Gold, 2016-12-27 As 1979 dawned President Jimmy Carter extended diplomatic recognition to the People's Republic of China upending longstanding U S foreign policy in Asia For thirty years after the triumph of Mao's revolution the United States continued to recognize the claim of the Republic of China based on Taiwan to govern the entire country Intricate economic and cultural relations existed between Washington and Taipei backed by a Mutual Defense Treaty While Carter withdrew from the treaty satisfying a core Chinese condition for diplomatic relations he presented Congress with legislation to allow other ties with Taiwan to continue unofficially Many in Congress took issue with the President Generally supportive of his policy to normalize relations with China they worried about Taiwan's future Believing Carter's legislation was incomplete especially regarding Taiwan's security they held extensive hearings and lengthy debates substantially strengthening the bill The President ensured the measure comported with the terms of normalization He negotiated with Congress to produce legislation he could sign and Beijing could at least
