Choices Ken Decker,John Grummitt,2017-05-26 Understanding Language Choices is an introductory textbook for anyone studying the motivations behind language use choices It provides an introduction into the numerous factors both internal and external influencing such choices in a speech community language attitudes language learning identity the mobility of the community and much more The book also provides a foundation for the study of linguistic variation within a speech community as well as an introduction to methods of data collection when studying the outcomes of language use choices An important aspect of this book is its emphasis on a participatory approach to language choice research that empowers the speech community The final chapter discusses lifestyle concerns that researchers may encounter when conducting field studies in developing nations Written with the beginner in mind this textbook includes numerous examples and case studies from around the world to illustrate the realities of sociolinguistic field research A companion website keeps users of the book up to date with descriptions of the most current research methodologies Ken Decker received his M A in Linguistics from the University of Texas at Arlington in 1992 He brings to this book over 25 years experience in field research in the sociology of language and language development He has conducted sociolinguistic surveys in more than 35 languages in Asia and the Americas and served as consultant on surveys in Africa Australia Europe and the Pacific Ken is particularly interested in the role of language research in strategic language development John Grummitt received his M A in Applied Linguistics from the University of Leicester in 2002 drawing on his decade s experience as an academic writing tutor and trainer of teachers in ESL programs in Japan and South Korea His more recent survey work in Papua New Guinea has given him a perspective

Ekane,2019-09-23 THE LACK of transfiguration in low impact African academia with regards to cultivated and insensate academics is largely accountable for Africa s incapacity to reinvent transform and redeem the material condition of the African people Although this project is essentially a tale of woe regarding the largely unresponsive African academia it is also methodical in its orientation in a measure to divulge the sub rosa and hegemonic regimes which preclude objective rationality in African intellectualism Transfiguration is a prerequisite to transformation The conceptual idea is that responsiveness and transformation are essentially about the pursuit of relative gains In Africa transformation can only be achieved when African people start observing Africa through African lenses This project is intended for researchers and students of Africa as they would be introduced to introspective intuition as a fundamental framework for societal remediation
