Pooley,2019-12-05 The moorlands of Gascony are often considered one of the most dramatic examples of top down rural modernization in nineteenth century Europe From an area of open moors they were transformed in one generation into the largest man made forest in Europe Body and Tradition in Nineteenth Century France explores how these changes were experienced and negotiated by the people who lived there drawing on the immense ethnographic archive of Felix Arnaudin 1844 1921 The study places the songs stories and everyday speech that Arnaudin collected as well as the photographs he took in the everyday lives of agricultural workers and artisans It argues that the changes were understood as a gradual revolution in bodily experiences as men and women forged new working habits new sexual relations and new ways of conceiving of their own bodies Rather than merely presenting a story of top down reform this is an account of the flexibility and creativity of the cultural traditions of the working population William G Pooley tells the story of the folklorist Arnaudin and the men and women whose cultural traditions he recorded then uncovers the work carried out by Arnaudin to explore everyday speech about the body stories of werewolves and shapeshifters tales of animal cunning and exploitation and songs about love and courtship The volume focuses on the lives of a handful of the most talented storytellers and singers Arnaudin encountered showing how their cultural choices reflect wider patterns of behaviour in the region and across rural Europe

Pacific Northwest Legends & Lore Ira Wesley Kitmacher,2024-10-29 With its sweeping vistas and rugged beauty the Pacific Northwest is a natural setting for the extraordinary Strange tales of paranormal phenomena and other wild stories thrive among the trees and waterways including sightings of Bigfoot werewolves and other mysterious cryptids Is there a curse tied to the worst streetcar disaster in Tacoma and America that resulted in 44 deaths Rumor has it that a model carved from the wooden remains of the crash claimed at least three more lives A tree stump in Crater Lake is said to have power over the weather and Terrible Tilly a lighthouse on Tillamook Head claimed several victims both before and after it was built Author and historian Ira Wesley Kitmacher explores the mysterious side of the Pacific Northwest Creatures in the Mist Gary R. Varner,2007 Bringing together a medley of stories myths and folklore Gary Varner shares a fascination and respect for humankind's early and contemporary cultures and wonders at similarities across the board. Here he focuses on Little People and giants, animals and were-creatures and the odd helpful or threatening ways imputed to our earthly companions including dogs and cats, bats and spiders and the stories people have told each other about them since time immemorial. Gary Varner has performed a valuable service in these books. Presenting lore from about the world, a collector's hoard of traditions rich and strange, Varner shows there really are obvious and puzzling similarities between widely separated cultures. Gary Varner has pointed the way to some important cross-cultural readings in the ageless themes of stone and water. Jeremy Harte, Curator of the Bourne Hall Museum, Surrey, England, in Northern Earth magazine 103 (2005). Menhirs, Dolmen and Circles of Stone is an excellent guide to large-scale magical stones and stone magic. This book is a must for anyone interested in megalithic sites. Most highly recommended. PanGaia Magazine, United States. As with other books by the same author, this is a book based upon broad research into the subject stretching across the world. What results is a fascinating weave of stories and images, descriptions of sites and associated tales that leaves a sense of a thousand deities whispering in the air. Because it is so broad a sweep, the positive outcome is an overreaching perspective of the patterns and commonalities held between human communities, our ancestors all around the world. The book is a sound overview and provocation to research more deeply ourselves to find alternative visions, tales and interpretations to find out more about the sacred currents, their depths and importance both to our ancestors and to ourselves. The author's notations are comprehensive, allowing us easily to follow the clues. A valuable piece of work. The Druid Network, England. Gary R. Varner is a lecturer and writer on folklore and early religions. He is author of several popular books comparing legends and beliefs around the world including The Mythic Forest, The Green Man, Menhirs, Dolmen and Circles of Stone, The Folklore and Magic of Sacred Stone (Algora, 2005) and Sacred Wells: A Study in the History, Meaning and Mythology of Holy Wells. His approach incorporates details from ancient cultures and from Native American, UK and European, Asian, South Pacific and African folklore. Varner is a member of the American Folklore Society.
