

Welcome back to school!

Hi there!

I'm Mrs. Smith, and I'll be your child's teacher for the 2022-2023 school year; I couldn't be more excited!

A quick introduction to me! I've been living the dream and teaching for x number of years! I've taught grades XYZ at three schools! I love what I do and am looking forward to teaching your little!

The best ways to contact me should you need anything are via email: teacher@district.com phone: School phone Remind/ Class Dojo/ Google voice.

I will respond within 24 hours during the week and for contact, over the weekend, I'll respond as soon as possible Monday (or Tuesday for holiday weekends!)

Here are a few important reminders as we go throughout the school year!

Allergies in our classroom include: (Please avoid sending your child with snacks that contain these!)

Beyranevand, 2021-02-03 How to build productive relationships in math education I wasn t taught this way I can t help my child These are common refrains from today s parents and guardians who are often overwhelmed confused worried and frustrated about how to best support their children with what they see as the new math The problem has been compounded by the shift to more distance learning in response to a global pandemic Partnering With Parents in Elementary School Math provides educators with long overdue guidance on how to productively partner and communicate with families about their children's mathematics learning. It includes reproducible surveys, letters, and planning documents that can be used to improve the home-school relationship, which in turn helps students, parents, teachers, and education leaders alike. Readers will find guidance on how to:

- Understand and empathize with what fuels parents' anxieties and concerns.
- Align as a school and set parents' expectations about what math instruction their children will experience and how it will help them.
- Communicate clearly and productively with parents about their students' progress, strengths, and needs in math.
- Run informative and fun family events.
- Support homework.
- Coach parents to portray a productive disposition about math in front of their children.

Educators, families, and students are best served when proactive, productive, and healthy relationships have been developed with each other and with the realities of today's math education. This guide shows how these relationships can be built.
