brew something higher quality more unique more local These microbrewers rent out small spaces or buy industrial equipment to install in their garages They're accountants middle school teachers and plumbers who are passionate about beer and who dedicate their free time to producing three or so barrels of their own brew at a time They sell their bottles to close friends and gift it to family members for birthdays and holidays They enjoy what they do and they're proud of their product What's it like inside these small time brewing operations What happens behind the scenes What goes into making high end craft beer on a small scale True Beer takes an on the ground look at the ultra small side of the craft brewing movement from the inside out by profiling a number of independent American breweries in detail and using that as a jumping off point to examine the art and science of brewing the local farmers and providers behind the scenes the market itself as well as national trends in nanobrewing and modern craft beer production Skyhorse Publishing along with our Good
