Children's Literature in the Classroom Matthew D. Zbaracki, 2023-12-06 Children's literature is a powerful resource that can inspire a young reader's lifetime love of reading but how can you ensure that your literacy teaching uses this rich creative world to its fullest This book gives pre-service primary teachers an in-depth guide to each major type of children's book examining the form structure and approach of each From fairy tales and non-fiction to picture books and digital texts learn what qualities underpin outstanding children's literature and how you can use this to inspire rewarding learning experiences in your classroom Key features Each chapter is full of key book recommendations to help you select excellent age appropriate texts for your learners An international focus across English language publishing covering key books from Australian US and UK authors A special focus on Australian indigenous children's literature Busting popular myths about children's literature to give you a deeper understanding of the form Evaluation criteria for every genre helping you to recognise the qualities of high quality books This is essential reading for anyone training to teach in primary schools and qualified teachers looking to improve their professional knowledge Matthew Zbaracki is State Head of Victoria in the National School of Education at ACU Melbourne

Poetry Mentor Texts Lynne Dorfman, Rose Cappelli, 2023-10-10 Building on the success of Mentor Texts and Nonfiction Mentor Texts authors Lynne R Dorfman and Rose Cappelli now turn their attention to poetry In Poetry Mentor Texts Lynne and Rose show teachers how to use poems in both reading and writing workshops and across content areas Written in a friendly conversational tone this practical book explores a variety of poetic forms including poems that inspire response list poems acrostic poems persona poems and poems for two voices versatile forms of poetry that can be used in every grade Each of these poetic forms has its own chapter featuring five poems with applications for both reading and writing classrooms Reading connections present skills and strategies to move students forward as readers helping them to build fluency vocabulary comprehension phonemic awareness and phonics Writing connections help students and teachers discover their own voices and grow as poets and wordsmiths as they try out many poetic forms Poems help students at all grade levels learn to better address complex reading texts offering them a chance to dig deeper and use higher order thinking skills Additionally Your Turn writing lessons provide a scaffold for seamlessly moving from modeling to the shared or guided experience and the transfer to independent work The Treasure Chest offers a brief annotation of the poems discussed in each chapter as well as companion pieces that extend and enhance the work of the reading and writing classroom Poetry Mentor Texts helps teachers across the curriculum guide their students to become not only skilled readers and writers but also more empathetic human beings

Poetry People Sylvia M. Vardell, 2007-06-30 Dr Sylvia Vardell's new children's poetry reference book provides a comprehensive introduction to more than 60 contemporary young people's poets Focusing primarily on those who are still actively writing today the author includes poets appropriate for young children through young adults Each entry features brief biographical information highlights selected poetry books authored showcases awards won notes related Web sites and provides suggestions for making connections programming ideas related books and activities The book is ideal for librarians who serve children and young adults as well as for teachers and others who work with children and young adults Beginning with Arnold Adoff the list of poets is both impressive and informative A sample Francisco Alarcon Aileen Fisher Douglas Florian Nikki Giovanni Kristine O Connell George Jane Yolen Eloise Greenfield John Ciardi and many more Developing Children's Emotional Intelligence Shahnaz Bahman, Helen Maffini, 2008-07-25 Today's world presents children with a wide range of challenges that can hinder their personal and academic development It is essential therefore that as educators we equip children with the knowledge and skills they need to be successful not just academically but also in life Although there is a real pressure for schools to meet academic standards it is possible for practitioners to stimulate emotional growth through everyday classroom activities By carefully planning a curriculum that encourages children to explore their feelings through imaginative media and make believe play healthy emotional growth can occur The authors of this timely book provide a wealth of practical tools and techniques that you can use with your children to successfully develop their emotional intelligence Teaching Science in Elementary Schools S. Kay Gandy, Harmony Hendrick, Jessica Roberts, 2023-07-31 This book provides teachers with 50 dynamic activities to teach science through music food games literature community environment and everyday objects The authors share tried and tested ideas from their collective 75 years of teaching experiences For the busy teacher with little time to plan lessons resources are provided that include guided worksheets for activities pre post and during ideas to accompany activities and vocabulary and literature connections With this book in hand teachers can create opportunities for students to see science in application and to think logically as they ask questions test ideas and solve problems Celebrating Poetry Across the K-12 Curriculum Napoli, Mary, Day, Deanna, Ward, Barbara A., 2025-07-16 Poetry provides opportunities to explore the universal and common experiences that connect us as human beings When teachers infuse poetry into their classroom it can foster compassion develop interdisciplinary connections and support literacy instruction However not all teachers use poetry in their classroom either because they are not aware of the value of poetry or because they have not had positive experiences with poetry Given the importance of sharing poetry with today's youth educators must feel confident in evaluating well written poetry and how to weave poetry from award winning poets to support interdisciplinary connections Celebrating Poetry Across the K 12 Curriculum aims to ensure that poetry for children is not neglected as part of the curriculum and to help educators feel more confident in their understanding of children's poetry its relevance to children's lives and its importance to supporting pedagogical connections Featuring interviews with well known poets this resource also showcases the latest pedagogical and scholarly research supporting the integration of poetry in the K 12 classroom Covering topics such as science content romanticism and diversity recognition this book is an excellent resource for educators classroom teachers literacy specialists librarians professionals researchers scholar academicians and more Twice-Told Children's Tales

Betty Greenway,2013-09-13 It is only in childhood that books have any deep influence on our lives Graham Greene The luminous books of our childhood will remain the luminous books of our lives Joyce Carol Oates Writers as they often attest are deeply influenced by their childhood reading Salman Rushdie for example has said that The Wizard of Oz made a writer of me Twice Told Tales is a collection of essays on the way the works of adult writers have been influenced by their childhood reading This fascinating volume includes theoretical essays on Salman Rushdie and the Oz books Beauty and the Beast retold as Jane Eyre the childhood reading of Jorge Luis Borges and the remnants of nursery rhymes in Sylvia Plath s poetry It is supplemented with a number of brief commentaries on children s books by major creative writers including Maxine Hong Kingston and Maxine Kumin Poetry Aloud Here! Sylvia M. Vardell,2006-02-20 From choosing a poem and developing presentations that will keep the audience captivated to using promotional displays and materials Poetry Aloud Here takes the reader through all the steps of introducing poetry for children Teaching Children Online Carla Meskill,Natasha Anthony,2018-11-20 What does best practice in online education look like How can educators make use of the affordances offered by online environments to bring out the best in the children they teach These questions are answered in this new textbook written with experienced teachers novice educators and teacher educators in mind Meskill and Anthony offer a wealth of examples of what successful online teaching looks like and provide a rich source of practical conversation based strategies for optimizing online learning This book will inspire anyone teaching or planning to teach fully online or in a blended or hybrid format by demonstrating how well constructed online conversations constitute powerful teaching Mentor Texts Lynne R. Dorfman,Rose Cappelli,2007 Shows teachers how to help students become confident accomplished writers using literature as their foundation The book is organised around the characteristics of good writing focus content organisation style and conventions
