Latinx Writing Los Angeles Ignacio López-Calvo, Victor Valle, Victor M. Valle, 2018-04-01 Latinx Writing Los Angeles offers a critical anthology of Los Angeles's most significant English language and Spanish language in translation nonfiction writing from the city's inception to the present Contemporary Latinx authors including three Pulitzer Prize winners and writers such as Harry Gamboa Jr Guillermo Gómez-Peña and Rubén Martínez focus on the ways in which Latinx Los Angeles's nonfiction narratives record the progressive racialization and subalternization of Latinxs in the southwestern United States While notions of racial memory coloniality biopolitics internal colonialism cultural assimilation Mexican or pan Latinx cultural nationalism and transnationalism permeate this anthology contributors advocate the idea of a contested modernity that refuses to accept mainstream cultural impositions proposing instead alternative ways of knowing and understanding Featuring a wide variety of voices as well as a diversity of subgenres this collection is the first to illuminate divergent hybrid Latinx histories and cultures Redefining Los Angeles's literary history and providing a new model for English Spanish and Latinx studies Latinx Writing Los Angeles is an essential contribution to southwestern and borderland studies

The Haunted States of America James Morgart, 2022-05-15 The study highlights several writers who have not received much if any attention among Gothic scholars This allows readers exposure to writers they may have never encountered before or may realize dimensions to the authors works they have never considered The study reconsiders scholarship's understanding of post war American literature This gives readers students and scholars a new approach to discussing post war fiction that is not delimited to widely accepted understanding of how Cold War anxieties were manifested in fiction The study contextualizes the fiction it examines within each work's respective region This allows readers a new way of approaching not just post war Gothic fiction but Gothic fiction in general

Migration, Transnationalism, and Faith in Missiological Perspective Kirsteen Kim, Alexia Salvatierra, 2022-04-04 Los Angeles is a global crossroads of migrating communities that presents a case study of migration transnationalism and interfaith engagement with significant implications for thinking and practice in other global hubs This book weaves together contributions from internationally recognized scholars who were brought together for the 2020 Missiology Lectures at Fuller Theological Seminary They examine historical waves of migration European Protestant Asian Latino a and Muslim into Southern California and use sociological missiological and theological methods to understand the experience of migration and its effects both on those who move and those who are already there The result shows how migrants are inspired and sustained by faith and spiritual resources how migration challenges faith communities about their identity and attitudes to others how faith communities in turn impact the migration landscape through immigrant integration and public advocacy and how migration forges new transnational and global ways of being in community and innovative religious movements The contributors put forward a mission theology of migration and suggest mission practices in response to the suffering caused by forced migration and the injustices of immigration systems Exploring Multimodal

Composition and Digital Writing Ferdig, Richard E.,Pytash, Kristine E.,2013-07-31 While traditional writing is typically understood as a language based on the combination of words phrases and sentences to communicate meaning modern technologies have led educators to reevaluate the notion that writing is restricted to this definition Exploring Multimodal Composition and Digital Writing investigates the use of digital technologies to create multi media documents that utilize video audio and web based elements to further written communication beyond what can be accomplished by words alone Educators scholars researchers and professionals will use this critical resource to explore theoretical and empirical developments in the creation of digital and multimodal documents throughout the education system Memory and the

Built Environment in 20th-Century American Literature Alice Levick,2021-05-20 From the paving of the Los Angeles River in 1938 and the creation of the G I Bill in 1944 to the construction of the Interstate Highway System during the late 1950s and the brownstoning movement of the 1970s throughout the mid 20th century the United States saw a wave of changes that had an enduring impact on the development of urban spaces Focusing on the relationship between processes of demolition and restoration as they have shaped the modern built environment and the processes by which memory is constructed hidden or remade in the literary text this book explores the ways in which history becomes entangled with the urban space in which it plays out Alice Levick takes stock of this history both in the form of its externalised concretised manifestation and its more symbolic representation as depicted in the mid 20th century work of a selection of American writers Calling upon access to archival material and interviews with New York academics authors local historians and urban planners this book locates Freud s Uncanny in the cracks between the absent and present invisible and visible memory and history as they are presented in city narratives demonstrating both the passage of time and the imposition of 20th century modernism With reference to the works of D J Waldie Joan Didion Hisaye Yamamoto Raymond Chandler Marshall Berman Gil Cuadros Paule Marshall L J Davis and Paula Fox Memory and the Built Environment in 20th Century American Literature unpacks how time becomes visible in Los Angeles Sacramento Lakewood and New York in the decades just before and after the Second World War questioning how these spaces provide access to the past in both narrative and spatial forms and how at times this access is blocked Poets & Writers ,2006 Library Journal ,2002 Los Angeles Magazine ,2002-10 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and
