the air Whereas many television stations in the United States began reading news on the air only to comply with FCC requirements WDTV treated news seriously from day one with its first regular program a local news show called Pitt Parade Today KDKA is still highly regarded among journalists for its news programming Although television news may seem familiar to us it was anything but familiar to the men and women of early television Hinds shows how they borrowed liberally from newspapers radio motion picture newsreels theater and even magazines to create by trial and error suitable ways to present the news Rather than instantly replacing radio television news moved slowly from the rip and read radio style format which simply duplicated what came over the wire services and was in the newspapers to the conventions of local newscasts we take for granted today live remotes lead and feature stories sports and weather all brought together by an in studio anchor Pittsburghers will recognize many familiar names in Hinds s account Bill Burns Paul Long Florence Sando Eleanor Schano and others veterans of Pittsburgh broadcasting whom Hinds has interviewed for this book The story they tell is the story of dozens of other stations across the country In the process they tell us much about the early history of television in America Lynn Boyd Hinds spent over twenty years in Pittsburgh television and radio before moving to Penn State University where he was an affiliate producer for WPSX TV the public broadcasting station in Central Pennsylvania There he created and hosted the popular quiz show The Pennsylvania Game Today he is Associate Professor of Broadcast News in the Perley Isaac Reed School of Journalism at West Virginia University

Mountaineer Jamboree Ivan M. Tribe, 2021-11-21 Jamboree To many country music fans the word conjures up memories of Saturday nights around the family radio listening to live broadcasts from that haven of hillbilly music West Virginia From 1926 through the 1950s as Ivan Tribe shows in his lively history country music radio programming made the Mountain State a mecca for country singers and instrumentalists from all over America Wilma Lee and Stoney Cooper Little Jimmy Dickens Hawkshaw Hawkins Red Sovine Blaine Smith Curly Ray Cline Grandpa Jones Cowboy Loye Rex and Eleanor Parker Lee Moore Buddy Starcher Doc and Chickie Williams and Molly O Day were among the many who came to prominence via West Virginia radio Wheeling s WWVA jamboree first broadcast in 1933 attracted a wide audience especially after 1942 when the station increased its power The show s success spawned numerous competitors as new stations all over West Virginia followed WWVA s lead in headlining country music The state also played an important role in the early recording industry The Tweedy Brothers Frank Hutchison Roy Harvey Blind Alfred Reed Frank Welling and John McGhee Cap and Andy and the Kessinger Brothers were among West Virginians whose waxings contributed to the state s reputation for fine native musicianship So too did those who sought out and recorded the Mountaineer folksong heritage As Nashville s dominance has grown since the 1960s West Virginia s leadership in country music has lessened Young performers must now seek fame outside their native state But as Ivan Tribe demonstrates the state s numerous outdoor festivals continue to keep alive the heritage of country music s mountain mama

Television Frederik A. Kugel, 1953 Hollywood Vault Eric Hoyt, 2014-07-03 Hollywood Vault is the story of how the business of film libraries emerged and evolved spanning the silent era to the sale of feature libraries to television Eric Hoyt argues that film libraries became valuable not because of the introduction of new technologies but because of the emergence and growth of new markets and suggests that studying the history of film libraries leads to insights about their role in the contemporary digital marketplace The history begins in the mid 1910s when the star system and other developments enabled a market for old films that featured current stars After the transition to films with sound the reissue market declined but the studios used their libraries for the production of remakes and other derivatives The turning point in the history of studio libraries occurred during the mid to late 1940s when changes in American culture and an industry wide recession convinced the studios to employ their libraries as profit centers through the use of theatrical reissues In the 1950s intermediary distributors used the growing market of television to harness libraries aggressively as foundations for cross media expansion a trend that continues today By the late 1960s the television marketplace and the exploitation of film libraries became so lucrative that they prompted conglomerates to acquire the studios The first book to discuss film libraries as an important and often underestimated part of Hollywood history Hollywood Vault presents a fascinating trajectory that incorporates cultural legal and industrial history
