Standard-setting Procedures in Germany Claudia Harsch, Hans Anand Pant, Olaf Köller, 2010 This report is the second in a multi part technical report series describing the development calibration and validation of standards based tests for English as a first foreign language at the Institute for Educational Progress Institut zur Qualit tsentwicklung im Bildungswesen IQB in Berlin Germany It details the empirical basis of the calibration of the test item pool and criterion referenced standard setting procedures The aim is to make transparent the decisions methods and procedures which led to the setting of cut scores in alignment with the National Educational Standards NES i e the L nder bergreifende Bildungsstandards and the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages CEF for English as a first foreign language Standards were set for the lower secondary school level of Hauptschulabschluss and Mittlerer Bildungsabschluss This second report describes the process of relating the standards based proficiency tests to the CEF levels delineating the purpose of the tests the aims of the standard setting procedures the rationale of the chosen procedures and the use of the Manual for Linking Language Examinations to the CEF This is followed by a detailed description of the two standard setting methods employed the Bookmark method and the computer assisted Criterion Mapping method developed and implemented by the Berkeley Evaluation and Assessment Research BEAR Center University of California This volume provides information on how the standard setting sessions were conducted in collaboration with BEAR Center and describes procedures data gathering and issues and problems which arose during the course of the study The report concludes with a synthesis of the standard setting study s results and discusses the implications of how these results are reported and presented to stakeholders and policy makers Thinking Across Cultures Donald M. Topping, Doris C. Crowell, Victor N. Kobayashi, 2013-09-05 This volume compares and contrasts contemporary theories of cognition modes of perception and learning from cross cultural perspectives The participants were asked to consider and assess the question of whether people from different cultures think differently Moreover they were asked to consider whether the same approaches to teaching and development of thinking will work in all cultures as well as they do in Western literate societies Cognitive and Moral Development, Academic Achievement in Adolescence Richard M. Lerner, Jasna Jovanovic, 2016-01-28 This volume focuses on concepts central to the understanding of the key features of individuality which undergo significant transformations throughout the adolescent period Personality self and ego While rooted in distinct theoretical traditions these three concepts in combination capture the core aspects of the formation of the individual s unique sense of self or identity a psychosocial development fundamentally associated with adolescence Consistent with the developmental systems models of person context relations at the forefront of current human development theory and research the articles within this volume focus on the dynamic reciprocal relations between youth and key socializing agents within their ecologies Nevertheless the articles represented in this volume illustrate that when attempting to understand the development of personality and self systems scholars differ in the extent to which they place primary emphasis on the individual on the context or on the relationship between the two Resources in Education ,1999
