Tusschen vuur en ijzer H. van Heerde, 1945 Tusschen vuur en ijzer H. van Heerde, 1940 May 1940 , 2010-04-27
In May 1940 the Netherlands were overrun by German armed forces The five day campaign might seem to be a prime example of Blitzkrieg which led shortly afterwards to the rapid and unexpected overthrow of France This book based on the newest scholarly research argues that this is too simple a view Even though the German assault on the Netherlands made use of tanks aircraft and airborne troops it was still a classic campaign against a weak opponent in a theater on the margins of Fall Gelb In many instances artillery and infantry were the decisive factors and it is debatable whether the bombing of Rotterdam can be seen as a precursor to the aerial terror campaigns against civilian populations that marked the later stages the Second World War Contributors are H Amersfoort H W van den Doel P H Kamphuis P M J de Koster C M Schulten and J W M Schulten 1940 Richard Collier, 2022-03-24 The most shocking year in history Week by week hour by hour In his brilliant reconstruction Richard Collier vividly brings one of the most momentous years in world history to life once again This was a time of blitzkrieg and the Blitz of the Battle of Britain and Dunkirk From the fighting in Finland to the destruction of Coventry from the sinking of the French fleet in Oran to the invasion of Norway this is history at its most extraordinary and engaging By recounting major episodes from the viewpoint of those actually involved Collier provides enlightening glimpses of just what war represented to both the great and to the unknown and reveals that while 1940 was a year of incredible folly it was also a time of inestimable bravery Perfect for readers of Anthony Beevor and Max Hastings this is an unforgettable book about an unforgettable year a year that shaped the world we know today Masterly you could be reading a spine tingling thriller Sunday Express I would like to see this book made compulsory reading Evening Standard
