Ugly War Pretty Package Ugly War Pretty Package:

Ugly War, Pretty Package Deborah L. Jaramillo, 2009-09-25 Deborah L. Jaramillo investigates cable news presentation of the Iraq War in relation to high concept filmmaking. High concept films can be reduced to single sentence summaries and feature pre sold elements they were considered financially safe projects that would sustain consumer interest beyond their initial theatrical run. Using high concept as a framework for the analysis of the 2003 coverage of the Iraq War paying close attention to how Fox News and CNN packaged and promoted the U S invasion of Iraq. Ugly War Pretty Package offers a new paradigm for understanding how television news reporting shapes our perceptions of events. Wag the Dog: A Study on Film and Reality in the Digital Age Eleftheria Thanouli, 2013-08-01 Wag the Dog is a film that became a media event and a cultural icon because it inadvertently short circuited the distance that is supposed to separate reality and fiction. The film's narration challenges the established boundaries between the fiction and nonfiction tradition as Barry Levinson the director embeds his interest in documentary filmmaking and complicates the issue of narrative agency in the way he frames the story. The examination of the historical and social context in which it was produced exhibited and received worldwide enables the author to illuminate a series of changes in the way a fiction film reflects and interacts with reality urging us to reconsider some of our central and long standing concepts or even paradigms in film theory. Eleftheria Thanouli provides new insights into a series of issues from both classical and contemporary film theory like the conceptual and ontological stakes in the use of digital technology the impact of mass media on public memory and the political role of cinema in a globalized and conglomerated world. Fox Populism Reece Peck, 2019-01-03 Fox Populism offers fresh insights into why the Fox News Channel has been both commercially successful and politically effective. Where existing explanations of Fox's appeal have stressed the network's conservative editorial slant Reece Peck sheds light on the importance of style as a generative mode of ideology. The book traces the historical development of Fox's counter elite news brand and reveals how its iconoclastic news style was crafted by fusing two class based traditions of American public culture one native to the politics in populism and one native to the news field in tabloid journalism. Using the network's coverage of the late 2000s economic crisis as the book's principal case study Peck then shows how style is deployed as a political tool to frame news events. A close analysis of top rated programs reveals how Fox hails its audience as the real Americans and successfully represents narrow conservative political demands as popular and universal. Pandemic of Perspectives Rimple Mehta, Sandali Thakur, Debaroti Chakraborty, 2022-11-30 This volume brings together academics activists social work practitioners poets and artists from different parts of the world during the Covid 19 pandemic. It sheds light on how the pandemic has exposed the inequities in society and is shaping social institutions affecting human relationships and creating new norms with each passing day. It examines how people from diverse societies and fields of work have come to conceptualise and imagine a new world order based on the principles of social and ecological justice care and human dignity. It prioritises the realm of imagination.

creativity and affect in understanding social formations and in shaping societies beyond the positivist approaches Documenting the myriad experiences and responses to the pandemic the volume foregrounds varied processes of making meaning understanding impulses resistances and coping mechanisms and building solidarities Further it also acts as a tool of memory for future generations and articulations artistic political socio cultural scientific of hope and perseverance This spectrum of expressions intends to value visceral experiences build solidarities and find solace in art Its uniqueness lies in the way it brings together a much needed interface between science social sciences and humanities A compelling account on our contemporary lives the volume will be of great interest to scholars of sociology and social anthropology politics art and aesthetics psychology social work literature health and medical sciences Berlusconi 'The Diplomat' Emidio

Diodato, Federico Niglia, 2018-09-08 This book analyses the foreign policy of Silvio Berlusconi Italian media tycoon and politician who served as Prime Minister of Italy in four governments The authors examine the Italian position in the international arena and its foreign policy tradition as well as Berlusconi s general political stance Berlusconi s foreign policy strategies and the impact of those strategies in Italy Given that Berlusconi is considered a populist leader the volume considers his foreign policy as an instance of populist foreign policy an understudied but increasingly relevant topic

Management Education Thomas Klikauer, 2016-10-25 Written in the tradition of the Frankfurt School of critical theory this book develops a practical theory designed to humanise management education Inevitably encountering deeply authoritarian business schools the author sets the rigidity of curriculum against a student centred approach found in Honneth s concept of recognition and the Habermasian concept of communicative action Management Education outlines measures for preventing Managerialism from colonising learning spaces that would prevent the practice of emancipatory learning from flourishing The aim of the book is to allow students and teachers of business schools to create learning inside an education system based on humanity Historical Dictionary of United States-Middle East Relations Peter L.

Hahn, 2016-09-19 U S foreign relations in the Middle East has remained crucial through many decades and the complications facing the United States in the Middle East have become even more acute While the United States downgraded its military operations in Iraq that country failed to achieve a stable democratic footing and instead experienced schism and civil strife Israeli Palestinian disputes over land the status of refugees and control of Jerusalem intensified and international conflicts between Arab states and Israel escalated for the first time since the 1980s The Arab Spring protest movements of 2011 and after ignited political turmoil across the region leading to revolutionary change in several states and triggering persistent unrest and violence in Libya Egypt Tunisia Yemen Syria and Iraq During the recent decade in short the Middle East has become the most unstable dangerous and complicated region of the world and the United States remains near the center of the maelstrom This second edition of Historical Dictionary of United States Middle East Relations contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on national leaders non governmental organizations policy initiatives and armed conflicts as well as entries on such topics as intelligence immigration and weapons of mass destruction This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the US and Middle East Relations

Conflict Coverage Promotion: High Quality Or High Concept? A Multimodal Analysis of Claims-making in Conflict Coverage Promotional Spots of Al Jazeera English and CNN International Chris Veits,2014

Today even the war and conflict coverage of 24 hour news networks is subject to heavy promotion and part of the networks advertising and branding campaigns These commercial aspects of news production however seem to oppose concepts of journalistic quality This study analyses claims of journalistic quality and high concept in conflict coverage promotion spots and how they are linked to better understand the ideological complexes of CNN International and Al Jazeera English The findings show an equal number of quality and high concept claims with differences in the nature of the claims between the two networks Strong patterns are found in quality and high concept claims of both 24 hour television news networks The largest number appears in the visual mode The research also shows that analysing this kind of media text needs to be multimodal and that a social semiotic approach is appropriate for analysing claims making and linking in conflict coverage promotional spots

Flood of Images Bernie Cook,2015-04-01 Anyone who was not in New Orleans during Hurricane Katrina and the subsequent flooding of the city experienced the disaster as a media event a flood of images pouring across television and computer screens The twenty four hour news cycle created a surplus of representation that overwhelmed viewers and complicated understandings of the storm the flood and the aftermath As time passed documentary and fictional filmmakers took up the challenge of explaining what had happened in New Orleans reaching beyond news reports to portray the lived experiences of survivors of Katrina But while these narratives presented alternative understandings and more opportunities for empathy than TV news Katrina remained a mediated experience In Flood of Images Bernie Cook offers the most in depth wide ranging and carefully argued analysis of the mediation and meanings of Katrina He engages in innovative close and comparative visual readings of news coverage on CNN Fox News and NBC documentaries including Spike Lee s When the Levees Broke and If God Is Willing and Da Creek Don t Rise Tia Lessin and Carl Deal s Trouble the Water and Dawn Logsdon and Lolis Elie s Faubourg Tremé and the HBO drama Tremé Cook examines the production practices that shaped Katrina as media event exploring how those choices structured the possible memories and meanings of Katrina and how the media s memory making has been contested In Flood of Images Cook intervenes in the ongoing process of remembering and understanding Katrina

Communication and Peace Julia Hoffmann, Virgil Hawkins,2015-02-11 This book analyses the use of communication in resolving conflicts with a focus on de escalation and processes of peacebuilding and peace formation From the employment of hate radio in the Rwanda genocide to the current conflict between Russia and the Ukraine following events in the Crimea communication and the media are widely recognized as powerful tools in conflicts and war Although there has been significant academic attention on the relationship between the media conflict and war academic efforts to understand this relationship have tended to focus primarily on the links between communication and conflict rather than on communication and peace In order to make sense of peace it is essential to look at communication in its many facets mediated or not This is true within many of the diverse strands that make up the field of communication and peace but it is also true in the sense that a holistic and interdisciplinary approach is missing from the literature This book addresses this widely acknowledged lacuna by providing an interdisciplinary perspective on the field bringing together relevant but so far largely isolated streams of research In doing so it aims to provide a platform for further reflection of the meaning of and requirements for peace in our contemporary world with a focus on de escalation conflict transformation reconciliation and processes of peacebuilding as opposed to conflict escalation or crisis intervention This volume will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies peacebuilding media and communication studies security studies and IR in general
