We Need New Names A Novel:

We Need New Names NoViolet Bulawayo, 2013-05-21 This unflinching and powerful novel tells the deeply felt and fiercely written story of a young girl's journey out of Zimbabwe to America. New York Times Book Review Darling is only ten years old and yet she must navigate a fragile and violent world. In Zimbabwe Darling and her friends steal guavas, try to get the baby out of young Chipso's belly and grasp at memories of Before Before their homes were destroyed by paramilitary policemen before the school closed before the fathers left for dangerous jobs abroad. But Darling has a chance to escape: she has an aunt in America. She travels to this new land in search of America's famous abundance only to find that her options as an immigrant are perilously few. NoViolet Bulawayo's debut calls to mind the great storytellers of displacement and arrival who have come before her from Junot Diaz to Zadie Smith to J. M. Coetzee while she tells a vivid raw story all her own. Original witty and devastating. People

We Need New Names NoViolet Bulawayo, 2013-05-21 Follows 10-year-old Zimbabwe native Darling as she escapes the closed schools and paramilitary police control of her homeland in search of opportunity and freedom with an aunt in America.

We Need New Names NoViolet Bulawayo, 2021 There are times though that no matter how much food I eat I find the food does nothing for me like I am hungry for my country and nothing is going to fix that. This is the story of Darling uprooted from her family home by paramilitary police and living in a Zimbabwean shanty called Paradise. Despite the turmoil she revels in mischief and adventures with her friends like stealing guavas from the rich neighbourhood and singing Lady Gaga at the top of her voice. But when Darling has a chance to forge a different life in America she realises that this new paradise brings its own set of challenges. In We Need New Names a spirited girl grows into a powerful observer of global identity. Meet ten of literature's most iconic heroines jacketed in bold portraits by female photographers from around the world.

The Cambridge Companion to Literature and Food J. Michelle Coghlan, 2020-03-19 This Companion provides an engaging and expansive overview of gustation, gastronomy, agriculture and alimentary activism in literature from the medieval period to the present day as well as an illuminating introduction to cookbooks as literature. Bringing together sixteen original essays by leading scholars, the collection rethinks literary food from a variety of critical angles including gender and sexuality, critical race studies, postcolonial studies, eco-criticism and children's literature. Topics covered include mealtime decorum in Chaucer, Milton's culinary metaphors, early American taste, Romantic gastronomy, Victorian eating, African American women's culinary writing, modernist food experiments, Julia Child and cold war cooking, industrialized food in children's literature, agricultural horror and farmworker activism, queer cookbooks, hunger as protest and postcolonial legacy, and dude food in contemporary food blogs. Featuring a chronology of key publication and historical dates and a comprehensive bibliography of further reading, this Companion is an indispensable guide to an exciting field for students and instructors.

The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms Vaysman, 2025-11-04 Realism is an artistic practice that aims to faithfully represent reality. Historically it has been practiced across different media from early pictorial art and epic oral narratives through literature and visual arts to film music and digital media However an understanding of what it means to faithfully represent reality is not universal rather it varies from culture to culture The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms approaches realism as a transnational transhistorical and intermedial global phenomenon It brings the diversity of global realisms to the fore showcasing previously underrepresented and marginalized theories practices forms and media of realist cultural production Fugitive Time Matthew Omelsky,2023-11-03 In Fugitive Time Matthew Omelsky theorizes the embodied experience of time in twentieth and twenty first century black artforms from across the world Through the lens of time he charts the sensations and coursing thoughts that accompany desires for freedom as they appear in the work of artists as varied as Toni Morrison Yvonne Vera Aim C saire and Issa Samb Fugitive time names a distinct utopian desire directed at the anticipated moment when the body and mind have been unburdened of the violence that has consumed black life globally for centuries bringing with it a new form of being Omelsky shows how fugitive time is not about attaining this transcendent release but is instead about sustaining the idea of it as an ecstatic social gathering From the desire for ethereal queer worlds in the Black Audio Film Collective s Twilight City to Sun Ra s transformation of nineteenth century scientific racism into an insurgent fugitive aesthetic Omelsky shows how fugitive time evolves and how it remains a dominant form of imagining freedom in global black cultural expression Recognition, Regulation, Revitalisation Theodorus du Plessis,Chrismi-Rinda Loth,2020-01-01 Recognition Regulation Revitalisation Place Names and Indigenous Languages is a selection of double blind peer reviewed papers from the 5th International Symposium on Place Names that took place 18 20 September 2020 in Clarens South Africa The symposium celebrated 2019 as the International Year of Indigenous Languages as declared by the United Nations Holding the World Together Nwando Achebe,Claire Robertson,2019-04-16 Featuring contributions from some of the most accomplished scholars on the topic Holding the World Together explores the rich and varied ways in which women have wielded power across the African continent from the precolonial period to the present Suitable for classroom use this comprehensive volume considers such topics as the representation of African women their role in national liberation movements their experiences of religious fundamentalism both Christian and Muslim their incorporation into the world economy changing family and marriage systems impacts of the world economy on their lives and livelihoods and the unique challenges they face in the areas of health and disease Contributors Nwando Achebe Ousseina Alidou Signe Arnfred Andrea L Arrington Sirois Henryatta Ballah Teresa Barnes Josephine Beoku Betts Emily Burril Abena P A Busia Gracia Clark Alicia Decker Karen Flint December Green Cajetan Iheka Rachel Jean Baptiste Elizabeth M Perego Claire Robertson Kathleen Sheldon Aili Mari Tripp Cassandra Veney Representing Poverty in the Anglophone Postcolonial World Verena Jain-Warden,Barbara Schmidt-Haberkamp,2021-06-07 Originally a concern primarily of social studies and economics poverty has emerged as a significant thematic focus and analytical tool in literary and cultural studies in the last two decades The new poverty studies are dedicated to analyzing representations of poverty and the poor in literature and the visual arts in the news media and in social practices They aim at exploring the frameworks of representation that impact the affective and ethical responses of audiences to disenfranchised groups such as the poor The contributions to this volume focus on representations of poverty in the Anglophone postcolonial world exploring for example contemporary discourses on poverty in the UK filmic representations of Nairobi slums or the agency of the poor in literature from India New Global Realism Gabriele Lazzari,2024-08-22 A comparative study of contemporary realist novels that employ totality as a method and a formal principle to represent the social and economic inequalities of the present this book examines writing in English Italian Kannada and Spanish by authors from Zimbabwe Ghana Italy India and Mexico By theorizing four modalities of totalization employed by contemporary realist writers this book explores the current resurgence of realism and challenges critical approaches that consider it naive or formally unsophisticated Instead it argues that realist novels offer a self conscious and serious representation of the world we inhabit while actively envisioning new social designs and political configurations Through comparative studies of novels by Fernanda Melchor NoViolet Bulawayo Vivek Shanbhag Nicola Lagioia Igiaba Scego Yaa Gyasi and Roberto Bola o this book further explains why realism can be a powerful antidote to the skepticism about the possibility of making truth claims in humanist research African Women Narrating Identity Rose A. Sackeyfio,2023-08-08 This book examines the complexities of women s lives in Africa and the transnational spaces of Europe and North America through the literary works of key African women writers Using a postcolonial analytical framework the book highlights the commonalities of African women s identities and experiences across national ethnic linguistic and religious boundaries in Africa and in western settings It collates the multi regional narratives of key African women writers who convey how women s lives are shaped by social economic and political factors at home and abroad It also illustrates the intersection of ethnicity class and gender that flows through all the texts examined Unlike existing works that explore African women s fiction this book uncovers the transformation from postcolonial themes of nationhood to global modalities of post independence writing through the lens of gender The book engages with feminist expression through broad themes including religion war and ethnic conflict women s status in society tradition and modernity and local and global tensions A unique approach to literary criticism of Anglophone African women s writing this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of African Literature African Studies Women s Literature Postcolonial Literature Cultural and Ethnic Studies and Migration and Diaspora Studies Glory NoViolet Bulawayo,2022-03-08 2022 BOOKER PRIZE FINALIST Manifoldly clever brilliant Glory is its own vivid world drawn from its own folklore This is a satire with sharper teeth angrier and also very very funny Violet Kupersmith The New York Times Book Review Genius 1 New York Times bestselling author Jason Reynolds From the award winning author of the Booker prize finalist We Need New Names an exhilarating novel about the fall of an oppressive regime and the chaos and opportunity that rise in its wake NoViolet Bulawayo s bold new novel follows the fall of the Old Horse the long serving leader of a fictional country and the drama that follows for a rumbustious nation of animals on the path to true liberation Inspired by the unexpected fall by coup in November 2017 of Robert G Mugabe Zimbabwe s president of nearly four decades Glory shows a country s imploding narrated by a chorus of animal voices that unveil the ruthlessness required to uphold the illusion of absolute power and the imagination and bulletproof optimism to overthrow it completely By immersing readers in the daily lives of a population in upheaval Bulawayo reveals the dazzling life force and irresistible wit that lie barely concealed beneath the surface of seemingly bleak circumstances And at the center of this tumult is Destiny a young goat who returns to Jidada to bear witness to revolution and to recount the unofficial history and the potential legacy of the females who have quietly pulled the strings here The animal kingdom its connection to our primal responses and its resonance in the mythology folktales and fairy tales that define cultures the world over unmasks the surreality of contemporary global politics to help us understand our world more clearly even as Bulawayo plucks us right out of it Although Zimbabwe is the immediate inspiration for this thrilling story Glory was written in a time of global clamor with resistance movements across the world challenging different forms of oppression Thus it often feels like Bulawayo captures several places in one blockbuster allegory crystallizing a turning point in history with the texture and nuance that only the greatest fiction can

Tribing and Untribing the Archive Carolyn Hamilton,Nessa Leibhammer,2016 These volumes track how the domain of the tribal and traditional was marked out and came to be sharply distinguished from modernity how it was denied a changing history and an archive and was endowed instead with a timeless culture These volumes also offer strategies for engaging with the materials differently from the interventions effected in contemporary artworks to the inserting of nameless timeless objects of material culture into histories of individualized and politicized experience Publisher s description
